

Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in the Faculty of Divinity in the University of Aberdeen four bursaries known as the 'Drum Bursaries,' on the foundation of Sir Alexander Irving, of Drum, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and twenty-nine: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be eight bursaries in the Faculty of Divinity on the said foundation, the holders of which shall annually, during their tenure thereof, each receive one-eighth of the free income of the said foundation.

II. The said bursaries shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section V. of the Ordinance mentioned in Section IV. hereof.

III. So soon as one of the said existing bursaries has become vacant, an appointment shall be made of two bursars, who shall receive the stipend above provided; and so on in the case of the remaining three existing bursaries.

IV. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries on the said foundation.

V. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at that date.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made an Ordinance relating to Regulations for Corbet Foundation in the University of Aberdeen, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

6th March 1895.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 112.

[ABERDEEN, NO. 20.—REGULATIONS FOR
CORBET FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are now in the University of Aberdeen four bursaries in the Faculty of Divinity on the foundation of the Reverend Adam Corbet, Doctor of Divinity, of Drumoak, of date in or about the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six: And whereas the said four bursaries are at present partially inoperative and dormant, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided:

I. The four bursaries on the said foundation shall hereafter be conjoined to form two bursaries which shall be tenable for three years, and no longer.

II. No appointment to a bursary on the said foundation shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of two of the said bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the Senatus Academicus may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant during the unexpired period of the tenure of the second bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant and the income to be added to the capital funds of the foundation. As soon as two of the said bursaries have become vacant, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, who shall receive one-half of the free income of the said foundation; and the like provision shall apply to the remaining two existing bursaries, and to the bursar to be appointed when both of them have become vacant.
