UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 33 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 113.

[ABERDEEN, No. 21.—REGULATIONS FOR GREIG AND MACKINTOSH FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in the Faculty of Arts in the University of Aberdeen a bursary known as the Greig Bursary, on the foundation of John Greig, merchant, Old Aberdeen, of date in or about the year seventeen hundred and twenty-four, which is in the patronage of the heirs of Andrew Robertson, Esquire, late of Foveran; and a bursary, also in the Faculty of Arts, on the foundation of Lauchlan

Mackintosh of Mackintosh, of date in or about the year seventeen hundred and twenty-eight, which is in patronage of the Mackintosh of Mackintosh: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of John Greig and the bursary on the foundation of Lauchlan Mackintosh shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Greig and Mackintosh Bursary, and the holder of the said Greig and Mackintosh Bursary shall receive the free annual income of the said two foundations.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of John Greig alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of Lauchlan Mackintosh alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, without preference as to name or birth, to the Greig and Mackintosh Bursary; and so on as often as the said Greig and Mackintosh Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. The patronage or right of presenting to the Greig and Mackintosh Bursary shall be vested in the heirs of Andrew Robertson, Esquire, late of Foveran, and the Mackintosh of Mackintosh and his heirs; and the said right shall be held as belonging to, and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held to belong to and shall be exercised by the heirs of Andrew Robertson, Esquire; and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary, the right of presenting thereto shall be held to belong to and shall be exercised by the Mackintosh of Mackintosh or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

IV. The said Greig and Mackintosh Bursary shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section hereof.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Greig and Mackintosh Bursary.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from the date of its approval by Her Majesty in
