At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas by will and codicil, both dated the twenty-first day of April eighteen hundred and one, George Hutton, of Deptford, in the county of Kent, bequeathed certain property for the foundation of bursaries and a prize of the annual value of thirty pounds in the University of Aberdeen: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall in future be one prize and ten bursaries on the said foundation.

II. The prize shall continue to be awarded under the same conditions as heretofore, and the value of the prize shall continue to be thirty pounds.

III. After setting aside in each year the sum of thirty pounds for the purposes of the said prize, the free income of the said foundation shall be appropriated to providing three bursaries of twenty-four pounds each, three bursaries of twenty pounds each, and four bursaries of eighteen pounds each.

IV. The said bursaries shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in Section VI. hereof.

V. No appointment to any of the existing bursaries on the said foundation shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; and the Senatus Academicus, with the approval of the University Court, shall determine in what year an appointment shall first be made to each of the said ten bursaries, having special regard to the expediency of distributing as far as possible among students of different years the benefits of the foundations belonging to the University.

VI. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57

[General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries on the said foundation.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at that date.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
