

ing the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be six bursaries on the said foundation, the holders of which shall annually, during their tenure thereof, each receive one-sixth of the free income of the said foundation.

II. Each of the said six bursaries shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in Section IV. hereof. The said bursaries shall be open by competition to all students entering on their first session of attendance in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

III. No appointment to any of the existing eight bursaries on the said foundation shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore ; and the Senatus Academicus, with the approval of the University Court, shall determine in what year an appointment shall first be made to each of the said six bursaries, having special regard to the expediency of distributing as far as possible among students of different years the benefits of the foundations belonging to the University.

IV. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries on the said foundation.

V. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council ; provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at that date.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made an Ordinance relating to Regulations for Fullerton Foundation in the University of Aberdeen, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
6th March 1895.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 117.

[ABERDEEN, No. 25.—REGULATIONS FOR FULLERTON FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or no behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant ; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration ; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds ; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858 : And whereas there are in the University of Aberdeen, on the foundation of James Fullerton, of Halstead, in the county of Essex, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and ninety-two, five bursaries of the annual value of twenty pounds each, and nine bursaries of the annual value of fifteen pounds each : And whereas the foundation is regulated by Ordinance numbered 47 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858 : And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided :

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. There shall hereafter be nine bursaries and one scholarship on the said foundation.

II. The said scholarship shall be tenable for two years, and no longer ; and the holder of the said scholarship shall be required, as a condition of tenure, to satisfy the Senatus Academicus that he is pursuing special higher studies, or engaged in research, either at the University of Aberdeen or at another University approved by the University Court, and he must also satisfy the Senatus Academicus of the importance of the work he proposes to undertake and of his qualifications for such work.

III. The holder of the said scholarship shall annually, during his tenure thereof, receive the sum of one hundred pounds from the income of the said foundation.

IV. The said scholarship shall be awarded for distinction in one of the Honours groups of subjects for the degree of Master of Arts specified in Section XI. of Ordinance No. 11 [General, No. 6.—Regulations for Degrees in Arts], or in one of the groups of subjects for the final examination for the degree of Bachelor of Science specified in Section IX. of Ordinance No. 12 [General, No. 7.—Regulations for Degrees in Science], as the Senatus Academicus, with the approval of the University Court, may from time to time determine ; and the scholar shall be selected by the Senatus Academicus on a report by the Faculty of Arts or by the Faculty of Science, as the case may be.
