

V. It shall not be competent to the Senatus Academicus to appoint to the said scholarship any person who has not passed all the examinations necessary for admitting him to the degree of Master of Arts or Bachelor of Science, as the case may be.

VI. The Senatus Academicus, with the approval of the University Court, shall have power to make from time to time such regulations as they may deem necessary for appropriating the said scholarship to various departments of study.

VII. No appointment to any of the five existing bursaries of the annual value of twenty pounds shall hereafter be made, for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but until all the said bursaries have become vacant the Senatus Academicus may select deserving students to hold the bursaries, which shall successively fall vacant during the unexpired period of the tenure of the remaining bursaries; and the Senatus Academicus, with the approval of the University Court, shall determine in what year an appointment shall first be made to the said scholarship, having special regard to the expediency of distributing as far as possible among students of different years the benefits of the foundations belonging to the University.

VIII. Each of the said nine bursaries of the annual value of fifteen pounds shall be tenable for four years and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section II. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section thereof. The said bursaries shall be open by competition to all students entering on their first session of attendance in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

IX. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursaries and scholarships on the said foundation.

X. Ordinance numbered 47 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, is hereby repealed.

XI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at that date.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 130.

[ABERDEEN, No. 26.—ARRANGEMENTS AS TO SITES OF CLASSES.]

At Edinburgh, the sixteenth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 2, to regulate the powers, duties, jurisdictions, and privileges of the Senatus Academicus and Faculties; and by the said section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. The classes of Greek, Humanity, Logic, Mathematics, and Moral Philosophy in the Faculty of Arts, and the classes in the Faculty of Divinity shall as heretofore assemble and be taught during the Winter Sessions in that portion of the University Buildings called King's College, with any additions that may be made thereto.

II. Subject to the provisions of the preceding section, it shall be in the power of the University Court, after consultation with the Senatus Academicus, to determine from time to time the place or places within the University where any class or classes shall assemble and be taught.

III. Ordinance No. 2 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, is hereby repealed, in so far as it is inconsistent with this Ordinance.

IV. This Ordinance shall come into force at the beginning of the first Academical year after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
