UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 135.

[EDINBURGH, No. 23.—REGULATIONS FOR DEGREES IN SCIENCE IN PUBLIC HEALTH, SUPPLEMENTARY TO ORDINANCE No. 35.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities, and the manner and conditions in and under which students shall be admitted thereto, and in particular the course of study and manner of teaching, the manner of examination, and the granting of degrees: And whereas, on the twenty-seventh day of July eighteen hundred and ninety-three years, the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, issued an Ordinance, entitled No. 35 [Edinburgh, No. 9.—Regulations for Degrees in Science in Public Health]: And the said Ordinance thereafter received the approval of Her Majesty in Council on the twenty-ninth day of January eighteen hundred and ninety-four: And whereas it is expedient to amend, extend, and explain the provisions of the said Ordinance :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the University of Edinburgh, as follows :—

I. If a candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health have attended in the University of Edinburgh or any other Scottish University, in addition to the course of lectures in Physics qualifying for graduation in Medicine, such further course in Physics as the Senatus Academicus with the approval of the University Court shall deem necessary, and such a course of lectures in Geology, extending over not less than three months, as the Senatus with the like approval shall deem sufficient and appropriate, he shall be held to have complied with the provisions of Section IV. of the recited Ordinance.

II. In lieu of the course of instruction, consisting of fifty lectures in Public Health, required by Section V. of the recited Ordinance, candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health shall attend two separate courses in Public Health, each consisting of forty lectures at least : one of these courses shall deal with Medicine, and the other with Engineering, each in its relation to Public Health, in such manner as the Senatus Academicus with the approval of the University Court shall determine.

III. The examination in Sanitation, provided for under Section VII. of the recited Ordinance, shall include Reports by the candidates on Dwellings, Workshops, Hospitals, and Sanitary Schemes generally.

IV. This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 136.

[EDINBURGH, No. 24.—REGULATIONS FOR THE BAXTER NATURAL AND PHYSICAL SCHOLARSHIPS.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant, or which they may be asked to revise and regulate by the Senatus Academicus and the founder of the trust conjointly, with the approval of the University Court; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration: And whereas there are in the University of Edinburgh two scholarships designed for the promotion and encouragement of studies in the Departments of Physical and Natural Science in that University, on the foundation of Sir David Baxter, Baronet, of Kilmaron, of date the twenty-seventh day of May Eighteen hundred and sixty-five: And whereas the provisions of the deed of foundation of the said scholarships are inconsistent with the provisions of Ordinance No. 12 [General No. 7.—Regulations for Degrees in Science] of the said Commissioners: And whereas the Trustees of the said Sir David Baxter, and his nearest male heir and successor, and the Senatus Academicus conjointly, have, with the approval of the University Court, asked the Commissioners to revise and regulate the said foundation: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundation in the University of Edinburgh, as follows :—

I. One of the said scholarships shall be awarded, on the result of the Final Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Science, to the student who is most distinguished in two or more of the Physical Science subjects specified in Section IX., sub-section 1, of Ordinance No. 12 [General No. 7.—Regulations for Degrees in Science]; and the other scholarship shall be awarded, on the result of the said examination, to the student who is most distinguished in two or more of the Natural Science subjects specified in the said section of the said Ordinance.

II. It shall no longer be a condition of tenure of the said scholarships that the holders shall obtain the degree of Doctor of Science during the first year of tenure, but they shall be required to satisfy the Senatus Academicus that they have been pursuing their studies in Science during their first year of tenure in such manner as the Senatus may fix.

III. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

[GENERAL, No. 29.—REGULATIONS AS TO APPLICATION OF PARLIAMENTARY GRANTS, AS TO SALARIES, AND FOR THE INSTITUTION OF A FEE FUND, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES, SUPPLEMENTARY TO ORDINANCES NOS. 25, 26, 27, AND 46.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 5, to regulate the management and ordering of the Universities: And whereas on the fifth day of June eighteen hundred and ninety-three years, the said Commissioners issued Ordinances, entitled No. 25 [Glasgow, No. 3.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], No. 26 [Aberdeen, No. 2.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], and No. 27 [Edinburgh, No. 6.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes]; and also on the third day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-four years, the said Commissioners issued an Ordinance entitled No. 46 [St. Andrews, No. 5.—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the Institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes]: And whereas by these Ordinances the Commissioners have appropriated to certain Chairs salaries in excess of the average net emoluments of such Chairs for the five years preceding the passing of the said Act: And whereas by Ordinance entitled No. 144. [General No. 17.—Supplementary Powers of the University Court], power is given to the University Court to revise and adjust the terms of the commission to be issued at the next vacancy of any Chair founded either before or after the passing of the said Act, with regard to the number of lectures and the period of instruction; and the said Ordinances numbered 25, 26, and 27 thereafter received the approval of Her Majesty in Council on the twenty-third day of November eighteen hundred and ninety-three years: And whereas it is expedient that provisions supplementary to all the before-mentioned Ordinances be made as hereinafter contained:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to all Professors appointed to Chairs in any University prior to the approval by Her Majesty in Council of Ordinance No. 144. [General No. 17.—Supplementary Powers of University Court], as follows:—

I. Notwithstanding the provisions of Ordinances Nos. 25, 26, 27, and 46, a Professor shall not be entitled to a salary greater in amount than the sum which the University Court after due inquiry shall deem to be the average of the net emoluments of his Chair for the five years preceding the passing of the said Act, unless he shall submit and give effect to such definition of the duties of the Chair as the University Court after consultation with the Senatus Academicus may determine.

II. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

ORDINANCE No. 138.

[ABERDEEN, No. 28.—COMMON BURSARY FUND.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and by section 14, sub-section 2, to regulate the powers, duties, jurisdictions, and privileges of the University Court, as well with respect to the government, policy, and discipline of the University, as to the management and disposal of the revenues and endowments thereof; and by section 14, sub-section 10, to ensure the due preservation and administration of the whole property, rents, revenues, endowments, and funds of the Universities; and by section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas by Ordinance numbered 28 [Aberdeen—General Regulations relative to Bursaries and Scholarships] of the Commissioners under the last-mentioned Act, it is provided that the surplus income of foundations therein specified shall be paid into a Common Bursary Fund: And whereas it is no longer necessary to make such provision for the accumulation of the surplus income of the said foundations:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the University of Aberdeen, as follows:—

I. From and after the date at which this Ordinance shall come into force, the surplus income of each foundation as aforesaid shall cease to be paid into the Common Bursary Fund for the University of Aberdeen, and the revenue of the accumulated surplus of the said fund as at the said date shall be applicable by the University Court, after the payment of expenses connected with the bursary and scholarship examinations, to the augmentation of existing bursaries or scholarships in the said University.

II. The whole free income of each foundation hitherto contributing to the said Common Bursary Fund shall, except when otherwise provided by Ordinance, be annually applied by the University Court to the payment of the stipends of the bursars or scholars, as the case may be, on each foundation, and in the event of there being any surplus revenue of any foundation, such surplus shall be applied under the provisions of Ordinance No. 140 [General, No. 31.—Revenues of Foundations].

III. Ordinance numbered 28 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, is hereby repealed, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance.

IV. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

ORDINANCE No. 139.

[GENERAL, No. 30.—DATE OF RECTORIAL ELECTION.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 4, to regulate the time, place, and manner of presenting and electing University Officers, and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. The election of Rector by the matriculated students in each University shall take place on such day in the month of October or November as may be fixed by the University Court after consultation with the Senatus Academicus; provided that such date shall not be later than the second Saturday in November in any year.

II. The provisions of the immediately preceding section shall apply so often as a vacancy in the office of Rector has occurred from any cause, or is about to occur through expiration of the statutory term: Provided that the person elected shall not in any case enter on office as Rector until a vacancy shall actually have occurred.

III. Ordinances numbered 1, 3, 4, 6, and 24 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, so far as they are inconsistent with this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.

IV. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

ORDINANCE No. 140.

[GENERAL, No. 31.—REVENUES OF FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and by section 14, sub-section 2, to regulate the powers, duties, jurisdictions, and privileges of the University Court, as well with respect to the government, policy, and discipline of the University as to the management and disposal of the revenues and endowments thereof; and by section 14, sub-section 10, to ensure the due preservation and administration of the whole property, rents, revenues, endowments, and funds of the Universities: And whereas accumulations of surplus income of foundations in the Universities are now in the hands of the trustees or administrators of such foundations: And whereas it is necessary to provide for the appropriation of such accumulations and of the accruing surplus income of such foundations:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. Accumulations of surplus income heretofore accrued of any foundation in any University, shall, except when otherwise provided by Deed or by Ordinance, be added to the capital fund of such foundation. The surplus income of any such foundation hereafter accruing shall, except as aforesaid, be added to the capital fund of such foundation; or the trustees or administrators may, with the consent of the University Court, apply the same in any year to increasing the payments for that year to the bursars or scholars on such foundation.

II. It shall be in the power of the University Court at any time to increase or diminish the value of bursaries or scholarships on any foundation administered by it, if in the opinion of the Court the state of the funds of such foundation render such increase or diminution desirable or necessary.

III. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the Senatus Academicus or any patron in the exercise of the powers conferred on them by Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships], Sections VI. and XVI.

[EDINBURGH, No. 25.—REGULATIONS FOR DOCTOR GEORGE SWINEY'S FOUNDATION.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration: And whereas there is now, on the foundation of Doctor George Swiney, of Camden Town, who died in the year 1843 without leaving any heirs at law, a Lectureship in Geology in the patronage of the Trustees of the British Museum: And whereas the holder of the said Lectureship must be a Doctor of Medicine of the University of Edinburgh: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundation in manner hereinafter provided, and such alteration has been approved by the Trustees of the British Museum and the Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain as follows:—

I. It shall be competent to Trustees of the British Museum to appoint to the said Lectureship any graduate in any Faculty in the University of Edinburgh who has obtained his degree after examination.

II. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council.

ORDINANCE No. 142.

[EDINBURGH, No. 26. — REGULATIONS FOR M'LURG AND PENMAN FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries, held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or, if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in the Faculty of Divinity in the University of Edinburgh a bursary on the foundation of Sir James M'Lurg, of Vogrie, of date in or about the year Seventeen hundred and fifteen, which is in the patronage of the Dean of Guild of the City of Edinburgh, and William Brown, surgeon, alternately; and a bursary, also in the Faculty of Divinity, on the foundation of the Rev. John Penman, minister of Bothkennar, of date in or about the year Seventeen hundred and sixty-five, which is in the patronage of Captain Robert Gordon Gilmour, of Craigmillar: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of Sir James M'Lurg and the said bursary on the foundation of the Rev. John Penman shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the M'Lurg and Penman Bursary, and the holder of the said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary shall receive the free annual income of the foundation of the said Sir James M'Lurg, together with the sum of eight pounds from the foundation of the said Rev. John Penman.

II. No person shall be presented to the said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary who is not a Master of Arts of a Scottish University.

III. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of Sir James M'Lurg alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of the Rev. John Penman alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary; and so on as often as the said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

IV. The patronage or right of presenting to the said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary shall be vested in Captain Robert Gordon Gilmour, of Craigmillar, and his heirs, the Dean of Guild of the City of Edinburgh, and William Brown, surgeon, and his heirs, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Captain Robert Gordon Gilmour, of Craigmillar, or his heirs; on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the Dean of Guild of the City of Edinburgh; on the third occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Captain Robert Gordon Gilmour, of Craigmillar, or his heirs; and on the fourth occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by William Brown, surgeon, or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

V. The said M'Lurg and Penman Bursary shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section V. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section hereof.

VI. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursary hereby instituted.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursars on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 143.

[EDINBURGH, No. 27.—REGULATIONS FOR STRUTHERS AND LEIGHTON FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-ninth day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds; and by the said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas there are in the Faculty of Divinity in the University of Edinburgh a bursary on the foundation of the Reverend William Struthers, minister of Edinburgh, which is regulated by Ordinance No. 80 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858; and a bursary, also in the Faculty of Divinity, on the foundation of Archbishop Leighton, which is regulated by Ordinance No. 85 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of Edinburgh, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend William Struthers and the said bursary on the foundation of Archbishop Leighton shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Struthers and Leighton Bursary, and the holders of the said Struthers and Leighton Bursary shall receive the free annual income of the said two foundations.

II. The said Struthers and Leighton Bursary shall be open by competition to all students who are Masters of Arts, or who have passed all the examinations necessary for admitting them to the degree of Master of Arts, and who are entering on their first session of attendance in the Faculty of Divinity in the said University.

III. No appointment of a bursar to the said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend William Struthers alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of Archbishop Leighton alone, shall hereafter be made for the ordinary period of tenure; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the Senatus Academicus may select a deserving student to hold the bursary which shall first fall vacant during the unexpired period of tenure of the other bursary, or the University Court may, on the report of the Senatus Academicus, allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the existing bursaries are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Struthers and Leighton Bursary, and so on as often as the said Struthers and Leighton Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

IV. The said Struthers and Leighton Bursary shall be tenable for four years, and no longer, subject to the provisions of Section V. of the Ordinance mentioned in the immediately succeeding section hereof.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the bursary hereby instituted.

VI. Ordinances numbered 80 and 85 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.

VII. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
19th April 1895.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Secretary for Scotland has this day confirmed the following bye-law passed by the Fishery Board for Scotland, viz. :—

BYE-LAW (No. 13) made by the Fishery Board for Scotland, under the powers conferred on the Board by the Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1885.

1. This bye-law shall extend and apply (a) to the waters inside or to the west and south of a straight line drawn from Guthrie's Pier, on the south side, to Clark's Pier, on the north side, of Mid Yell Voe, in Shetland, and (b) to the waters inside or to the north of a straight line drawn from the mouth of the burn of Colvaster, on the west side, to the mouth of the burn of Bayanne, on the east side, of Basta Voe, in Shetland.

2. Within the foresaid limits no person, unless in the service or by the orders of the Fishery Board for Scotland, shall at any time, from the date when this bye-law comes into force, dredge by any means for cockles or shell-fish of any kind; and any person acting in contravention of this bye-law shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding £100, and failing immediate payment of the fine to imprisonment for a period not exceeding sixty days, without prejudice to diligence by pointing or arrestment if no imprisonment has followed on the conviction, all in terms of the fourth section of the Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1885.

3. This bye-law shall come into force from and after the date of its confirmation by the Secretary for Scotland.

By order of the Fishery Board for Scotland.

WM. C. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

Dated at Edinburgh, this 8th day of March 1895.

I hereby confirm the foregoing bye-law.

ADDITIONAL BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS made by the Town Council of Dundee, as defined in and entitled to exercise all the powers conferred by The Dundee Corporation Act, 1894, and as such the Local Authority of the District, under "The Dundee Tramways Act, 1872," and "The Dundee Street Tramways, Turnpike Roads, and Police Act, 1878," and "The Dundee Street Tramways, Recreation Grounds, Police and Improvement Act, 1887," and "The Dundee Extension and Improvement Act, 1892," and Acts thereby incorporated, for

Regulating the Traffic on the Roads in which the Tramways are laid.

Whereas obstructions to the Tramway Traffic have been caused by the passage of large Boilers, &c., over the Lines of Tramways, it is enacted as follows:—

First.—No large Boilers, Engines, or extraordinary traffic of that description shall pass over or along the following Streets or Roads in which Tramways are laid on any day between the hours of 8 A.M. and 11.30 P.M., viz.:—Cleington Road, Strathmartine Road, common junction of Strathmartine Road and Mains Road, Main Street, Dens Road, Dura Street, common junction of Morgan Street, Pitkerro Road, Forfar Road, Mains Loan, Dura Street and Albert Street, Morgan Street, Park Avenue, Arbroath Road, Victoria Street, Victoria Bridge, Victoria Road, and Meadowside, except on any special occasions, when, on the recommendation of the Chief Constable, the Magistrate sitting in the Police Court for the time may, and he is hereby authorised to, grant special permits to pass over and along any of the said Streets or Roads.

Second.—No loaded Carts, Lorries, or other heavy vehicles shall at any time pass up that portion of Meadowside between East Bell Street and Victoria Road, but all such up-traffic shall pass west along East Bell Street and the lower part of Victoria Road. This Regulation shall not apply to traffic to and from any Works or Premises in said portion of Meadowside.

These Bye-Laws and Regulations shall supersede and come in place of those enacted by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dundee, as Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of Dundee, and as such the Local Authority of the District, on 11th November 1889.

All persons who shall offend against these additional Bye-Laws and Regulations, or either of them, shall render themselves liable in the penalties prescribed by the Bye-Laws and Regulations now in force as to Tramways.

Signed in name and by authority of the said Town Council by

D. S. SMITH, Councillor.
