A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the calling of another.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament which stands prorogued to Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of July instant: We do, for that end, publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of July instant: And We, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare that, with the advice of Our Privy Council, We have given order that Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain and Our Chancellor of Ireland do respectively, upon notice thereof, forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, for calling a new Parliament. And We do hereby also, by this our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, Our said Parliament on the twelfth day of August next, which writs are to be returnable in due course of law.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this eight day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and in the fifty-ninth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Monday the twelfth day of August next ensuing the date hereof; in order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House, in Edinburgh, on Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of July instant, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers and producing a mandate in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law): and the Lord Clerk Register, or the two Principal Clerks of the Session appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers, the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: and We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever: and We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, ten days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Windsor, this eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and in the fifty-ninth year of Our reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of July 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty having been this day pleased by Her Royal Proclamation to dissolve the present Parliament and to declare the calling of another, is hereby further pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively, and upon notice of this Her Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form and according to Law for the calling of a new Parliament, to meet at the city of Westminster, on Monday the twelfth day of August next: which Writs are to be returnable in due course of law.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of July 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the respective Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be forthwith dissolved: and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for that purpose.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of July 1895.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do, upon notice of this Her Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form of Law, for electing new Members of the Convocations of the Clergy, which Writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the thirteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

Order by the Secretary for Scotland continuing for a further period of six months the Order putting in force Part III. of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the 30th and 31st years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled 'An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Public Health in Scotland'; and by the thirty-first section of the said Act it is enacted; that 'Whenever any part of the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with or is affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may, by Order or Orders by them from time to time made, direct that the Provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part III. hereof be put in force in Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such Order or Orders may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the Parts or Places to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner revoke or renew such Order: and subject to revocation or renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order shall be expressed; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any Members thereof as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order':

And whereas by 'The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885,' it is provided that all powers and duties vested in or imposed on the Privy Council by Part III. of the said Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, shall be transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the Secretary for Scotland:

And whereas by Order, dated the 2nd day of January 1893, in respect of the prevalence of Asiatic Cholera in certain parts of Europe, the Secretary for Scotland did direct that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30th and 31st Victoria, cap. 101, be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months, from the 14th day of January 1893 :

And whereas the said Order has been from time to time renewed by the Secretary for Scotland, and expires on the 14th day of July 1895, and it is expedient to continue the said Order for a further period of six months :

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said recited Acts, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby renew the said Order, and continue the same in force for the space of six calendar months from the 14th day of July 1895.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this 11th day of July 1895.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
Alteration of Parish Areas.

ORDER No. XXV.

PARISHES OF ARBROATH AND
ST. VIGEANS.

(NEW PARISH OF ARBROATH AND
ST. VIGEANS.)

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the Town Council of Arbroath and the Parochial Boards of Arbroath and St. Vigeans that he should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, uniting the Parish of Arbroath and the Parish of St. Vigeans into one Parish :

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted and a local inquiry has been held :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation :

And whereas the proposed Order was published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th May 1895 :

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows :—

1. The Parish of Arbroath and the Parish of St. Vigeans shall be united into one Parish, to be called the Parish of Arbroath and St. Vigeans.

2. The Parish Council of Arbroath and the Parish Council of the now existing Parish of St. Vigeans shall cease and determine, and their whole powers, rights, duties, property, liabilities, debts, officers, and servants shall be transferred to the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order.

3. The Parish Councillors elected for the Parish of Arbroath and the Parish Councillors elected for the now existing Parish of St. Vigeans shall together form the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order, and shall hold office until the date of the second election of Parish Councillors.

4. The said Parish Council shall meet on the fifteenth day of July 1895, and such meeting shall be deemed to be the first statutory meeting of the Parish Council.

5. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests.

This Order shall take effect on the fifteenth day of July 1895.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 11th day of July 1895.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to Regulations for Patrick Yeaman and Moncreiffe Foundations in St. Mary's College, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
31st May 1895.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 145.

[ST. ANDREWS, NO. 21.—REGULATIONS FOR
PATRICK YEAMAN AND MONCREIFFE FOUNDATIONS
IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.]

At Edinburgh, the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in St. Mary's College in the University of St. Andrews a bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman, Esquire, of Dundee, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and seventy-five, which is in the patronage of Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston; and a bursary, also in St. Mary's College, on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White, Dean of Brechin, and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, of dates in or about the years fifteen hundred and fifty-four and seventeen hundred and one, which is in the patronage of Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman and the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary, and the holder of the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall receive one-half of the free annual income of the foundation of the said Patrick Yeaman, together with the sum of eleven pounds from the revenues of the said St. Mary's College.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary; and so on, as often as the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be vested in Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston and his heirs and Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, and his heirs, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston or his heirs, and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary, the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

IV. The said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be tenable for three years and no longer.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursars on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into effect.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) Act, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 146.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 22.—REGULATIONS FOR GLENDEE AND MAXWELL FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative and dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds; and by said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas there are now in the University of St. Andrews a bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and ninety, which is regulated by Ordinance numbered 61 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, and a bursary, known as the Maxwell Bursary, which was instituted in the year seven-teen hundred and forty-nine, out of funds bequeathed by Hugh Martin, Esq., of Strathmartine, and the said bursaries are tenable by the holders in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard, and thereafter in St. Mary's College in the said University: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee and the said Maxwell Bursary shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, and the holder of the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall receive the whole of the free annual income of the said foundations.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee alone, or to the said Maxwell Bursary alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, and so on, as often as the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. A bursar may hereafter hold the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary for three years in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard, and for three years in St. Mary's College, provided that he give regular attendance on the classes in the said Colleges, and provided that, before entering on his Divinity course in the fourth year of his tenure of the said bursary, he shall have obtained the degree of Master of Arts, or shall have passed all the examinations necessary for admitting him to that degree.

IV. A bursar who, at the end of the third year of his tenure of the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, has failed to pass all the examinations necessary for his admission to the Degree of Master of Arts, shall forfeit the said bursary; and in that event the bursary shall be awarded by the Senatus Academicus, under such conditions as the Senatus Academicus shall prescribe, to a candidate, who shall be a Master of Arts, or shall have passed the examinations necessary for his admission to that Degree, and shall be entering on his course of study in St. Mary's College. A bursar nominated under this section shall not hold the bursary for more than three years.

V. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall be vested in the Senatus Academicus and the patron of the said Glendee Bursary, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said patrons and their successors or heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the Senatus Academicus, and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the patron of the said Glendee Bursary or his heirs, and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

VI. It shall be lawful to present any person to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary without restriction as to kindred or place of birth.

VII. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary.

VIII. Ordinance numbered 61 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, is hereby repealed.

IX. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
