

And whereas by Order, dated the 2nd day of January 1893, in respect of the prevalence of Asiatic Cholera in certain parts of Europe, the Secretary for Scotland did direct that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30th and 31st Victoria, cap. 101, be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months, from the 14th day of January 1893 :

And whereas the said Order has been from time to time renewed by the Secretary for Scotland, and expires on the 14th day of July 1895, and it is expedient to continue the said Order for a further period of six months :

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the said recited Acts, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby renew the said Order, and continue the same in force for the space of six calendar months from the 14th day of July 1895.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this 11th day of July 1895.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
Alteration of Parish Areas.

ORDER No. XXV.

PARISHES OF ARBROATH AND
ST. VIGEANS.

(NEW PARISH OF ARBROATH AND
ST. VIGEANS.)

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the Town Council of Arbroath and the Parochial Boards of Arbroath and St. Vigeans that he should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, uniting the Parish of Arbroath and the Parish of St. Vigeans into one Parish :

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted and a local inquiry has been held :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation :

And whereas the proposed Order was published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th May 1895 :

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows :—

1. The Parish of Arbroath and the Parish of St. Vigeans shall be united into one Parish, to be called the Parish of Arbroath and St. Vigeans.

2. The Parish Council of Arbroath and the Parish Council of the now existing Parish of St. Vigeans shall cease and determine, and their whole powers, rights, duties, property, liabilities, debts, officers, and servants shall be transferred to the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order.

3. The Parish Councillors elected for the Parish of Arbroath and the Parish Councillors elected for the now existing Parish of St. Vigeans shall together form the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order, and shall hold office until the date of the second election of Parish Councillors.

4. The said Parish Council shall meet on the fifteenth day of July 1895, and such meeting shall be deemed to be the first statutory meeting of the Parish Council.

5. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests.

This Order shall take effect on the fifteenth day of July 1895.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 11th day of July 1895.

ORDINANCE No. 145.

[ST. ANDREWS, NO. 21.—REGULATIONS FOR
PATRICK YEAMAN AND MONCREIFFE FOUNDATIONS
IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.]

At Edinburgh, the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish
