

bursary funds: And whereas there are in St. Mary's College in the University of St. Andrews a bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman, Esquire, of Dundee, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and seventy-five, which is in the patronage of Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston; and a bursary, also in St. Mary's College, on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White, Dean of Brechin, and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, of dates in or about the years fifteen hundred and fifty-four and seventeen hundred and one, which is in the patronage of Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman and the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary, and the holder of the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall receive one-half of the free annual income of the foundation of the said Patrick Yeaman, together with the sum of eleven pounds from the revenues of the said St. Mary's College.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary; and so on, as often as the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be vested in Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston and his heirs and Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, and his heirs, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston or his heirs, and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary, the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

IV. The said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be tenable for three years and no longer.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursars on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into effect.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) Act, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 146.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 22.—REGULATIONS FOR GLENDEE AND MAXWELL FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative and dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds; and by said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions
