31st May 1895.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 145.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 21.—REGULATIONS FOR PATRICK YEAMAN AND MONCREIFFE FOUNDATIONS IN ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.]

At Edinburgh, the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative or dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries and to establish bursary funds: And whereas there are in St. Mary's College in the University of St. Andrews a bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman, Esquire, of Dundee, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and seventy-five, which is in the patronage of Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston; and a bursary, also in St. Mary's College, on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White, Dean of Brechin, and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, of dates in or about the years fifteen hundred and fifty-four and seventeen hundred and one, which is in the patronage of Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe: And whereas the value of the bursaries on the said two foundations is now very small, and it appears to the Commissioners under the said Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donors would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said two foundations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman and the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary, and the holder of the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall receive one-half of the free annual income of the foundation of the said Patrick Yeaman, together with the sum of eleven pounds from the revenues of the said St. Mary's College.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of Patrick Yeaman alone, or to the said bursary on the foundation of the Very Rev. Henry White and Sir Thomas Moncreiffe alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary; and so on, as often as the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be vested in Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston and his heirs and Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, and his heirs, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said persons and their heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Colonel Arthur Rait of Anniston or his heirs, and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary, the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by Sir Robert D. Moncreiffe, Baronet, of Moncreiffe, or his heirs; and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

IV. The said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary shall be tenable for three years and no longer.

V. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Yeaman and Moncreiffe Bursary.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursars on either of the said foundations at the date of its coming into effect.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) Act, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 146.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 22.—REGULATIONS FOR GLENDEE AND MAXWELL FOUNDATIONS.]

At Edinburgh the thirty-first day of May eighteen hundred and ninety-five years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the first-mentioned Act), the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 1, to regulate the foundations, mortifications, gifts, endowments, and bursaries held by any of the Universities or Colleges thereof existing at the passing of the said Act, or by any person in trust for or on behalf of the same, or for the benefit of any Professors, Students, or others therein, which have taken effect for more than twenty-five years previously to the passing of the said Act, or if given within less than twenty-five years, are wholly or partially inoperative and dormant; and in particular (a) to alter the conditions or directions affecting the same, if it shall appear to the Commissioners that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor, so far as is consistent with the promotion of such interests, may be better advanced by such alteration; (b) to combine or divide bursaries, and to establish bursary funds; and by said section 14, sub-section 16, to repeal or modify any Ordinance made under the provisions of the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858: And whereas there are now in the University of St. Andrews a bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee, of date in or about the year sixteen hundred and ninety, which is regulated by Ordinance numbered 61 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, and a bursary, known as the Maxwell Bursary, which was instituted in the year seven hundred and forty-nine, out of funds bequeathed by Hugh Martin, Esq., of Strathmartine, and the said bursaries are tenable by the holders in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard, and thereafter in St. Mary's College in the said University: And whereas it appears to the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act that the interests of learning and the main design of the donor would be better advanced by an alteration of the conditions and directions affecting the said foundations, in manner hereinafter provided:

Therefore the Commissioners under the first-mentioned Act statute and ordain, with regard to the said foundations in the University of St. Andrews, as follows:—

I. The said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee and the said Maxwell Bursary shall hereafter be conjoined into one bursary, to be called the Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, and the holder of the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall receive the whole of the free annual income of the said foundations.

II. No appointment to the said bursary on the foundation of the Reverend John Glendee alone, or to the said Maxwell Bursary alone, shall hereafter be made for the same period of tenure as heretofore; but in the event of the said existing bursaries not falling vacant at the same time, the patron of the bursary which shall first fall vacant, whom failing the Senatus Academicus, may select a deserving student to hold it during the unexpired period of the tenure of the other bursary, or may allow the same to remain vacant, and the income to be added to the capital fund of the foundation. As soon as the said existing bursaries on the said foundations are both vacant, and not sooner, an appointment shall be made of one bursar, and no more, to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, and so on, as often as the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall thereafter become vacant.

III. A bursar may hereafter hold the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary for three years in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard, and for three years in St. Mary's College, provided that he give regular attendance on the classes in the said Colleges, and provided that, before entering on his Divinity course in the fourth year of his tenure of the said bursary, he shall have obtained the degree of Master of Arts, or shall have passed all the examinations necessary for admitting him to that degree.

IV. A bursar who, at the end of the third year of his tenure of the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary, has failed to pass all the examinations necessary for his admission to the Degree of Master of Arts, shall forfeit the said bursary; and in that event the bursary shall be awarded by the Senatus Academicus, under such conditions as the Senatus Academicus shall prescribe, to a candidate, who shall be a Master of Arts, or shall have passed the examinations necessary for his admission to that Degree, and shall be entering on his course of study in St. Mary's College. A bursar nominated under this section shall not hold the bursary for more than three years.

V. The patronage or right of presenting to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary shall be vested in the Senatus Academicus and the patron of the said Glendee Bursary, and the said right shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the said patrons and their successors or heirs by turns; that is to say, on the first occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the Senatus Academicus, and on the second occasion of an appointment to the said bursary the right of presenting thereto shall be held as belonging to and shall be exercised by the patron of the said Glendee Bursary or his heirs, and so on in turn thereafter, as often as an appointment to the said bursary shall fall to be made.

VI. It shall be lawful to present any person to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary without restriction as to kindred or place of birth.

VII. The provisions of Ordinance No. 57 [General, No. 19.—Regulations as to Bursaries, Scholarships, and Fellowships] shall apply to the said Glendee and Maxwell Bursary.

VIII. Ordinance numbered 61 of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1858, in so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, is hereby repealed.

IX. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date of its approval by Her Majesty in Council; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the interests of any bursar on the said foundation at the date of its coming into force.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

WAR OFFICE, July 16, 1895.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the under-mentioned Officer, whose claim has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for his conspicuous bravery during the sortie from Chitral Fort, on the 3rd March last, as recorded against his name :—

Department.	Name.	Act of Courage for which recommended.
Indian Medical Service.	Surgeon-Captain Harry Frederick Whitchurch.	During the sortie from Chitral Fort of the 3rd March last, at the commencement of the siege, Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch went to the assistance of Captain Baird, 24th Bengal Infantry, who was mortally wounded, and brought him back to the fort under a heavy fire from the enemy. Captain Baird was on the right of the fighting line, and had only a small party of Gurkhas and men of the 4th Kashmir Rifles. He was wounded on the heights at a distance of a mile and a half from the fort. When Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch proceeded to his rescue, the enemy, in great strength, had broken through the fighting line; darkness had set in, and Captain Baird, Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch, and the sepoys were completely isolated from assistance. Captain Baird was placed in a dooly by Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch, and the party then attempted to return to the fort. The Gurkhas bravely clung to the dooly until three were killed and a fourth was severely wounded. Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch then put Captain Baird upon his back, and carried him some distance with heroic courage and resolution. The little party kept diminishing in numbers, being fired at the whole way. On one or two occasions Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch was obliged to charge walls, from behind which the enemy kept up an incessant fire. At one place particularly the whole party was in imminent danger of being cut up, having been surrounded by the enemy. Surgeon-Captain Whitchurch gallantly rushed the position, and eventually succeeded in getting Captain Baird and the sepoys into the fort. Nearly all the party were wounded, Captain Baird receiving two additional wounds before reaching the fort.
