TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1896.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES' PALACE, March 19, 1896.

NOTICE is hereby given that The Queen's Birthday will be Celebrated on Wednesday the 20th of May next, at all Naval and Military Stations, as well as in London.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES' PALACE, March 6, 1896.

NOTICE is hereby given that His Royal Highness The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn will hold a Levee at St. James' Palace on Thursday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES' PALACE, March 10, 1896.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday the 23rd April next, at three o'clock.

N.B.—The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, it being a Collar-Day.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
March 20, 1896.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence on the occasion of the Death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

(THIRD LIST).

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.
MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,—

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord-Lieutenant, Vice-Lieutenant, and Deputy-Lieutenants of the County of Kincardine, beg leave to approach Your Majesty to express our profound sorrow at the loss which you have sustained through the lamented death of Your Majesty's heroic son-in-law, His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg, who laid down his life in the service of his adopted country, and to offer our deep sympathy with Your Majesty and Your Royal House on the sad event which has evoked universal feelings of sorrow and sympathy.

We embrace this opportunity of renewing the assurance of our devoted attachment and loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Throne.

Signed in our name and on our behalf by ALEXANDER BAIRD, Lord-Lieutenant.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, for ourselves, and as representing the community of the City, beg most respectfully to offer to Your Majesty the humble expression of our deep regret at the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry Maurice of Battenberg, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, the Royal Consort of Your Majesty's beloved daughter Princess Beatrice, and of our sincere sympathy with Your Majesty in Your bereavement.

The deceased Prince not only by his devotion to Your Majesty but by his noble example in his exalted position, and the amiability and heroism of his character, had endeared himself to the Scottish people.

We humbly desire to assure Your Majesty of our unabated devotion to Your Person and Crown; and we pray that the sympathies of Your Majesty's loyal subjects may somewhat assuage Your Majesty's grief, and that Your Majesty may have strength to bear with fortitude the heavy trial that has befallen You.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, and the seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February 1896.

L. S.

THOMAS HUNTER, Town Clerk.

A. M'DONALD, Lord Provost.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, the County Council of the County of Zetland, beg humbly to approach Your Majesty in order to offer this expression of our deep and sincere sorrow at the irreparable loss which Your Majesty has sustained in the death of His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Battenberg.

As loyal subjects, we feel that the griefs which touch Your Majesty affect us also, and we deem it a privilege to be permitted to give expression to this sense of reverent sympathy.

We trust that Your Majesty may continue to find in the loyalty and sympathy of Your subjects some alleviation of Your grief, and we pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a leal and loving people.

Signed in name and by authority of the County Council of the County of Zetland.

L. S.

ARTHUR JAS. HAY, Vice-Convenor.

A. SUTHERLAND, County Clerk.

Lerwick, 12th February 1896.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, The Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Water Colours, in General Meeting assembled, humbly desire to renew the expression of our deep attachment to Your Majesty's person, and to offer Your Majesty our most profound sympathy in the great loss which has befallen Your Royal House by the sad death of His Royal Highness Prince

Henry of Battenberg, and to convey to Your Majesty the expression of sorrow with which we have been moved by this sad bereavement.

Signed in name and on behalf of the Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Water Colours. .

FRANCIS POWELL, President.

Dated at Glasgow, the 21st day of February 1896.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to the Foundation of the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,

25th February 1896.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 149.

[GLASGOW, No. 34.—FOUNDATION OF ADAM SMITH CHAIR OF POLITICAL ECONOMY.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such a course seems desirable, and when there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners, or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the patronage of such Professorships shall be vested.

And whereas, by deed dated the seventeenth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six, Andrew Stewart, Esquire, merchant in the City of Glasgow, gave to the University Court of the University of Glasgow the sum of fifteen thousand pounds for the foundation of a Professorship of Political Economy (to be called the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy) in the said University.

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Glasgow, as follows :—

I. There shall be a Professorship of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow (to be called the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculties of Arts and Law in the said University.

II. The annual free income of the said sum of fifteen thousand pounds, together with the sum of one hundred pounds out of the General University Fund, shall be annually paid into the Salaries Account as if they were an endowment and an additional endowment within the meaning of Section VII., sub-sections (1) and (2) of Ordinance No. 25 [Glasgow, No. 3—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], and shall be annually paid thereout to the said Professor under the provisions of Section VIII., sub-section (1) of the said Ordinance; and if such payment shall fail to reach the sum of £600, the Professor shall have such claim on the Fee Fund as if his normal salary had been fixed at £600, subject to the provisions of Section VIII., sub-sections (2) and (3) of the said Ordinance.

III. The fees of the Students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund, and the provisions of Section IV. of the said Ordinance shall be deemed to apply thereto.

IV. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of Glasgow, conjointly with one representative from time to time elected by the Merchants' House of the City of Glasgow, one representative from time to time elected by the Trades House of the City of Glasgow, and one representative from time to time elected by the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Glasgow: Provided that the appointment shall be made at a meeting of the University Court, to which each of the said representatives shall be summoned, and at which each representative shall be entitled to act and vote as if, for the purposes of the said appointment, he were a member of the University Court.

V. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor as in the case of other Professors in the University.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to the Foundation of the Berry Chair of English Literature in the University of St. Andrews, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, interms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
25th February 1896.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 150.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 23.—FOUNDATION OF BERRY CHAIR OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six years.

Whereas by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the Patronage of such Professorships shall be vested :

And whereas by will dated the twenty-third day of September eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, the late David Berry, Esquire, of Coolan-gatta, New South Wales, bequeathed to the University of St. Andrews the sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, which is now vested in and at the disposal of the University Court of the said University: And whereas the said University Court has resolved to set aside out of and as a first charge upon the free income of the said bequest of One Hundred Thousand Pounds the sum of Five Hundred Pounds per annum for the endowment and during the existence of a Chair of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the said University :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of St. Andrews, as follows :—

I. There shall be a Professorship of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the University of St. Andrews (to be called the Berry Chair of English Literature in the University of St. Andrews), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

II. There shall be paid to the said Professor the sum of £500 per annum out of the free income of the said bequest by the late David Berry, Esquire, and so soon as a Fee Fund is established in the said University, the Professor shall have such claim on the Fee Fund as if his normal salary had been fixed at £600, such claim to rank pari passu with and be subject to the same conditions as the claim of any other Professor whose normal salary is £600. Until such Fee Fund be established, the Professor shall be entitled to draw and retain for his own use the fees payable in the classes conducted by him.

III. So soon as a Fee Fund is established the fees of the students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund.

IV. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor, as in the case of other Professors in the University.

V. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of St. Andrews.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.
