LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.
Alteration of Parish Areas.

ADJUSTMENT ORDER No. VI.
(CITY PARISH OF ABERDEEN AND PARISHES OF OLD MACHAR, PETERCULTER, AND NIGG.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen that I should issue an Order under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland)

Act, 1894, for the adjustment of the powers, property, liabilities, debts, officers and servants of the said Parish Council and of the Parish Councils of the Parishes of Old Machar, Peterculter, and Nigg, consequential on the alteration of the boundaries of the said Parishes caused by the Order of the Secretary for Scotland published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 8th March 1895 (No. XVI.), constituting the said City Parish of Aberdeen :

And whereas Minutes of Agreement have been duly executed between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and other parties interested, and have been signed by me with reference to this Order, as follows, viz. :—

1. Minute of Agreement between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and the Parish Council of the Parish of Old Machar, dated 29th day of June and 23rd day of July, both 1895, and additional Minute of Agreement endorsed thereon, dated the 4th and 5th days of February, both 1896 :
2. Minute of Agreement between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and the Parish Council of the Parish of Peterculter, dated 29th day of June, 5th, 23rd, and 26th days of July, all 1895 :
3. Minute of Agreement between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and the Parish Council of the Parish of Nigg, dated 19th, 23rd, and 26th, all days of July 1895 :
4. Minute of Agreement between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and Mr. James Wallace, dated 26th October and 1st November both 1895 :

5. Minute of Agreement between the said Parish Council of the City Parish of Aberdeen and Mr. Thomas Skene, dated 30th October and 1st November, both 1895 :

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation by confirming the said Agreements.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows :

The several Agreements aforesaid are hereby confirmed.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 24th day of March 1896.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to the Foundation of the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in terms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
25th February 1896.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.
52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 149.

[GLASGOW, No. 34.—FOUNDATION OF ADAM SMITH CHAIR OF POLITICAL ECONOMY.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six years.

WHEREAS by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such a course seems desirable, and when there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners, or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the patronage of such Professorships shall be vested.

And whereas, by deed dated the seventeenth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six, Andrew Stewart, Esquire, merchant in the City of Glasgow, gave to the University Court of the University of Glasgow the sum of fifteen thousand pounds for the foundation of a Professorship of Political Economy (to be called the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy) in the said University.

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of Glasgow, as follows:—

I. There shall be a Professorship of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow (to be called the Adam Smith Chair of Political Economy in the University of Glasgow), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculties of Arts and Law in the said University.

II. The annual free income of the said sum of fifteen thousand pounds, together with the sum of one hundred pounds out of the General University Fund, shall be annually paid into the Salaries Account as if they were an endowment and an additional endowment within the meaning of Section VII., sub-sections (1) and (2) of Ordinance No. 25 [Glasgow, No. 3—Regulations as to Application of Parliamentary Grants, as to Salaries, and for the institution of a Fee Fund, and for other purposes], and shall be annually paid thereout to the said Professor under the provisions of Section VIII., sub-section (1) of the said Ordinance; and if such payment shall fail to reach the sum of £600, the Professor shall have such claim on the Fee Fund as if his normal salary had been fixed at £600, subject to the provisions of Section VIII., sub-sections (2) and (3) of the said Ordinance.

III. The fees of the Students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund, and the provisions of Section IV. of the said Ordinance shall be deemed to apply thereto.

IV. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of Glasgow, conjointly with one representative from time to time elected by the Merchants' House of the City of Glasgow, one representative from time to time elected by the Trades House of the City of Glasgow, and one representative from time to time elected by the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Glasgow: Provided that the appointment shall be made at a meeting of the University Court, to which each of the said representatives shall be summoned, and at which each representative shall be entitled to act and vote as if, for the purposes of the said appointment, he were a member of the University Court.

V. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor as in the case of other Professors in the University.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

SCOTTISH UNIVERSITIES COMMISSION.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, have made the following Ordinance relating to the Foundation of the Berry Chair of English Literature in the University of St. Andrews, and have ordered the same to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, interms of section 20, sub-section (1), of the said Act.

ROBT. FITZROY BELL, Secretary.

18 Duke Street, Edinburgh,
25th February 1896.

UNIVERSITIES (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1889.

52 and 53 Vict. c. 55.

ORDINANCE No. 150.

[ST. ANDREWS, No. 23.—FOUNDATION OF BERRY CHAIR OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.]

At Edinburgh, the twenty-fifth day of February eighteen hundred and ninety-six years.

Whereas by the Universities (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Commissioners under the said Act are empowered by section 14, sub-section 8, to found new Professorships where such course seems desirable, and where there are sufficient means for their endowment or support either from the funds administered by the Commissioners or otherwise, and to determine in what authority the Patronage of such Professorships shall be vested :

And whereas by will dated the twenty-third day of September eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, the late David Berry, Esquire, of Coolangatta, New South Wales, bequeathed to the University of St. Andrews the sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, which is now vested in and at the disposal of the University Court of the said University: And whereas the said University Court has resolved to set aside out of and as a first charge upon the free income of the said bequest of One Hundred Thousand Pounds the sum of Five Hundred Pounds per annum for the endowment and during the existence of a Chair of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the said University :

Therefore the Commissioners under the said Act statute and ordain, with reference to the University of St. Andrews, as follows :—

I. There shall be a Professorship of English Literature in the United College of St. Salvator and St. Leonard in the University of St. Andrews (to be called the Berry Chair of English Literature in the University of St. Andrews), and the Professor shall be a Professor in the Faculty of Arts in the said University.

II. There shall be paid to the said Professor the sum of £500 per annum out of the free income of the said bequest by the late David Berry, Esquire, and so soon as a Fee Fund is established in the said University, the Professor shall have such claim on the Fee Fund as if his normal salary had been fixed at £600, such claim to rank pari passu with and be subject to the same conditions as the claim of any other Professor whose normal salary is £600. Until such Fee Fund be established, the Professor shall be entitled to draw and retain for his own use the fees payable in the classes conducted by him.

III. So soon as a Fee Fund is established the fees of the students attending the classes of the said Professor shall be drawn by the University Court, and shall be paid into the Fee Fund.

IV. The University Court shall from time to time define the duties of the Professor, as in the case of other Professors in the University.

V. The Patronage of the said Professorship, and right of presenting or appointing the Professor, shall be vested in, and exercised by, the University Court of the University of St. Andrews.

VI. This Ordinance shall come into force from and after the date on which it is approved by Her Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof these presents are sealed with the seal of the Commission.

Whitehall, March 25, 1896.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 24th March 1896.)

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Prohibition of Conveyances of Animals by Steamship "Specialist."

1. It shall not be lawful during the continuance of this Order for any person to convey or cause to be conveyed any animals to or from any port in Great Britain by the steamship "Specialist" registered at the port of London, official number 96,682, and now owned by the Angier Steam
Shipping Company Limited, and such conveyance of animals by that vessel is hereby prohibited accordingly.

Offences.

2. If an animal is conveyed in contravention of the provisions of this Order, the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order—
The Act of 1894 means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:
Animals mean cattle, sheep, goats, and swine:
Master includes a person having the charge or command of the vessel:
Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Commencement and Duration.

4. This Order shall come into operation on the thirtieth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and shall cease to operate from and immediately after the twenty-ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

J. T. TENNANT,
Authorised by the President.

CORSTORPHINE, GOGAR, AND BARN-
TON RAILWAY BILL.

ADDITIONAL PROVISION.

(Deviation or Alteration of Portion of Line and Levels of Railways and other Works.)

NOTICE is hereby given that a Bill under the above name or short title is now pending in the House of Commons, and that it is intended to apply to that Honourable House by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to deviate or alter a certain portion of the line and levels of the Railways described in the said Bill, and shown on the deposited plans and sections referred to therein as Railway No. 1 and Railway No. 2, and for that purpose to supersede or relinquish the portions of the Railway so to be deviated or altered, and to substitute, make, and maintain the following new or deviated portions thereof respectively (that is to say):—

Deviation of Railway No. 1 and deviation Railway situate in the Parishes of Cramond, Currie, and Corstorphine, or one or more of them, all in the County of Mid-Lothian, commencing at a point on Railway No. 1 described in the said Bill 5 furlongs and 5½ chains from the commencement of that Railway, as marked and measured on the plans and sections thereof deposited with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Mid-Lothian in the month of November last, and terminating by a junction with the same Railway No. 1 at a point thereon 3 miles 1 furlong and 2 chains from the commencement of that Railway, as marked and measured on the said deposited plans and sections thereof.

An alteration of the levels of Railways Nos. 1 and 2, or either of them, and either in whole or in part.

A deviation of the Fair-a-Far Road, in the Parish of Cramond, commencing at a point on the north side of the Queensferry Road 286 yards or thereby westward from the west corner of the junction of the said Fair-a-Far Road with the said Queensferry Road, and terminating at a point on the west side of the said Fair-a-Far Road 110 yards or thereby northwards from the said west corner of the junction of the said two roads, in substitution for the deviation of the said road shown on the said deposited plans and sections.

The curtailment of the limit of deviation at Cramond Brig Station, in the Parish of Cramond.

Provisions will be made in the said Bill for the purchase of lands compulsorily and by agreement, the crossing, stopping up, deviation, and interference with roads, and the levying of tolls, fares, rates, and charges for the deviations and substituted Railway before described, and for varying or extinguishing of such rights and privileges as may interfere with the construction or use thereof, and generally to amend and apply the several provisions of the said Bill, the parliamentary deposit, and the share and loan capital to be raised under the powers of the Bill, to such deviation and substituted Railway in like manner, and to the same extent as if the same had been delineated on the said plans and sections deposited in November last.

Plans and sections in duplicate showing the lines and levels of the proposed deviation Railway and alteration on levels of Railways Nos. 1 and 2, and deviation of road and the lands which may be taken for the purposes thereof, with books of reference to the plans, an ordnance map, with the line of the deviated Railway delineated thereon, and a copy of this Notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 9th day of April 1896, be deposited for public inspection in the office in Edinburgh of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Mid-Lothian, and so much of the plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the aforesaid Parishes in which any of the said altered, deviated, or substituted Railways or other Works or lands will be situate, together with a copy of this Notice, will, on or before the said 9th day of April, be deposited with the Clerk of the Parish Council and the Session-Clerk of each such Parish at his residence.

Printed copies of the Petition for additional provision, and relative clauses and amendments annexed thereto, will be deposited in the Private Bill Office, House of Commons, on or immediately after the 13th day of April 1896.

Dated this 30th day of March 1896.
