

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1896.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES' PALACE, May 20, 1896.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 10th June, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS
TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making Presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make Presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The number of Presentations is limited to 200.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

LATHOM, Lord Chamberlain.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE, DUBLIN CASTLE,

June 1, 1896.

At a Meeting of the Privy Council held this day in the Council Chamber, Dublin Castle, The Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor and The Right Honourable the Vice-Chancellor were sworn Lords Justices for the Government of Ireland during the absence of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

EDINBURGH STREET TRAMWAYS
BILL.

(Alteration in Works.)

NOTICE is hereby given that, during the progress of the above-mentioned Bill through the House of Commons (in which Honourable House the Bill originated), an alteration has been made in the works proposed to be authorised by the said Bill, as introduced into Parliament, by the insertion in such Bill of provisions to the effect that the Tramway No. 2 proposed to be authorised by the said Bill shall be laid as a double line between its point of commencement at or about the eastern terminus of the Tramways of the Edinburgh Street Tramways Company in Commercial Street and the western extremity of Bernard Street, Leith, where that street joins the street called the Shore, a distance of nine chains or thereby from the said commencement, whereas on the plans deposited for the Bill in the month of November last, as required by the Standing Orders of both Houses of Parliament, with the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Edinburgh, and with the Clerk of the Parish Council of the Parish of Leith, in the said County of Edinburgh, it was shown that the said Tramway was intended to be laid as a double line for a distance only of 5-82 chains from its said point of commencement.

And Notice is hereby also given that amended plans and sections showing the proposed alteration in works, together with a Book of Reference to such amended plans, have been deposited for public inspection with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Edinburgh at his office at Edinburgh, and with the Clerk of the Parish Council of the Parish of Leith aforesaid, at his office.

Dated this 4th day of June 1896.
