ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, NOV. 1.

Copy of a letter from Rear Admiral Montague to Lord Keith.

Utrecht, in the Downs,
Oct. 29. 1803.

My Lord,
Herewith I enclose a letter from Captain Brenton, of his Majesty's sloop Merlin, stating the destruction of the French lugger privateer Les Sept Freres.

The conduct of Lieut. Thompson, and the people serving under him, merits approbation; and Lieut. De Starck, of the Millbrook, appears to have exemplified the zeal and energy which invariably attaches to his character.

The Millbrook was struck several times by shot, but not damaged, and will proceed upon service this evening.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Sloop Merlin, off Dunkirk,
Oct. 28. 1803.

I have the honour to inform you, that the boats of his Majesty's sloop Merlin, under my command, yesterday went in pursuit of, and drove on shore and totally destroyed the French lugger privateer Les Sept Freres, mounting two carriage guns, besides small arms, and manned with 30 men, commanded by the Citizen Pollet; the boats of the Merlin were commanded by Lieut. Henry Clement Thompson, who has lost an arm in the service of his King and country during the late war; and to the judicious and seamanlike conduct of Lieut. Newton Starck, I am not only indebted for cutting off the enemy's retreat into Calais, but also for bringing all the boats on board in safety after the service was performed.

The lugger went on shore about half a mile to the westward of Gravelines; Lieutenant Starck anchored the Millbrook within musket shot of her, and in the evening a heavy fire was opened upon her from the shore with some field pieces, which, however, did no sort of damage, and I am happy to say, that on our side not a man was hurt.

I flatter myself, Sir, that the conduct of the officers and men employed on this service will meet with your approbation.

I have the honour to be, &c.

E. P. BRENTON.

Rear-Admiral Montagu, &c.
