

ST. JAMES' PALACE, September 9, 1896.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint William, Lord Bagot, to be one of the Lords in Waiting in Ordinary to Her Majesty, in the room of William Frederick, Earl Waldegrave, resigned.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

September 15, 1896.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April 1872, and amended by subsequent Notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the situation of Second Class Assistant Surveyor in the Office of Her Majesty's Works, &c.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

I. The limits of age for this situation are 23 and 30. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

II. Candidates will be required to show what technical education and practical training they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must show (1) that they have served, for at least five years, in a public or private office under an Architect, or Surveyor, in general practice; (2) that the works upon which they were engaged during that period were such as to afford them the opportunity of gaining a satisfactory knowledge of their profession; and (3) that they have fully profited by their practical training and possess the necessary qualifications and experience. Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If it prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to examination, subject to such further inquiry as may be necessary.

III. The Examination will be in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. Drawings and Design of Architectural Works.
2. Details of Construction in Foundations, Masonry, Brickwork, Carpentry, Ironwork, Joinery, Plumbers' and Sanitary Work.
3. Rudimentary Calculations of Strength and Application of Materials of Construction.
4. Measurement of Quantities in Building Works and Estimates of Cost.
5. Specifications for Building Works.
6. Sanitary Engineering.
7. Practical Geometry.
8. Algebra, including Quadratic Equations.
9. Rudimentary Mechanics.
10. Use of Surveying Instruments.
11. Any one Modern Language.

IV. Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Commissioners in the subjects numbered 1 to 6.

V. A fee of £3 will be required from each Candidate attending the Examination.

VI. Application for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioners may appoint.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination, commencing on the 5th November 1896, for the situation of Second Class Assistant Surveyor in the Office of Her Majesty's Works, &c., will be held in London under the foregoing Regulations.

The number of situations to be filled will be the number vacant at the time of the Examination.

No person will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 21st October, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
