SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,

August 9, 1897.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty attaining the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Provost of the Burgh of Ballater and Chairman of Glenmuick Parish Boards, beg leave, in name and by appointment of the bodies whom we severally represent, to approach Your Majesty, and to present an humble address conveying our cordial congratulations on the happy completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's most beneficent reign. We participate in the general rejoicings with especial heartiness, enjoying as we do the privilege of seeing more of Your Majesty than is possible to the majority of Your Majesty's subjects, and being gratefully alive to the many material benefits which Your sojourn in our neighbourhood has conferred upon us.

Our personal knowledge of Your Majesty's many acts of considerate kindness towards even the humblest of Your subjects has deepened our veneration for Your person and our loyal devotion to Your Royal House, and it is our earnest prayer that Your Majesty may be long spared to gladden us by Your visits to Your Scottish home, to be venerated and beloved by all Your people, and to adorn the throne made so illustrious by Your personal virtues and constitutional government.

WM. DUGUID,
Provost of the Burgh of Ballater.

JAMES R. MIDDLETON,
Chairman, Parish Council and School Board of Glenmuick.

J. ANDERSON LOWE,
Chairman of Glenmuick School Board.

We, the County Council of the County of Zetland, humbly desire to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our loyalty and with an assurance of the sincere rejoicings with which we witness the celebration of the Sixtieth Anniversary of Your Majesty's reign.

In common with all Your Majesty's subjects, we, the residents in the most northerly county of the British Isles, have enjoyed the many inestimable advantages which have accrued to our great nation under Your Majesty's wise and auspicious sway.
