ORDER No. XXXIII.

PARISHES OF STOW, SELKIRK, GALASHIELS,
AND YARROW AND MEGGAT (NEW PARISH OF CADDONFOOT).

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the School Board of the quoad sacra Parish of Caddonfoot, that he should issue an Order under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, constituting the quoad sacra Parish of Caddonfoot (with the exception of the portion thereof situated within the Parish of Innerleithen and County of Peebles), together with the portion of the Parish of Stow outside the boundaries of the said quoad sacra Parish of Caddonfoot, but situated within the County of Selkirk, into a separate Parish quoad civilia;

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted and a local inquiry has been held;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas I caused the proposed Order to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th September 1897:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon the Secretary for Scotland by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The portion of the Parish of Stow situated within the County of Selkirk, and the portions of the Parishes of Selkirk, Galashiels, and Yarrow and Meggat situated within the boundaries of the quoad sacra Parish of Caddonfoot, shall cease to be parts of the said Parishes of Stow, Selkirk, Galashiels, and Yarrow and Meggat respectively, and shall form a separate Parish to be called the Parish of Caddonfoot.

2. The Parish Council of Caddonfoot shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Stow, the Parish Council of Selkirk, the Parish Council of Galashiels, and the Parish Council of Yarrow and Meggat of all advances which the said Parish Councils respectively may be called upon to make for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived from birth prior to the 6th day of December 1898, or from residence for the statutory period prior to the 6th day of December 1898, in the said respective portions of the Parishes of Stow, Selkirk, Galashiels, and Yarrow and Meggat.

3. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests, and all questions of adjustment consequential on this Order are expressly reserved.

4. For the purpose of receiving the Parish Council Register prior to the election of a Parish Council and summoning the first statutory meeting of the Parish Council of Caddonfoot, in terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, the Inspector of Poor of the now existing Parish of Stow shall be deemed to be the Inspector of Poor of the Parish constituted by this Order.

5. This Order shall take effect on the 15th day of May 1898, for all purposes connected with the election of Parish Councils, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this 17th day of December 1897.

ORDER No. XXXIV.

PARISHES OF HERIOT AND STOW.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the Parochial Board of the Parish of Heriot that he should issue an Order under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, annexing to the Parish of Heriot that portion of the Parish of Stow forming part of the Farms of Hangingshaw and Kirklands, and including the Hamlet of Stagebank;

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted and a local inquiry has been held;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas I caused the proposed Order to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th September 1897:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon the Secretary for Scotland by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The portion of the Farms of Hangingshaw and Kirklands, including the Hamlet of Stagebank, situated within the Parish of Stow, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Stow, and shall form part of the Parish of Heriot.
