

2. The Parish Council of Heriot shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Stow of all advances which the latter body may be called upon to make for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived (1) from birth in the said portion of the Parish of Stow prior to the 6th day of December 1898, or (2) from residence for the statutory period in the said portion of the Parish of Stow prior to the 6th day of December 1898.

3. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests, and all questions of adjustment consequential on this Order are expressly reserved.

This Order shall take effect on the 15th day of May 1898 for all purposes connected with the election of Parish Councils, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 17th day of December 1897.

ORDER No. XXXV.

PARISHES OF MONTROSE AND CRAIG.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the Town Council of the Burgh of Montrose that I should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, detaching from the Parish of Craig the portion thereof known as Rossie Island, and attaching it to the Parish of Montrose;

And whereas, after consulting with the Authorities concerned, and causing a local inquiry to be held, I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas I caused the proposed Order to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th September 1897:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon the Secretary for Scotland by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The portion of the Parish of Craig which is known as Rossie Island, and which forms part of the district of the School Board of the Burgh of Montrose, shall cease to be part of the Parish of Craig, and shall form part of the Parish of Montrose.

2. The Parish Council of Montrose shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Craig of all advances which the latter body may be called upon to make for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived (1) from birth in the said portion of the Parish of Craig prior to the 6th day of December 1898, or (2) from residence for the statutory period in the said portion of the Parish of Craig prior to the 6th day of December 1898.

3. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests, and all questions of adjustment consequential on this Order are expressly reserved.

This Order shall take effect on the 15th day of May 1898 for all purposes connected with the election of Parish Councils, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 17th day of December 1897.

ORDER No. XXXVI.

PARISHES OF COLINTON AND CRAMOND AND CITY PARISH OF EDINBURGH.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the County Council of the County of Mid-Lothian that I should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, transferring from the City Parish of Edinburgh the two portions thereof lying outside the boundaries of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, as fixed by the Edinburgh Extension Act, 1896, and annexing the same to the adjoining Parishes of Colinton and Cramond respectively;

And whereas, after consulting with the Authorities concerned, I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas I caused the proposed Order to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 28th September 1897:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred on the Secretary for Scotland by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The portion of the City Parish of Edinburgh adjoining the Parish of Colinton, and not included within the boundaries of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, as fixed by the Edinburgh Extension Act, 1896, shall cease to be part of the City Parish of Edinburgh, and shall form part of the Parish of Colinton.

2. The portion of the City Parish of Edinburgh adjoining the Parish of Cramond and not included within the boundaries of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, as fixed by the Edinburgh Extension Act, 1896, shall cease to be part of the City Parish of Edinburgh, and shall form part of the Parish of Cramond.

3. The Parish Council of Colinton and the Parish Council of Cramond shall respectively assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of the City Parish of Edinburgh of all advances which the latter body may be called upon to make for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived (1) from birth prior to the 15th day of May 1898, or (2) from residence for the statutory period prior to the 15th day of May 1898, in the said respective portions of the City Parish of Edinburgh.

4. The portion of the City Parish of Edinburgh by this Order annexed to the Parish of Colinton, shall cease to be part of the County Council Electoral Division of Edinburgh Land-
