LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

ADJUSTMENT ORDER No. XVIII.

PARISHES OF LOGIE AND ALVA.

WHEREAS the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland did, by Order dated 13th December 1890, confirmed by Act of Parliament 54 and 55 Vict. cap. 153, and coming into operation on 15th May 1891, inter alia, transfer a portion of the Parish of Logie (hereinafter called the transferred area) from the said Parish to the Parish of Alva;

And whereas, acting under the power given by section 50 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Parochial Boards of the said Parishes did in September 1891 enter into an agreement for the adjustment of liabilities in view of the alteration of areas above referred to, which agreement provided for certain annual payments being made by the Parish of Alva to the Parish of Logie in each of the five years succeeding the date of transfer, and for the Parish of Logie being during that quinquennium responsible for the paupers connected with the transferred area chargeable at the date of transfer, and for all the pauperism connected with the said area that might arise during the five years;

And whereas the Parish Council of Alva, when invited in 1896 to enter into a new agreement, declined to do so on the ground that the before-mentioned agreement was a final settlement of all questions requiring adjustment arising out of the foresaid Order;

And whereas the Parish Council of Logie, with the concurrence of the County Council of Stirling, subsequently made a Representation to me, craving me—upon the footing that the before-mentioned agreement was not intended finally to adjust liabilities between the two Parishes affected by the foresaid Order, but that it was contemplated by the parties thereto that new arrangements in regard to their respective liabilities should from time to time be made—to make such adjustment of liabilities between them and the Parish Council of Alva as I might consider fair and proper in all the circumstances of the case;

And whereas I appointed Sir John Cheyne, Q.C., Sheriff of Renfrew and Bute, to hold a local inquiry and to report to me in the matter of the said Representation, and the said Sir John Cheyne has held an inquiry, and has reported that the authorities interested have by Joint Minute and with his concurrence agreed that, in the event of my holding the before-mentioned agreement not to constitute a final adjustment of liabilities in respect of the alterations of areas effected by the foresaid Order of the Boundary Commissioners, an Order to the effect following shall be issued, and shall be accepted as a final adjustment of liabilities in respect of the said alterations of areas;

And whereas I am advised and am of opinion that, upon a sound construction of the before-mentioned agreement, the view of it presented by the Parish Council of Logie is the correct one, or, in other words, that, while what was done under the said agreement must be kept in view in any further adjustment, it does not bar me from now making an adjustment of liabilities between the two authorities;

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

The Parish Council of Alva shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Logie of all advances which the latter body may have made since 15th May 1898, or may be called upon to make, for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived—(1) from birth in the transferred area prior to the 15th day of May 1891, or (2) from residence for the statutory period in the said area prior to the last-mentioned date.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 18th day of August 1898.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

PARISHES OF LECROPT AND LOGIE.

WHEREAS the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland did, by Order dated 13th December 1890, confirmed by Order in Council 23rd February 1891, and coming into operation on 15th May 1891, inter alia, transfer a portion of the Parish of Lecropt (hereinafter called the transferred area) to the Parish of Logie, and a few acres of the Parish of Logie, containing no inhabitants, to the Parish of Lecropt;

And whereas, acting under the power given by section 50 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, the Parochial Boards of the said Parishes did in September 1891 enter into an agreement for the adjustment of liabilities in view of the alterations of areas above referred to, which agreement bears, inter alia, that "the arrangement is to take effect as from 15th May 1891 for a period of five years, the question as to the liability of future paupers to be decided by the Legislature";

And whereas the Parish Council of Lecropt, with the concurrence of the County Council of Perth, did in December 1896 make a Representation to me craving an adjustment of liabilities as between them and the Parish Council of Logie in respect of the foresaid alterations of areas, which Representation proceeded on the footing—now admitted by the Parish Council of Logie to be correct—that the before-mentioned agreement was not understood or intended to be a final adjustment of liabilities, the parties contemplating that a new arrangement should be made at the end of the five years;

And whereas I appointed Sir John Cheyne, Q.C., Sheriff of Renfrew and Bute, to hold a local inquiry, and to report to me in the matter of the said Representation, and the said Sir John Cheyne has held an inquiry, and has reported that the authorities interested have by Joint Minute and with his concurrence agreed to accept an Order to the effect following as a satisfactory final adjustment of all questions between them arising out of the alteration of areas made by the Boundary Commissioners' Order foresaid:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

The Parish Council of Logie shall assume responsibility for and shall relieve the Parish Council of Lecropt of all advances which the latter body may have made since 15th May 1898, or may be called upon to make, for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived—(1) from birth in the transferred area prior to the 15th day of May 1891, or (2) from residence for the statutory period in the said area prior to the last-mentioned date.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall, this 18th day of August 1898.
