LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

ORDER No. XXXVII.

PARISHES OF DUNBLANE, BLACKFORD, AND MUTHILL.

(NEW PARISH OF ARDOCH.)

WHEREAS by Decree of the Lords of Council and Session, dated 21st February 1855, certain portions of the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill, all as more fully described in the said Decree, were disjoined from these Parishes and erected into a separate Parish, since known as the Parish of Ardoch, excepting only in so far as regards the support and management of the poor, and all matters and questions connected therewith;

And whereas it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the School Board of Ardoch that he should issue an Order under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, forming the foresaid portions of the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill, being the district under their jurisdiction, into a Parish;

and whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted, and a local inquiry has been held;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas a doubt has arisen as to the boundaries of the Parish of Ardoch before mentioned, and it is desirable to define of new the boundaries of the Parish constituted by this Order;

And whereas the proposed Order was published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 24th May 1898:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred on me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The portions of the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill contained within the boundary line described in the schedule annexed to this Order, shall be entirely disjoined from the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill, and shall form a separate Parish, to be called the Parish of Ardoch.

2. The Parish Council of Ardoch shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Dunblane and Lecropt, the Parish Council of Blackford, and the Parish Council of Muthill of all advances which the said Parish Councils respectively may be called on to make for or on account of, any pauper whose claim is derived from birth prior to the 6th day of December 1898, or from residence for the statutory period prior to the 6th day of December 1898, in the said respective portions of the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill.

3. In lieu of the existing County Council electoral divisions of Deanston, Kilmadock, and Dunblane and Lecropt, the following shall be the County Council electoral divisions of the County of Perth, numbered 55, 56, and 57 respectively:—

No.	Name of Division.	Contents of Division.
55	Kilmadock and Deanston.	The Parish of Kilmadock, exclusive of the portion included within the Police Burgh of Doune.
56	Ardoch.	The Parish of Ardoch.
57	Dunblane and Lecropt.	The Parish of Dunblane and Lecropt, exclusive of the portion included within the Police Burgh of Dunblane.

4. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or persons having vested interests, and all questions of adjustment consequential on this Order are expressly reserved.

5. For the purpose of receiving the Parish Council register prior to the election of a Parish Council, and summoning the first statutory meeting of the Parish Council of Ardoch, in terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, the Inspector of Poor of the now existing Parish of Dunblane shall be deemed to be the Inspector of Poor of the Parish constituted by this Order.

6. This Order shall take effect at once for all purposes connected with County Council and Parish Council elections, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 22nd day of August 1898.

L. S.

BALFOUR of BURLEIGH,
Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

SCHEDULE.

BOUNDARY LINE OF THE NEW PARISH OF ARDOCH.

Beginning at the point on the north bank of the River Allan where the farm of Middle Cambushinnie joins the farm of Wester Cambushinnie, and thence north-west along the march of the said two farms till the said march meets the Kinbuck Road leading from Dunblane to Ardoch, then across the said road still north-westward and following the march between the farm of Ballanda and the said farm of Wester Cambushinnie until the said march strikes the Meikle Burn, and then west along the said burn as far as the march between the hill lands of Cromlix belonging to Captain the Honourable Arthur Drummond, and Cambushinnie Hill belonging to Patrick Stirling, Esquire, of Kippendavie. It then follows this march in a north-westerly direction to the boundary line of the Parishes of Muthill and Dunblane, then north across the River Keir following the western march of the farm of Glenlichorn, which now includes Arrevore, and proceeding north-east along the said march to the point on the east bank of the River Knaick where the north march line of the farm of Langside strikes the said river, then north-east along the said march to the road leading from Comrie to Ardoch, then across the said road north-easterly and then south-easterly, still following the north march of the farm of Langside to the point where it joins the north march of the farm of Greenscares, then eastward along the north march of the said farm of Greenscares till the said march joins the north march of the farm of Muirhead, then eastward along the said march of the farm of Muirhead and across the old road from Ardoch to Muthill till the said march joins the north march of the estate of Orchill, then east and south-east along the march of estate of Orchill, including Kaimes Castle and Cameron Hill, till the said march strikes the march line between the Parishes of Muthill and Blackford, then south-east following the march of the Orchill Estate, including the lands of Rahalloch and Easterton, till the said march strikes the road from Auchterarder to Ardoch, thence in a westerly direction along the centre of this road till it arrives at the march between the pendicle of Burnbank and the farm of Westerton, thence along that march in a south-westerly direction till it touches the farm of Carsebreak, thence along the march between the farms of Westerton and Carsebreak, which fence it follows in a southerly direction till its junction with the River Allan, thence eastward along the south bank of the River Allan till it reaches the march at the present date between the Estates of Blackford and Buttergask, which is also the boundary between the Parishes of Dunblane and Blackford, thence along that march till it joins the road from Blackford to Sheriffmuir, and along the centre of this road to where the Georgie Burn in the Quoigs Estate crosses it, thence down the centre of this burn to the Greenloaning Dunblane Road, and thence along the centre of this road in a westerly direction to the Todhill Burn at Balhaldie, and thence down the centre of this burn to the River Allan, and along the Allan to the original starting point.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

ORDER No. XXXVIII.

PARISHES OF DUNBLANE AND LECROPT.

(NEW PARISH OF DUNBLANE AND LECROPT.)

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Secretary for Scotland by the Parochial Board of Dunblane that he should issue an Order, under section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, and section 46 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, uniting the Parish of Dunblane and the Parish of Lecropt into one Parish;

And whereas the Authorities concerned have been consulted and a local inquiry has been held;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation;

And whereas the proposed Order was published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 24th May 1898;

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The Parish of Dunblane and the Parish of Lecropt shall be united into one Parish, to be called the Parish of Dunblane and Lecropt.

2. The Parish Council of Lecropt and the Parish Council of the now existing Parish of Dunblane shall cease and determine, and their whole powers, rights, duties, property, liabilities, debts, officers, and servants shall be transferred to the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order.

3. The School Board of the Parish of Lecropt and the School Board of the now existing Parish of Dunblane shall cease and determine, and their whole powers, rights, duties, property, liabilities, debts, officers, and servants shall be transferred to the School Board of the Parish constituted by this Order.

4. The members of the School Board elected for the now existing Parish of Dunblane, and such two of the members of the School Board of the Parish of Lecropt as shall be nominated by the last-mentioned Board prior to the 6th day of December 1898, shall together form the School Board of the Parish constituted by this Order, and shall hold office until the date of the next ensuing triennial election of School Boards in Scotland.

5. The said School Board shall meet on the 19th day of December 1898, at 3.30 p.m., in the County Buildings, Dunblane, and such meeting shall be deemed to be the first statutory meeting of the School Board.

6. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Creditors or of persons having vested interests.

7. For the purpose of receiving the Parish Council Register prior to the election of a Parish Council, and summoning the first statutory meeting of the Parish Council of the Parish constituted by this Order, in terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, the Inspector of Poor of the now existing Parish of Dunblane shall be deemed to be the Inspector of Poor of the Parish constituted by this Order.

8. This Order shall take effect at once for all purposes connected with County Council and Parish Council elections, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 22nd day of August 1898.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Alteration of Parish Areas.

PROPOSED ORDER No. XLIII. PARISHES OF DUNBLANE AND BLACKFORD.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the Parish Council of Blackford that, in the event of the proposed Order No. XLI., which was published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 24th May 1898, relating to the Parishes of Dunblane, Blackford, and Muthill, being made final, a portion of the Parish of Dunblane, as hereinafter described, should be detached from the Parish of Dunblane and attached to the Parish of Blackford;

And whereas the proposed Order aforesaid has been made final by my Order of this date (No. XXXVII.);

And whereas, after consulting with the Authorities concerned, I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said representation:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her

Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

1. The under-mentioned portion of the Parish of Dunblane shall cease to be part of that Parish, and shall form part of the Parish of Blackford, namely, the portion adjoining the Parish of Blackford which is contained within the following boundary, beginning where the present boundary line of the Parish of Blackford along the Sheriffmuir Road ends at the Buttergask Burn, thence past the Buttergask Burn along the centre of the said road to the Geordie Burn, thence up the Geordie Burn to its source, thence in a straight line over the summit cairn of the Glentye Hill to the old Wharry Burn, thence up this burn to the junction with the march between Dunblane and Alva, which it follows till it joins the present march between Blackford and Alva.

2. The Parish Council of Blackford shall assume responsibility for, and shall relieve the Parish Council of Dunblane and Lecropt of all advances which the latter body may be called upon to make for or on account of any pauper whose claim is derived (1) from birth in the said portion of the Parish of Dunblane prior to the 6th day of December 1898, or (2) from residence for the statutory period in the said portion of the Parish of Dunblane prior to the 6th day of December 1898.

3. Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of creditors or of persons having vested interests, and all questions of adjustment consequential on this Order are expressly reserved.

4. This Order shall take effect at once for all purposes connected with County Council and Parish Council elections, and on the 6th day of December 1898 for all other purposes.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 22nd day of August 1898.

SCOTTISH OFFICE, WHITEHALL,
August 23, 1898.

The Secretary for Scotland has been pleased, by Warrant under his hand and seal, to appoint Mr. William Leadbetter Calderwood to be Inspector of the Salmon Fisheries of Scotland.

FOREIGN OFFICE, August 22, 1898.

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received a Despatch from the Acting British Consul at Buenos Ayres stating that, in consequence of the stringent regulations now in force in the Argentine Republic with regard to the Enrolment of the National Guard, British subjects, who are unable at short notice to furnish proof of their place of birth, are liable to be subjected to some inconvenience. It is desirable, therefore, that British subjects who intend to proceed to the Argentine Republic should provide themselves with birth certificates or other satisfactory evidence of their nationality and birth-place, and that they should apply to Her Majesty's Consul at Buenos Ayres for a Protection Paper on their arrival in the Country.
