BURGH OF POLLOKSHAWS.

IN terms of Deliverance by the Sheriff of Renfrew and Bute, of date 20th September 1898, Intimation is hereby given that a Petition has been presented to said Sheriff by the Commissioners and Town Council of the Burgh of Barony of Pollokshaws, as such and as Local Authority under the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, and under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, praying him—

(First.) To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of said Burgh for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and the said Roads and Bridges and Public Health Acts, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of said Burgh in manner following, viz.:—From a point on the west side of Hagga Road, formed by the junction of the existing boundaries of the City of Glasgow and the Burgh of Pollokshaws, with the present landward part of the County of Renfrew, on a line in a westerly direction for a distance of 67 yards or thereby along the boundary of the City of Glasgow and the County of Renfrew, thence in a northerly direction along said last-mentioned boundary for a distance of 210 yards or thereby to the southmost fence of the enclosure marked 48 on the Ordnance Survey Map, thence in a westerly direction along the line of the fence of said enclosure for a distance of 173 yards or thereby to a point at the edge of the ditch forming the western boundary of the enclosure above mentioned, thence in a straight line in a southerly direction to the centre of the Bankhead gateway on the avenue leading to Pollok House, thence in a straight line in a south-westerly direction to a point on the centre of the road leading from Sheep Park Farm House to Pollok House, and distant 160 yards or thereby from said farmhouse, thence in a straight line in a south-westerly direction to a point formed by the extreme westerly boundary of the Burgh property known as the "Green Knowe," and marked 145 on the Ordnance Survey Map, and thence in a straight line from the last-named point to a point on the Auldhouse Burn situated 150 yards or thereby west of the present Burgh boundary on said burn, thence along said burn in an easterly direction to the present boundary of the Burgh, thence along the existing Burgh boundary, being the said Auldhouse Burn, to the junction of said burn with the River Cart, thence along said river to the boundary of the City of Glasgow at a point 97 yards or thereby east from the centre of Kilmarnock Road at the north end of M'Quisten Bridge, thence along the existing boundary between the City of Glasgow and said Burgh to the point first-mentioned, all as delineated on a Plan thereof formed from Ordnance Survey Sheets, and prepared by Duncan Burns, Burgh Surveyor, Pollokshaws, and lodged with said Petition, the existing boundaries of the Burgh being denoted thereon by the line coloured red, and the proposed extended boundary being denoted by the line coloured yellow, and all being situated within the Parish of Eastwood and County of Renfrew.

(Second.) To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the Wards in said Burgh, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Wards in manner following, viz:—(1) A Ward to be called the First or North-Eastern Ward, consisting of that part of the said Burgh which lies to the north-west of a line drawn along the centre of Shawhill Street from the east boundary of the Burgh to the junction of said street with Pollok Street, and to the east of a line drawn from the last-mentioned point along the centre of Pollok Street and of Hags Road to the boundary of the Burgh; (2) a Ward to be called the Second or South-Eastern Ward, consisting of that part of the said Burgh which lies to the south of the North-Eastern Ward, and to the east of a line drawn from a point on the boundary of said Ward at the junction of Shawhill Street and Pollok Street to and along the centre of M'Arthur Street and of Factory Street to the boundary of the Burgh; (3) a Ward to be called the Third or Central Ward, consisting of that part of the Burgh as extended which is enclosed within a line drawn from the centre of Hags Road at the boundary of the City of Glasgow, thence across Barrhead Road, and along the centre of Pollok Street, M'Arthur Street, and Factory Street to the bridge over the River Cart there, thence along the north-westmost bank of the River Cart and Auldhouse Burn to a point at the southern boundary of Auldfield Dyework, thence north-westward in a straight line to the centre of Cogan Street, thence along the centre of Cogan Street, across King Street, and along the centre of Matilda Street to the centre of the Barrhead Road, thence southward along the centre of Barrhead Road to the centre of the road leading therefrom to Sheep Park Farm House, thence westward along the centre of said road to the western boundary of the Burgh, and thence along the north-western and northern boundary of the Burgh to the first-mentioned point in the centre of Hags Road;

and (4) a Ward to be called the Fourth or Western Ward, consisting of the remainder of the Burgh as extended.

(Third.) To determine, in a summary manner, all questions that may arise in reference to the matters embraced in said Petition, and to appoint the Deliverance of the Court to be recorded in the Court-Books and in the Minute-Book of the Commissioners and Town Council of said Burgh; and (Fourth.) To find and declare that the whole expenses incurred in carrying out the proceedings under said Petition shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment to be levied within said Burgh.

And Intimation is further hereby given that the said Sheriff has granted the following Deliverance on said Petition, viz:—

"Edinburgh, 20th September 1898.—The Sheriff appoints the prayer of the foregoing Petition, together with this Deliverance, to be published once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in each of two successive weeks in each of the Glasgow Herald and Pollokshaws News newspapers, and assigns Monday the 31st day of October next, at eleven o'clock A.M., as a Diet for hearing all parties interested, within the Sheriff Court House, Paisley.
