(Second.) To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the Wards in said Burgh, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Wards in manner following, viz:—(1) A Ward to be called the First or North-Eastern Ward, consisting of that part of the said Burgh which lies to the north-west of a line drawn along the centre of Shawhill Street from the east boundary of the Burgh to the junction of said street with Pollok Street, and to the east of a line drawn from the last-mentioned point along the centre of Pollok Street and of Hags Road to the boundary of the Burgh; (2) a Ward to be called the Second or South-Eastern Ward, consisting of that part of the said Burgh which lies to the south of the North-Eastern Ward, and to the east of a line drawn from a point on the boundary of said Ward at the junction of Shawhill Street and Pollok Street to and along the centre of M'Arthur Street and of Factory Street to the boundary of the Burgh; (3) a Ward to be called the Third or Central Ward, consisting of that part of the Burgh as extended which is enclosed within a line drawn from the centre of Hags Road at the boundary of the City of Glasgow, thence across Barrhead Road, and along the centre of Pollok Street, M'Arthur Street, and Factory Street to the bridge over the River Cart there, thence along the north-westmost bank of the River Cart and Auldhouse Burn to a point at the southern boundary of Auldfield Dyework, thence north-westward in a straight line to the centre of Cogan Street, thence along the centre of Cogan Street, across King Street, and along the centre of Matilda Street to the centre of the Barrhead Road, thence southward along the centre of Barrhead Road to the centre of the road leading therefrom to Sheep Park Farm House, thence westward along the centre of said road to the western boundary of the Burgh, and thence along the north-western and northern boundary of the Burgh to the first-mentioned point in the centre of Hags Road;

and (4) a Ward to be called the Fourth or Western Ward, consisting of the remainder of the Burgh as extended.

(Third.) To determine, in a summary manner, all questions that may arise in reference to the matters embraced in said Petition, and to appoint the Deliverance of the Court to be recorded in the Court-Books and in the Minute-Book of the Commissioners and Town Council of said Burgh; and (Fourth.) To find and declare that the whole expenses incurred in carrying out the proceedings under said Petition shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment to be levied within said Burgh.

And Intimation is further hereby given that the said Sheriff has granted the following Deliverance on said Petition, viz:—

"Edinburgh, 20th September 1898.—The Sheriff appoints the prayer of the foregoing Petition, together with this Deliverance, to be published once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in each of two successive weeks in each of the Glasgow Herald and Pollokshaws News newspapers, and assigns Monday the 31st day of October next, at eleven o'clock A.M., as a Diet for hearing all parties interested, within the Sheriff Court House, Paisley.
