LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

Adjustment of Parish Areas.

ADJUSTMENT ORDER No. XXV.

(PARISHES OF DALKEITH AND NEWBATTLE.)

WHEREAS by my Order, published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 9th August 1895, a portion of the Parish of Newbattle was transferred to the Parish of Dalkeith:

And whereas all questions of adjustment consequential on the said Order were expressly reserved:

And whereas the Parish Council of Newbattle submitted a claim to me for adjustment, consequential on the said Order, in respect of the obligation resting on the transferred area to contribute a reasonable portion of the outlay on behalf of the poor of the Parish of Newbattle at the date of the transfer:

And whereas, after consulting the Parish Council of Dalkeith, I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the said claim:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do, in virtue of the powers conferred upon the Secretary for Scotland by the Local Government (Scotland) Acts, order as follows:—

The Parish Council of the Parish of Dalkeith shall pay to the Parish Council of the Parish of Newbattle the sum of twenty-four pounds, with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum from the date of this Order until it is paid.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall, this 2nd day of August 1899.

L. S.

BALFOUR OF BURLEIGH,
Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 26TH JULY 1899.)

DOGS (LANDING FROM IRELAND)
ORDER OF 1899.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Prohibition of Landing of Dogs.

1. Dogs brought to Great Britain from Ireland shall not be landed in Great Britain otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

Licenses for Landing in Particular Cases.

2. The Board may in any particular case grant a Licence authorising the landing of a dog, and such dog may thereupon be landed subject to and in accordance with the conditions of such Licence.

Applications for Licences.

3. Any application for a Licence under the preceding Article is to be made in writing to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4 Whitehall Place, London, S.W., and is to be accompanied by a statement signed by the owner of the dog to which the application relates, or by his agent, authorised in writing for this purpose, containing the following information (namely):—

- (i) the description of the dog, stating so far as possible for the purposes of identification, the particulars of its breed, sex, age, and colour;
- (ii) the port at which it is proposed to be landed; and
- (iii) the place to which it is proposed after being landed to be moved for the purposes of such detention and isolation as may be required by the Board, and also the route by which it is proposed to be moved to such place of detention; and
- (iv) such other information as the Board may require.

Conditions of Licence.

4.—(1) The Board may insert in any Licence granted under this Order authorising the landing of a dog such conditions as they think necessary or desirable for the following purposes—

- (a) for prescribing and regulating the detention and isolation of the dog by and at the expense of its owner for any period not exceeding six months at a place to be provided for that purpose by such owner, and to be described in the Licence; or
- (b) for regulating the movement of the dog to such place of detention and its movement during the period of detention prescribed by the Licence.

(2) A dog landed under the authority of a Licence granted under this Order shall be detained and isolated in accordance with the conditions of such Licence, and shall not be moved in contravention of any such condition.

Notice of Detention.

5. Where a dog has been landed or moved in contravention of this Order or of the conditions of a Licence granted thereunder, an Inspector of the Board may give notice in writing to the owner or person in charge of the dog requiring such detention, isolation, and restriction of the movement of the dog, as the Board think necessary or desirable, and direct for the purposes mentioned in the preceding Article.

Restriction on Granting of Licences.

6. An applicant for a Licence to be granted under this Order for the landing of a dog will be required to satisfy the Board that proper and suitable arrangements can be made for such detention and isolation of the dog as appears to the Board to be necessary or desirable.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

7. Dogs shall be animals, and rabies shall be a disease, for the purposes of this Order, and of the following sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):—

Section forty-three (powers of police);

Section forty-four (powers of inspectors);

and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences or procedure.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

8. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

9.—(1) If a dog is landed in contravention of this Order, the owner and the charterer and the master of the vessel from which it is landed, and the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the landing, and the person landing the same, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been landed in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If a dog is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a Licence granted thereunder, or of the requirements of a Notice given thereunder, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the dog, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the dog is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3) If a dog is not kept isolated as required by this Order, or by the conditions of a Licence granted thereunder, or by a Notice given thereunder, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the occupier of the place where such dog is detained, and the person failing or neglecting to isolate the dog, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts, defaults, or omissions, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4) If a person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, or of the conditions of a Licence granted thereunder, or by a Notice given thereunder, allows a dog to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

10. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

“The Board” means the Board of Agriculture:

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:

“Master” includes a person having the charge or command of a vessel:

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Commencement.

11. This Order shall come into operation on the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

Short Title.

12. This Order may be cited as the DOGS (LANDING FROM IRELAND) ORDER OF 1899.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

L. S.

T. H. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4 Whitehall Place, London, S.W.
