BURGH OF MOTHERWELL.

APETITION has been presented in the Sheriff Court of Lanarkshire at Glasgow by the Commissioners of the Burgh of Motherwell, praying the Court to revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the said Burgh for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Burgh; and the Sheriff has issued the following Deliverance thereon:—

“Glasgow, 1st November 1899.—The Sheriff of the County of Lanark having considered the foregoing Petition, appoints a copy thereof and of this Deliverance to be served upon William Alston Dykes, Writer, Hamilton, as County Clerk of Lanarkshire; and ordains the Petitioners to publish the import thereof, including therein a description of the proposed new boundaries of the Burgh, along with a copy of this Deliverance, once in each of the Edinburgh Gazette, Hamilton Advertiser, Hamilton Herald, and Motherwell Times, and also by bills posted throughout the Burgh of Motherwell; and ordains any party having interest, if they intend to show cause why the prayer of the Petition should not be granted, to lodge in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Glasgow a Notice of Appearance within fourteen days from the date of the last of said advertisements; further, appoints parties or their Agents to be heard before him within the Appeal Court, County Buildings, Wilson Street, Glasgow, upon the 29th day of November 1899, at half-past twelve o'clock afternoon.

“ROBERT BERRY.”

The proposed New and Extended Boundaries of the Burgh are described in said Petition as follows:—Commencing at a point in the centre of South Calder Water at the south face of Jerviston Camp Bridge carrying the road over said water, near to Dalziel Cemetery; thence north-west along the centre of said Calder Water till it reaches a point opposite the discharge of the Gilly's Burn; thence across said Calder Water and along the centre of the said Gilly's Burn, till it reaches a point opposite the fence dividing enclosures 551 and 532 on Ordnance Survey Plan, second edition of 1898, $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale herewith produced (said Ordnance Survey Plan being hereafter referred to as the Plan); thence north-west along the fence separating enclosure 532 from enclosures 551 and 531 on Plan and in the straight line of said fence till it reaches the south-east fence of the approach or avenue leading to Braidhurst House; thence south-west along said fence of the said approach and in the straight line thereof across the Glasgow and Carlisle Road and part of the Forge Wood till it reaches the north fence of enclosure 525 on Plan; thence south-west along the fence dividing enclosures 525 and 523 on Plan from said Forge Wood and in the straight line of said fence across the Clydesdale section of the Caledonian Railway till it reaches the south fence of said railway; thence south-west in a straight line, crossing Roman Road, till it reaches the junction of the fence between enclosures 450 and 442 on Plan, with the north-east fence of Logans Plantation; thence south-east along the north-east fence of the said Logans Plantation, crossing the sidings of the North Motherwell Colliery (Pit No. 1) in line of said fence, till it reaches the ditch or burn lying at the south side of enclosures 415 and 417 on Plan; thence north-east along the centre of said ditch or burn till it reaches a point 21 yards or thereby east from the centre line of the footpath leading to North Motherwell lying between enclosures 417 and 437 on Plan;
