OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND,
WHITEHALL, November 15, 1899.

ABERDEEN CORPORATION ACT, 1899.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Seal appointed to be made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, nominating and appointing John Fleming, Esq., Lord Provost of the City of Aberdeen, to be Her Majesty's Lieutenant of and in the County of the City of Aberdeen.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to direct the issue of a separate Commission of the Peace for the said County of the City of Aberdeen

The Queen has further been pleased to direct Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, granting a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace to the said County of the City of Aberdeen.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 13TH NOVEMBER 1899.)

SWINE FEVER (MOVEMENT FROM IRELAND) TEMPORARY ORDER OF

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Swine Fever (Movement from Ireland) Temporary Order of 1894 continued until 30th November 1900.

1. The Swine Fever (Movement from Ireland) Temporary Order of 1894 shall be read and have effect as if the thirtieth day of November one thousand nine hundred were substituted for the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four in Article 1 of that Order, as the date from and immediately after which that Order shall cease to operate, and the operation of that Order which was continued by subsequent Orders is hereby further continued accordingly.

Existing Regulations of Local Authority.

2. Any Regulations made by a Local Authority under the Swine Fever (Movement from Ireland) Temporary Order of 1894, as continued by subsequent Orders and in force on the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, shall, unless altered or revoked by such Local Authority, remain in force until the thirtieth day of November one thousand nine hundred.

Short Title.

13. This Order may be cited as the SWINE FEVER (MOVEMENT FROM IRELAND) TEMPORARY ORDER OF 1899.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this thirteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

L. S.

T. H. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

Board of Trade—Session 1900.

BROUGHTY FERRY ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

(Application to the Board of Trade, under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, for a Provisional Order to authorise the Commissioners of the Burgh of Broughty Ferry to supply Electricity for Motive Power and Public and Private Purposes in the Burgh of Broughty Ferry, in the County of Forfar; to Construct Works; to Break Up or Interfere with Streets, Railways, and Tramways; to Lay Electric Lines, Wires, etc.; to Make Charges; to Levy Rates; to Acquire Lands, Easements, and Servitudes; to Enter into Agreements with respect to the Supply and Installation of Electric Light and Fittings, and to all or any of the purposes or objects of the Order; to Borrow Money; to Transfer Undertaking; and for other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 21st day of December next, by the Commissioners of the Burgh of Broughty Ferry, in the County of Forfar, being the Local Authority in that Burgh for the purposes and within the meaning of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, as amended by the Electric Lighting (Scotland) Act, 1890, and who are hereinafter called "the Undertakers," and whose address is the Burgh Chambers, Broughty Ferry, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the said Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing Session, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorise the Undertakers to generate, store, sell, supply, and distribute Electricity for motive power and all public and private purposes within the area of supply hereinafter mentioned—that is to say, within the limits of the Burgh of Broughty Ferry (hereinafter called "the area of supply").

2. To authorise the Undertakers to appropriate, hold, and use, for the purposes of the Order, any lands, houses, or property belonging to or held by them; and for the like purposes, to purchase, hold, acquire, feu, or take on lease any lands, houses, property, easements, or servitudes in lands, with power to sell, lease, sub-let, or dispose of the same.

3. To authorise the Undertakers to erect, construct, provide, lay down, alter, renew, and maintain, work, and use on lands or property belonging to or leased by, or to be acquired or leased by, the Undertakers within the area of supply, such central and other stations, buildings, engine houses, and works for the generation, storage, supply and distribution of Electricity and Electric currents as may from time to time be necessary for supplying Electricity within the area of supply, or for other the purposes of the Order, together with engines, dynamos, batteries, machinery, and other apparatus necessary or convenient for the purposes aforesaid, and to lay down, place and maintain, alter, renew, and remove, Electric lines, wires, conductors, mains, pipes, tubes, posts, and other apparatus and works for the supply and distribution of Electricity and Electric currents in, through, under, over, along, or across all streets, bridges, squares, courts, alleys, highways, lanes, roads, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, public passages and places within the area of supply.

4. To authorise the Undertakers to cross, open, break up, and stop up, for the purposes of the Order, the soil and pavement of the several streets and thoroughfares, railways, tramways, and bridges within the area of supply, and to take up, relay, divert, or alter sewers, drains, mains, and all gas and water pipes, and telegraph and telephonic tubes and wires, and other works therein, within the area of supply, and do all such other works and acts, and to confer on the Undertakers all such further powers as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects of the Order.

5. To authorise the Undertakers to manufacture, purchase, hire, sell, and supply dynamos, accumulators, meters, lamps, fittings, appliances, machinery apparatus, patents, and plant, in relation to the manufacture, storage, supply, and distribution of Electricity; to enter into contracts, agreements, and arrangements with the owner, lessee, or occupier of any house or premises within the area of supply with respect to the supply and installation of Electric light and fittings, and the terms and conditions of such supply and installation, and the payments to be made therefor, and the inclusion of such payments in the rate leviable by the Undertakers under the Order and the Acts incorporated therewith; and to confer all necessary powers upon the Undertakers in that behalf.

6. To authorise the Undertakers to sell, transfer, or lease to any local or other public authority, company, or person, all or any of the rights, powers, privileges, duties and liabilities given to or imposed upon them by the Order, or the said Electric Lighting Acts for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on, and to make and carry into effect agreements for the production and distribution of Electricity, and for the performing of all Acts incidental to public and private lighting.

7. To authorise the Undertakers to enter upon any houses or other premises supplied, or proposed to be supplied, with Electricity by them for any purpose relating to such supply.

8. To make provision for the inspection and testing of mains, conductors, meters, and other works, for the appointment and remuneration of Electric Inspectors, and for the supply, use, and inspection, testing and certifying of meters, fittings, and instruments, and generally for the regulation of the supply of Electricity within the area of supply.

9. To empower the Undertakers to make charges, and levy and recover rates, rents, and charges for the supply of Electricity, and for the use of any dynamos or machines, lamps, fittings, accumulators, meters, and other apparatus in connection therewith, and to define and limit the prices to be charged for such supply, and to confer exemptions from payment thereof.

10. To empower the Undertakers to apply their funds and the local rate, as defined in the said Acts, or a special or other rate, towards all or any of the purposes of the Order, and to borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the Order, and for defraying the expenses incurred thereunder on the security of such local or special or other rate, and to impose, levy, and recover rates to defray such expenses, and in security of the money so borrowed and for paying the interest thereon, and to provide for the disposal or application of the revenue arising from the undertaking.

11. To authorise the Undertakers to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with companies or persons for the execution and maintenance of works, machinery, and apparatus, and the supply by or to the Undertakers of Electrical energy for all purposes, including a supply by the Undertakers for motive power or other purposes to the owners or lessees of any tramway or light railway, whether within or without the area of supply, and to relieve the Undertakers from the consequences of the acts or defaults of such companies or persons.

12. To confer upon the Undertakers all or some of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, and enactments incorporated therewith, and such other powers, rights and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of the Order, and to vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which may be inconsistent therewith.

13. To incorporate with the Order, and to extend and apply to the undertaking and works and to the Undertakers, with or without variation, all or some of the provisions of the Electric Lighting Acts and of the Acts, or portions of Acts, incorporated therewith, and of the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, and to alter or repeal, in so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Order, all or some of the provisions of The Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, The Broughty Ferry Commissioners Gas Act, 1870, and any other Act or Acts relating directly or indirectly to the Burgh of Broughty Ferry.

In Parliament—Session 1900.

SCOTTISH WIDOWS' FUND AND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

(Extension of Objects of the Society; New Fundamental Tables; Constitution of Special Funds in respect of different Classes of Assurance and Provisions in relation thereto; Effect of Assignment of Interest of Members; New Provisions with respect to Regulation and Management of Affairs and Business of Society; New Provisions as to date of Periodical Investigation of Society's Affairs, and Appointment of Local Boards; Investment of Funds; Amendment or Repeal of Acts, and other matters.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called "the Bill") for all or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To alter, extend, and enlarge the objects of the Scottish Widows' Fund and Life Assurance Society (hereinafter called the Society) and to confer upon the Society, or upon an extraordinary or an ordinary Court of the Society, new and increased powers with regard to the granting of policies of assurance and of annuities the contingencies, matters, and things which may be made the subject of such policies, and whether involving life contingency or not, and the terms and conditions of such assurances and annuities, and with regard to the granting of policies of assurance without right to participate in the surplus assets of the Society.

2. To enable the Society, or an extraordinary or an ordinary Court thereof, from time to time to alter or readjust the Fundamental Tables of the Society, referred to in section 19 of the Scottish Widows' Fund and Life Assurance Society's Act, 1882 (hereinafter called the Act of 1882), or from time to time to prescribe or adopt new Tables, and to substitute such Tables for the Fundamental Tables of the Society, now authorised by the several Acts relating to the Society, and to define or to provide for defining the rights, privileges, and interests of existing and future Members of the Society, consequent on any such alteration or readjustment.

3. To make provision for the constitution of separate or special funds in respect of Assurances of any class granted by the Society, and for the interest of the Members of the Society therein, whether such Members are insured in respect of such special class or otherwise, and for the investment of such funds, and to provide for the position of such funds, and the rights and privileges or liabilities attaching thereto, as respects the other funds and assets of the Society.

4. To define or to make provision for determining who shall be or who shall be deemed to be Members of the Society, and their rights, to enable any Member of the Society to assign and transfer his interest in the Society, and to provide that such Member may, notwithstanding such transfer, remain a Member, and entitled to vote until his assignee shall be admitted in his place, in manner to be prescribed by the Bill.

5. To make provision for better regulating the affairs and business of the Society, and the mode of conducting the same for the meetings of general and extraordinary Courts of the Society, and for the election of the Chairman of the ordinary Court, and of such general and extraordinary Courts, the eligibility of Directors for re-election, and their resignation and removal, and other matters relating to the internal government and management of the Society and its affairs.

6. To provide that the periodical investigation of the Society's affairs shall take place at the end of every seven years, or at the end of such other periods as may from time to time be prescribed by a general Court, or be defined in the Bill.

7. To enable an extraordinary or an ordinary Court to appoint Local Directors, whether members of the Society or not, to be Local Directors of the Society in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and to confer upon such Local Directors or upon officers of the Society such powers with regard to accepting proposals, granting assurances or annuities, and execution of policies, obligations, and documents as an extraordinary Court or ordinary Court may think proper, or as the Bill may prescribe.

8. To alter, extend, and enlarge the powers of the Society, or of an ordinary Court thereof, with regard to the investment of funds, and to the purchase and holding of lands in England, Wales, or Ireland, and to define and explain what shall be deemed to be included in the expression "lands" for the purposes of any such investment.

9. To vary or extinguish any existing rights and privileges which might interfere with, or prevent the execution of, the purposes of the Bill, and to confer all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary for carrying the same into effect.

10. To alter, amend, and extend, or to repeal and re-enact with alterations, certain provisions of the Scottish Widows' Fund and Life Assurance Society's Incorporation Act, 1861, the Act of 1882, the Scottish Widows' Fund and Life Assurance Society's Act, 1883, and the Scottish Widows' Fund and Life Assurance Society's Act, 1891, and to alter or repeal any other Act of Parliament, law or custom, which might in any way interfere with the objects of the Bill.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 14th day of November 1899.

Board of Trade—Session 1900.

PORTESSIE HARBOUR

(PROVISIONAL ORDER).

(Construction of Harbour and Works connected therewith at Portessie, in the County of Banff; Constitution, Election, and Incorporation of Harbour Commissioners; Power to fix Limits of Harbour; to confirm Agreements with the Dowager-Countess of Seafield relating to the Harbour; Power to levy Tolls, Rates, Duties, and Charges; Application and Borrowing of Money for purposes of Harbour Maintenance, Management, and Administration of Harbour, Incorporation of Acts, and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next for a Provisional Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), pursuant to "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861," and "The General Pier and Harbour Act 1861 Amendment Act," for all or some of the following among other powers and purposes; that is to say:—

To construct and maintain a Harbour and Works connected therewith at Portessie Bay, being part of the Moray Firth in or adjoining the Parish of Rathven and County of Banff.

To provide for the constitution and election of a Board of Harbour Commissioners (hereinafter referred to as "the Commissioners"), and for the persons to act as electors of the Commissioners, and to incorporate the Commissioners, and to confer on them all necessary and usual powers to enable them to carry into execution the objects and purposes of the Order.

To authorise the Commissioners to construct and maintain in connection with the said Harbour the following Works (that is to say):—

1. A Pier (Work No. 1) commencing at or near high water mark of spring tides at a point 120 feet north—twenty-four degrees—east from the north-west corner of the house belonging to Mrs. Catherine Farquhar and Alexander Farquhar, being the first house east of the junction of the road leading to Loanhead Farm with the Shore Road in the Village of Portessie, and extending seaward in the direction of north ten degrees west for a distance of 320 feet, thence in the direction of north fifteen degrees east for a distance of 235 feet, thence in the direction north forty-one degrees east for a distance of 133 feet, and thence in the due easterly direction for a distance of 65 feet, and there terminating in the sea.

2. A Breakwater (Work No. 2) commencing in the sea at a point east thirty-three degrees north and seventy feet distant from the termination of the Pier Work No. 1, and thence extending in the due easterly direction for a distance of 150 feet, and there terminating in the sea about forty feet out from low water line of ordinary spring tides.

The said Works will be situate in the said Parish of Rathven and County of Banff, and in the bed of Portessie Bay and the foreshore thereof, being part of the Moray Firth, and opposite or partly opposite the eastern portion of Portessie Village.

To authorise the construction of all necessary excavations, embankments, walls, approaches, roads, wharves, warehouses, sheds, cranes, mooring buoys, lights, and other works and conveniences in connection with the said Harbour and Works.

To deviate laterally within the limits of deviation shown on the plan and vertically from the levels shown on the sections to be deposited as aftermentioned, to any extent which may be defined in the said Order.

To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise hold and acquire lands, houses, and other property necessary for the purpose of the said Harbour and Works and of the Order, and to sell or dispose of any lands or property.

To take power to excavate the shore and bed of Portessie Bay in the Moray Firth in, adjoining, and near to the intended Harbour and Works or any of them, and to remove all shingle, rocks, and shoals within such limits as may be defined in the Order, and to dredge, scour, deepen, and improve from time to time the approaches to the Harbour and Works, and to use and appropriate or otherwise dispose of the materials so dredged.

To define the limits of the intended Harbour.

To confirm any agreement made or to be made between the Right Honourable Caroline, Countess-Dowager of Seafield, and any persons with reference to the said intended Harbour, and with reference to the proposed Works in connection with the said Harbour, and with reference to the acquisition of lands and property in connection therewith.

To levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges on steamboats, vessels, boats, and other craft using the Harbour and Works or any of them, or calling at or departing therefrom, and on passengers, goods, animals, fish, and things embarked or disembarked, shipped or unshipped, loaded or unloaded within the Harbour as defined by the Order, or at the Works thereof, or in respect of the use of any warehouse, shed, crane, mooring buoy, work or convenience, or any services connected therewith.

To provide for the fixing, regulating, and collection of such tolls, rates, duties, and charges.

To compound for the same.

To confer, vary, alter, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Commissioners to receive and to apply any monies now applicable for the purposes of the said Harbour and Works or of the Order, and to borrow money from the Public Works Loan Board and otherwise on the security of the Harbour and Works and the lands and property connected therewith, and of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorised by the Order, or of any or either of them, and to re-borrow from time to time, and to provide a sinking fund for payment of borrowed money.

To provide for the maintenance, management, and administration of the Harbour and Works, and of all matters relating thereto; to authorise the Commissioners to let or lease the Harbour and Works and the tolls, rates, duties, and charges, or any of them; to make, alter, and rescind bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the management, use, and protection of the Harbour and Works, and for the regulation and control of all vessels calling at or departing from the Harbour and Works, and for the regulation and control of all persons embarking or disembarking at the Pier, and of all traffic embarked or disembarked, loaded or unloaded in, at, or near the Harbour and Works, and to impose and recover penalties for the breach or non-observance of such bye-laws, rules, and regulations, and to appoint and remove harbourmasters and other officers and servants.

To define the limits within which the powers of such harbourmasters, officers, and servants may be exercised, and to constitute the Commissioners the Harbour and Pilotage Authorities for the said Harbour, and to grant them all the powers and privileges authorised by the Merchant Shipping Acts or otherwise howsoever.

To authorise the Commissioners to carry the Order into effect, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which will or may interfere with the carrying out the purposes of the Order.

To incorporate with the Order all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, the General Piers and Harbours Acts, and the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with such modifications of the provisions of those Acts as may be required.

A plan and sections of the proposed Works and a copy of this notice will be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November 1899, in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London, the Office at Banff of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Banff, and the Custom House at Macduff, for the port of Banff.

A printed copy of the draft of the Order will be deposited for public inspection at the Custom House at Macduff for the port of Banff on or before the 23rd day of December 1899, and on and after that date printed copies will be furnished by the Solicitor and Agents for the promoters at their respective offices as under to all persons applying for same at the price of one shilling each.

Dated this 14th day of November 1899.
