Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1899.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a Representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Henry John Boyd-Carpenter, Esquire, M.A., King's College, Cambridge, and Ernest Wynn-Williams, Esquire, B.A., Corpus Christi College, Oxford, to be two of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

At the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" (section four hundred and forty-four), it is enacted that—

"Where the Legislature of any British possession by any enactment provides for the fixing, marking, and certifying of load-lines on ships registered in that possession, and it appears to Her Majesty the Queen that that enactment is based on the same principles as the provisions of this part of this Act relating to load-lines, and is equally effective for ascertaining and determining the maximum load-lines to which those ships can be safely loaded in salt water, and for giving notice of the load-line to persons interested, Her Majesty in Council may declare that any load-line fixed and marked, and any certificate given in pursuance of that enactment shall, with respect to ships so registered, have the same effect as if it had been fixed, marked, or given in pursuance of this part of this Act."

And whereas the Legislature of the Government of India have, by "The Deck and Load-Lines Act, 1891," made provision for the fixing, marking, and certifying of load-lines on ships registered in that possession, and for giving notice of the load-line to persons interested.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty the Queen that such provision is based on the same principles as the provisions of Part V. of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and is equally effective for ascertaining and determining the maximum load-lines to which such ships can be safely loaded in salt water, and for giving notice of the load-line to the persons interested.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and doth hereby declare, that any load-line fixed and marked, and any certificate given in pursuance of the said enactment shall, with respect to such ships so registered, have the same effect as if it had been fixed, marked, or given in pursuance of Part V. of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894."
