LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1894.

SPECIAL SCAVENGING DISTRICTS.

Borrowing Powers of County Councils.

WHEREAS it is enacted by sub-section (6) of section 44 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1894, with respect to the formation of Special Scavenging Districts, that any expenditure attending the formation of a Special District, or the carrying out within such Special District of the purposes of this section, or any of them, shall be paid out of an assessment to be imposed by the County Council within the Special District, to be called the Special District Rate, and levied along with it, and as an addition to, and in excess of, the Public Health Rate, and with the same remedies and modes of recovery, provided that such Special District Rate shall not exceed Ninepence in the Pound on the annual value of the lands and heritages within the Special District, and a County Council may borrow for such of the said purposes as the Secretary for Scotland may by Order prescribe, on the security of such Special District Rate.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Alexander Hugh, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do by this Order under my hand and seal prescribe that a County Council may, in terms of the said sub-section, borrow money for the following purposes, namely:—

The construction of capital works in connection with the disposal of scavenging refuse, including where necessary the provision of separator, branch railway, engine-house, and suitable plant.

FOREIGN OFFICE, December 14, 1899.

RECIPROCAL Arrangement between Great Britain and France regarding the waiver of Consular Fees in connection with Certificates of Origin.

An arrangement has been come to between Her Majesty's Government and the French Government, for the waiver of Consular Fees in the United Kingdom and France on the issue of Certificates of Origin in the one country to the subjects or citizens of the other.

The arrangement has been recorded in the following Notes exchanged between Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris and the French Minister for Foreign Affairs.

(Sir Edmund Monson to Monsieur Delcassé.)

Paris, October 2, 1899.

MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE,

I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that I communicated to Her Majesty's Government a copy of Monsieur Waldeck-Rousseau's Note of the 2nd of August last, stating the bases on which the Government of the French Republic are ready to come to an agreement with Her Majesty's Government with regard to reciprocity for the waiver of certain Consular Fees charged for attesting Certificates of Origin.

I have now received instructions from the Marquess of Salisbury to inform Your Excellency that Her Majesty's Government agree to the proposed arrangement, and, having been authorised to proceed to an exchange of notes with Your Excellency, I beg that you will be so good as to communicate to me the draft of a note embodying the terms suggested in Monsieur Waldeck-Rousseau's Note above referred to.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) EDMUND MONSON.

(Monsieur Delcassé to Sir Edmund Monson.)

Paris, le 13 Octobre, 1899.

MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

Votre Excellence a bien voulu me faire connaître par une lettre du 2 de ce mois que le Gouvernement Britannique était disposé à conclure avec le Gouvernement de la République un arrangement concernant la gratuité de la délivrance ou du visa des certificats d'origine par les autorités consulaires des deux pays, sur les bases indiquées dans la dépêche de mon Département du 2 août dernier.

En réponse à cette communication et pour donner suite à ce projet d'entente, j'ai l'honneur de porter à la connaissance de Votre Excellence que le Gouvernement de la République a décidé qu'à l'avenir :

1°. Les consuls français dans le Royaume Uni délivreront gratuitement les certificats d'origine qui lui seront demandés.

2°. Les certificats d'origine délivrés par les autorités locales autres que les douanes, à savoir par les maires, les magistrats, les Chambres de Commerce, &c., seront soumis, comme par le passé, à l'obligation du visa consulaire, mais ce visa ne donnera lieu dorénavant à la perception d'aucune taxe.

3°. Les certificats d'origine émanant des douanes anglaises lorsqu'ils seront munis du cachet de ces douanes et qu'aucun doute ne s'éleva sur leur authenticité, continueront à être admis par les douanes françaises sans visa ou légalisation consulaire.

Je serais reconnaissant à Votre Excellence de vouloir bien, de son côté, me donner au nom de son Gouvernement l'assurance que par réciprocité :

1°. Les Autorités Consulaires britanniques en France déléveront gratuitement les certificats d'origine qui leur seront demandés.

2°. Les certificats d'origine dressés par les autorités locales françaises seront visés sans frais par les Agents Consulaires britanniques en France.

3°. Les certificats d'origine émanant des douanes françaises et munis de leur cachets seront admis par les Douanes anglaises sans visa Consulaire.

Les deux Gouvernements seront d'ailleurs libres de mettre fin à toute époque à l'accord ainsi intervenu entre eux.

Dès que Votre Excellence aura bien voulu me faire connaître que son Gouvernement est entièrement d'accord sur ces différents points avec le Gouvernement de la République, je m'empresserais de donner les instructions nécessaires pour la mise en application des dispositions ainsi arrêtées en principe.

Agréé, &c.,

(Signé) DELCASSÉ.

(Translation.)

Monsieur Delcassé to Sir Edmund Monson.

Paris, October 13, 1899.

MONSIEUR L'AMBASSADEUR,

On the 2nd instant Your Excellency was so good as to inform me that the British Government was prepared to conclude an arrangement with the Government of the Republic for the gratuitous issue or legalisation of certificates of origin by the Consular Authorities of the two countries on the basis explained in the note from this Department of the 2nd of August last.

In reply to this communication, and with the object of giving effect to the proposed understanding, I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the French Republic has decided that in future—

1. French Consuls in the United Kingdom will issue, on application, certificates of origin without charging a fee.

2. Certificates of origin issued by local authorities, other than the Customs, viz., Mayors, Magistrates, Chambers of Commerce, &c., will require as heretofore a Consular visa. No fee, however, will henceforward be charged for such visa.

3. Certificates of origin issued by the British Customs Authorities, when stamped with the seal of the Customs and when there is no question as to their genuineness, will continue to be accepted by the French Customs without Consular visa or legalisation.

I should be obliged if Your Excellency would be so good as to give me an assurance on behalf of your Government that by way of reciprocity—

1. British Consular Authorities in France will issue certificates of origin on application without charging a fee.

2. Certificates of origin drawn up by French local authorities will be legalised gratis by British Consular Officers in France.

3. Certificates of origin issued by the French Customs Authorities and stamped with the French Customs seal, will be accepted by the British Customs without a Consular visa.

The two Governments will further be at liberty to terminate at any time the agreement thus concluded between them.

As soon as Your Excellency shall have been good enough to inform me that your Government is in entire agreement with the Government of the Republic on these various points, I shall lose no time in issuing the necessary instructions for giving effect to the provisions thus agreed upon in principle.

Accept, &c.,

(Signed) DELCASSÉ.

(Sir Edmund Monson to Monsieur Delcassé.)

Paris, November 15, 1899.

MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's note of the 13th ultimo, informing me of the regulations which the Government of the Republic have laid down with regard to the gratuitous issue in future of Certificates of Origin by French Consuls resident in the United Kingdom.

While thanking Your Excellency for this communication, I am authorised to inform you that Her Majesty's Government will, in return, communicate forthwith the reciprocal directions to British Consuls resident in France, who will be instructed—

1. To deliver gratuitously upon application Certificates of Origin.
2. To legalise ("viser") without charge a Certificate of Origin drawn up by the local French Authorities.

The British Customs Authorities also will be instructed to recognise Certificates of Origin issued by the French Customs and bearing their seal.

It is understood that the two Governments are at liberty to terminate at any moment the agreement now come to between them.

I would suggest that the new Regulations should come into force in both countries on the 1st of January 1900.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) EDMUND MONSON.

The above arrangement will come into operation on the 1st of January 1900.

[The following Notice is substituted for that which appeared in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 15th instant.]

J. & P. COATS LIMITED.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in terms of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890, a Petition by the above-named Company has been presented to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division,—Mr. Couper, Clerk), praying the Court to confirm the alteration of the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to the objects of the Company, made by the following Special Resolution of the Company, duly passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, held on 6th, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, held on 24th, both days of November 1899, viz. :—

"That the objects of the Company specified in Clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association be altered by adding after paragraph B.B. of that clause the following paragraph:—

"B.B.B.—To invest the reserve funds of the Company and any other moneys of the Company not immediately required for the other objects of the Company, in such stocks, funds, securities, or other investments (including shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, and other obligations and securities of Companies or Corporations constituted according to the laws, whether of Scotland or any other part of the British Empire or of any Foreign State), as the Company or the Directors may think proper, and to hold, sell, or otherwise deal with such investments, provided that no such investment be made in or on the security of any Shares of the Company."

On considering which Petition their Lordships were pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor:—

"Edinburgh, 16th December 1899.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, and to be advertised once in each of the Edinburgh Gazette, and the Scotsman, Glasgow Herald, the Times, and the Irish Times newspapers; and ordain all parties having objections to the Petition being granted to lodge Answers thereto, if so advised, within eight days after the date of such intimation and advertisement.

(Signed) " J. B. BALFOUR, I.P.D."

Of all which Intimation is hereby made accordingly.

Dated this 19th day of December 1899.
