In Parliament—Session 1900.

NORTH BRITISH RAILWAY.

(Alteration of Railways Nos. 3, 4, 5, and 6.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to Parliament in the present Session for leave to insert additional provisions in the Bill under the above name or short title, for which application has been made in the same

Session (and which Bill is hereinafter called "the Bill") and by such additional provision to authorise the North British Railway Company to make and maintain the altered lines of railway hereinafter described, and according to the supplemental plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned (and which plans and sections are hereinafter called "the supplemental plans and sections"), and that such railways will be in lieu of the Railways Nos. 3, 4, 5, and 6, described in the Bill and shown upon the plans and sections deposited on or before the 30th day of November, 1899, with reference to the Bill (and which plans and sections are hereinafter called "the deposited plans and sections"). The said railways are:—

1. A Railway No. 3A commencing by a junction with the Stirlingshire Midland Junction Railway at a point 270 yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction from the west end of the swing bridge by which that railway is carried over the Forth and Clyde Canal, and terminating at the west side of the road passing along the east side of Abbot's Ironworks at Dalderse, and 240 yards or thereabouts, measured along that road in a northerly direction from the Forth and Clyde Canal;
2. A Railway No. 4A commencing by a junction with Railway No. 3A at a point 210 yards or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction from the Free Church Manse at Bainsford, and terminating at a point at the south-west end of Burnbank Iron Foundry, and 30 yards or thereabouts from the Forth and Clyde Canal;
3. A Railway No. 5A commencing by a junction with Railway No. 3A at a point 600 yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction from the point hereinbefore described as the termination of the said Railway No. 3A, and terminating at a point on the north side of Castlelaurie Iron Works, and 130 yards or thereabouts, measured in a northerly direction from the Forth and Clyde Canal;
4. A Railway No. 6A commencing by a junction with Railway No. 3A at a point 590 yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction from the point hereinbefore described as the point of termination of the said Railway No. 3A, and terminating at the north-west side of Abbot's Ironworks, and 160 yards or thereabouts, measured in a northerly direction from the Forth and Clyde Canal; which intended Railways Nos. 3A, 4A, 5A, and 6A, will be wholly situate in the county of Stirling and parish of Falkirk, and No. 3A will be partly and Nos. 4A, 5A, and 6A, wholly situate in the burgh of Falkirk.

The provisions of the Bill, or some of them, will, or may be, made applicable to the said intended railways as if such railways had been included and described in the Bill and in the notices of the intended application for the Bill, published in the month of November last, and shown upon the deposited plans and sections.

Supplemental plans and sections in duplicate of the said intended Railways Nos. 3A, 4A, 5A, and 6A, with a book of reference to such plans and an Ordnance map, showing the general course and direction of the said railways, together with a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 20th day of April, 1900, be deposited for public inspection with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Stirling, at his offices in Stirling and Falkirk respectively, and with the Town-Clerk of the Burgh of Falkirk, at his office, and, on or before the same day, a copy of the said plans, sections, book of reference, and copy Gazette Notice will also be deposited with the Clerk of the Parish Council of Falkirk, at his residence.
