[In substitution for the Order in Council that appeared in the London Gazette of 9th March 1900.]
At the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Chancellor.

Lord President.

Lord James of Hereford.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1895, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the sixteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, between Her Majesty and the Captains Regent of the Most Serene Republic of San Marino for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and the Most Serene Republic of San Marino, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, the said High Contracting Parties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, his Excellency Philip Henry Wodehouse, Baron

Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna e d'Irlanda Imperatrice delle Indie, e la Serenissima Repubblica di San Marino, avendo giudicato conveniente per la migliore amministrazione della giustizia e per prevenire i reati nei rispettivi loro territori, che gli individui accusati o condannati per i reati qui appresso enumerati, e che cerchino sottrarsi alla giustizia, sieno, in certi casi, reciprocamente consegnati, le dette Alte Parti Contraenti hanno nominato come loro Plenipotenziari per concludere un Trattato a questo scopo, cioè—

Sua Maestà la Regina del Regno Unito della Gran Bretagna e d'Irlanda, Imperatrice delle Indie, sua Eccellenza Philip Henry Wodehouse,
