BURGH OF CLYDEBANK.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners of the Burgh of Clydebank have made application to the Sheriff of Stirling, Dumbarton, and Clackmannan, and the Sheriff of Renfrew and Bute—I. To have the boundaries of the Burgh extended so as to include the district (1) from Yoker Burn eastward along the centre of the River Clyde to the Yoker Mains Burn, thence northward along the centre of said burn almost in a straight line to the southern boundary of the Glasgow, Yoker, and Clydebank Railway, thence westward along said railway to Yoker Burn, all in the Parish and County of Renfrew; (2) a portion of the Parish of New Kilpatrick on either side of Thirdpart Road, bounded on the east by Yoker Burn, on the north by Thirdpart Farm Steading, and on the west by the Mill Lade; and (3) a portion of the Parish of Old Kilpatrick in continuation of the present boundary of the Burgh northward along the east side of the plantation near Kilbowie Cemetery past East Kilbowie Farm Steading and North Kilbowie Farm Steading, thence westward past the boundary at the northmost house in Grove Place, Radnor Park, and past North-East Kilbowie Farm Steading, and the northern and western boundaries of Springfield Villa, of Edin Villa, and Dalmuir House, to the overflow sluice north of the dam at Duntocher Burn, thence southward along the centre of said burn to the present western boundary of the Burgh. II. To have the population of the Burgh within the extended area declared to exceed 20,000, and the number of Commissioners increased to fifteen. And III. To revise the boundaries of the Wards, and to increase their number to five. In which Application the following Interlocutor has been issued:—

"Edinburgh, 15th May 1900.—The Sheriffs of the Counties of Dumbarton and Renfrew having considered the foregoing Application to extend the boundaries of the Burgh of Clydebank in Dumbartonshire, so as to include additional ground in Dumbartonshire, and also ground in Renfrewshire, appoint the Petitioners to give notice of the import of the said Application and of this Deliverance by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette, the Glasgow Herald, the Dumbarton Herald, Clydebank and Renfrew Press newspapers, and by hand-bills posted up in the area proposed to be included within the extended boundaries of the said Burgh of Clydebank; allow any person desiring to oppose the prayer of the Petition, or to be heard in reference thereto, to give notice thereof by lodging a Notice of Appearance with the Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Dumbarton at Dumbarton, within fourteen days from the last of said advertisements; appoint the Petition and relative Plan and other Writs to remain in the Office of the Town-Clerk at Clydebank till the further orders of Court for inspection by all concerned, and remit to Mr. Alexander M'Dougall, Assessor for the County of Dumbarton, to ascertain approximately the number of the population and of the dwelling-houses within the area proposed to be included within the proposed extended boundaries, as also the number of the population within each of the proposed Wards, and to report quam primum thereon, and generally as to the circumstances averred by the Petitioners.

(Signed) "J. M. LEES."

(Signed) "JOHN CHEYNE."

Of all which Notice is hereby given.

JOHN HEPBURN, Town-Clerk.

Clydebank, 17th May 1900.
