By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation of the seventeenth day of September one thousand nine hundred, dissolving the late Parliament, We did require Writs to be issued by Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, and Our Chancellor of Ireland, respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the new Parliament to be duly returned to, and give their attendance in, Our said Parliament, on the first day of November next. We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be prorogued from the said first day of November next, to which it now stands summoned, to Monday the tenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons are discharged from their meeting and attendance on the said first day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred, and in the sixty-fourth year of Our reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 18th day of October 1900.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
