CHOLMONDELEY, Great Chamberlain.

At the Court at Saint James' the 30th day of January 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas under section twelve of "The Coinage Act, 1870," His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, has power, by Order, to make regulations respecting the trial of the Pyx and all matters incidental thereto, and by virtue of the same section any such Order may be revoked and altered by any subsequent Order made under that section.

And whereas by an Order dated the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and made in pursuance of the said Act, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria made regulations respecting the trial of the Pyx, and it is expedient to amend those regulations as appears in this Order.

Now, therefore, His Majesty King Edward the Seventh, by and with the advice of His Privy Council in pursuance of the said Act, and of all other powers enabling His Majesty in that behalf, is pleased to order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1901," and the Order of the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one (making regulations respecting the trial of the Pyx) may be cited as "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871."

2.—(1) The regulations made respecting the trial of the Pyx by "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871," as amended by this Order, apply and extend to the trial of any coins coined at any branch of the Mint which are for the time being subject to the trial of the Pyx.

(2) The trial of coins coined in England and coins coined at any one or more branch mint or mints may be included in the same warrant for a trial of the Pyx, but a separate examination shall be made and a separate verdict given with respect to coins coined in England and coins coined at each branch mint.

(3) In the application to a branch mint of the provisions of "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871," respecting the setting apart of coins for trial, the Deputy Master shall be construed to be the Deputy Master of the Branch Mint.

3. The Treasury may, on such occasions as they think fit, appoint some person other than the Master or Deputy Master of the Mint, or in the case of a branch mint the Master of the Mint or the Deputy Master of the Branch Mint, to set apart or cause to be set apart coins with a view to the trial of the Pyx, and any person so appointed shall, so far as his appointment extends, act for the purpose under "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871," as amended by this Order, in the place of the Master or Deputy Master of the Mint, or in the case of a branch mint the Master of the Mint or the Deputy Master of the Branch Mint.

4. The coins to be set apart for the trial of the Pyx shall consist in the case of gold coins of one from every two thousand pieces ready for issue instead of one from each journey weight as provided by "The Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871."

5. The trial of the Pyx may be adjourned by the King's Remembrancer or Master presiding at the trial from time to time, and from place to place.

6. This Order shall come into force upon the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and one.

A. W. FITZROY.

WHITEHALL, February 8, 1901.

The King has been pleased to issue a Commission, under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, to—

Our right trusty and well-beloved William, Baron Kelvin, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir William Hart Dyke, Baronet;

Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Edward Thorpe, Esquire, Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Principal of the Government Laboratory;

Our trusty and well-beloved Henry Cosmo Orme Bonsor, Esquire;

Our trusty and well-beloved William Selby Church, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, Fellow and President of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and

Our trusty and well-beloved Benjamin Arthur Whitelegge, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians of London, Chief Inspector of Factories and Workshops; Greeting!

WHEREAS We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to ascertain with respect to England and Wales—

(1) The amount of recent exceptional sickness and death attributable to poisoning by arsenic.

(2) Whether such exceptional sickness and death have been due to arsenic in beer, or in other articles of food or drink, and, if so,

(a) to what extent;

(b) by what ingredients or in what manner the arsenic was conveyed; and

(c) in what way any such ingredients became arsenicated; and

(3) If it be found that exceptional sickness and death have been due to arsenic in beer, or in other articles of food or drink, by what safeguards the introduction of arsenic therein can be prevented :

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these Presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you the said William, Baron Kelvin; Sir William Hart Dyke; Thomas Edward Thorpe; Henry Cosmo Orme Bonsor; William Selby Church; and Benjamin Arthur Whitelegge, to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any two or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents authorise and empower you, or any two or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid, and to employ such persons as you may think fit to assist you in conducting any inquiry which you may hold.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this, Our Commission, shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any two or more of you, may, from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any two or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

And for the purpose of aiding you in your inquiries, We hereby appoint Our trusty and well-beloved George Seaton Buchanan, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Windsor the fourth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one, in the first year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. T. RITCHIE.

Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890.

AIRDRIE BURGH ELECTRIC LIGHTING
ORDER, 1898.

TRANSFER TO THE SCOTTISH HOUSE TO HOUSE
ELECTRICITY COMPANY LIMITED.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Airdrie, in the County of Lanark (hereinafter called "the Council"), intend, in pursuance of the powers given them by the Airdrie Burgh Electric Lighting Order, 1898, and with the consent of the Board of Trade, to transfer their powers, duties, and liabilities under the said Order to the Scottish House to House Electricity Company Limited.

The area in respect of which the Transfer is proposed to be made is the area of supply as defined by the First Schedule to the Order.

The period for which the Transfer is proposed to be made will extend from the date of the Deed of Transfer until the undertaking is repurchased by the Council.

The sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Pounds is to be paid to the Council by the Company as a rent for the first year of the period of Transfer.

The powers, duties, or liabilities of the Council set forth in the following Sections of the Order are proposed to be excepted from the Transfer, viz. :—

Section 7 as to purchase and use of lands.

Section 13 so far as it may authorise the alteration of the position of any sewers belonging to the Council.

Section 28 as to remuneration of Electric Inspectors.

Section 52 as to application of Revenue.

Section 53 as to application of Capital Moneys.

Section 54 so far as relates to the authentications of any Notice, Order, or Document by the Council.

Provision will be made in the Deed of Transfer with respect to the following among other matters (that is to say) :—

1. Providing for the audit of the annual statement of accounts of the undertaking by a person appointed by the Board of Trade.
2. Providing that, after expiration of seven years after date of Deed of Transfer, the Council may make representation to the Board of Trade as to the prices or methods of charge for energy.
3. Limiting the rates and method of charge under which the Company commence to supply, viz. :— A uniform rate of 5d. per unit with a minimum charge of 8s. 4d. per quarter; or, at the consumers' option, 7d. per unit for the first hour average daily consumption of the maximum demand, and 3½d. per unit for all current in excess of such first hour average daily consumption of the maximum demand, with a minimum charge of 11s. 8d. per quarter—the rates and method of charge to be at all times the same as are in force for the time being in the adjoining Burgh of Coatbridge.
4. Providing for security by the Company in cases in which the Council are not the givers of the Notice under Section 12 of the Order of desire to break up streets.
5. Enabling the Company to acquire lands.
6. Requiring the Company before execution of works which will involve the breaking up or interfering with any roads, to serve notice upon and deposit with the Council a plan of the proposed works.
7. Restraining the Company from placing Street Boxes above ground without the Council's consent.
8. Prescribing the hours during which the Company to have access to their Street Boxes.
9. Providing for Notice to the Council of the method of charge for energy.
10. Enabling the Council to apply to the Court of Summary Jurisdiction, under Section 32 of the Order, as if they were ten consumers.
11. Providing that Section 25 of the Order shall take effect, and that the Fourth Schedule to the Order shall be read as if the words "For any amount up to twenty units, eleven shillings and fourpence, and for each unit over twenty units, sevenpence," had been written in the said Schedule in lieu of the words, "For any amount up to twenty units, thirteen shillings and fourpence, and for each unit over twenty units, eightpence."
12. Providing for the price to be charged by the Company for all energy supplied to public lamps to be settled by agreement, and in case of difference by arbitration.
13. Requiring the Company to deposit with the Council a Map of the area of supply showing the situation of the mains.
14. Requiring copies of the Board of Trade Regulations to be served on the Council.
15. Requiring the consent of the Council for the placing of any electric lines above ground.
16. Restraining the Council and the Company respectively from consenting to the revocation of the Order under Section 57 of the Order, and the Company from exercising the powers of Transfer mentioned in Section 59 of the Order.
17. Providing for Penalties to be paid by the Company in cases of breaches of the Deed of Transfer, and for the determination of questions by arbitration, with power in certain cases for the arbiter to require the Company to sell the undertaking to the Council.
18. Enabling the Company to borrow on the security of mortgages of the undertaking, provided that any such mortgage shall not be a charge on the undertaking in the event of the undertaking being sold, and that every such Mortgage Deed shall be endorsed with Notice to that effect.
19. Enabling the Council at any time before the expiration of 42 years to buy the undertaking situate within the Burgh of Airdrie upon the Council paying to the Company such a capital sum as will produce by the income thereof, calculated at 3½%, a perpetual annuity of 5% upon the sum properly expended by the Company upon the undertaking and chargeable to capital account. Provided that if the Council exercise the option of purchase before the expiration of 10 years from the date of the Deed of Transfer, the Council to pay, in addition to the capital sum, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of a dividend of 5% per annum from the said date of Deed of Transfer on the said capital expenditure, less the aggregate amount of the dividends declared by the Company from the date or dates of such expenditure to the date of purchase.

20. Enabling the Council at any time after expiration of 21 years from the date of Deed of Transfer, and before expiration of 42 years from the said date (but without prejudice to the option given by the last preceding paragraph), to purchase the undertaking situate within the Burgh upon paying the then value of the goodwill of the undertaking in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1888.
21. Enabling the Council, after the expiry of 42 years from the date of Deed of Transfer, to purchase the undertaking, so far as it is situated within the Burgh, in manner provided by Section 2 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1888.

And Notice is hereby further given, that Copies of the Draft Deed of Transfer have been deposited for public inspection at the Office of the Town-Clerk of Airdrie, and Printed Copies of the said Draft Deed will be supplied to every person demanding the same, at the price of Sixpence for each Copy.

Dated this 6th day of February 1901.
