

and to authorise the Company to levy rates, rents, and charges, as may be prescribed by the Order.

16. To empower the Company to purchase, subscribe for, and hold shares or stock in any Company taking or agreeing to take lands or a supply of water power, hydraulic power, or electrical energy from the Company, or establishing any works on any of the lands of the Company, or to lend money on mortgage, bonds, or otherwise, to any corporation, company, firm, or person, taking or agreeing to take any such lands or supply, or establishing any such works, and to apply the capital of the Company for all or any of the purposes aforesaid.

17. To confer on the Company all such powers as may be necessary or useful for the carrying out of the purposes for which the Company is established, or as may be incidental thereto.

18. To confirm any agreement or agreements that have been or may be entered into for the acquisition of lands, water, water rights, or other property, or in connection therewith, and to authorise the Company to adopt, take over, and perform the same.

19. To empower the Company, on the one hand, and any Corporation, Local Authority, Company, or person, on the other hand, to enter into agreements with respect to all or any of the purposes of the intended Order.

20. To authorise the Company to raise Capital by the creation and issue of ordinary and preferential or other classes of shares or stock, and the issue of debenture stock, and by borrowing on mortgage or by all or any of those means.

21. To authorise the Company to issue and allot to the British Aluminium Company Limited, such ordinary, preferential, or other class or classes of shares or stock or debenture stock as consideration for the promotion of and obtaining the intended Order, and for the supervision of the construction of the works authorised thereby and for other services rendered by them from time to time as may be agreed in, about, or connected with the undertaking, or for the management of all or any of the affairs of the said undertaking as may be prescribed by the Order.

22. To enable the Company, out of moneys to be raised by them under the powers of the Order, to pay interest to shareholders on the sums which may be from time to time paid on the shares in the undertaking allotted to them, anything in the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

23. To authorise the British Aluminium Company, Limited, for any of the purposes of the intended Order, to raise capital above and beyond the amount of capital which for the time being and from time to time they are empowered by their Memorandum of Association, as varied or amended by Resolution in that behalf, to issue and raise, and to authorise the Limited Company aforesaid to charge the capital, or any part thereof, raised by them under the powers of the intended Order, separately or preferentially, upon the lands, works, and undertaking acquired, purchased, constructed, and maintained under the power of the intended Order, and to give such preference by way of dividend, interest, or otherwise to the said capital over and above the whole or any portion of their other or remaining capital, as may be prescribed by the intended Order, or to allocate to such other and remaining share capital as aforesaid of the said Limited Company such a proportion of the profits accruing to the undertaking authorised by the intended Order as may be prescribed therein.

24. To confer upon the Company all or some of the powers of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 and 1888, and the enactments incorporated therewith, and to incorporate with the intended Order all or some of the provisions of the Electric Lighting Clauses Act, 1899, the Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Acts, 1863, and 1869, the Gasworks Clauses and Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which might interfere with the objects of the intended Order, and to confer all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying such objects into effect.

25. And Notice is also hereby given, that on or before the 31st day of March instant plans and sections of the works proposed to be authorised by the intended Order showing the lines and levels thereof and the lands in or through which they will be made and also the lands, houses, and property intended to be compulsorily taken under the powers of the intended Order and the area within which the Company will be authorised to supply water, water power, or hydraulic power and electrical energy, with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and property, and a copy of this Notice as published in the "Edinburgh Gazette" will be deposited for public inspection with the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Argyll, at his Offices at Inveraray, Oban, and Fort-William, and with the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Inverness, at his Offices at Inverness and Fort-William, and copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any parish, together with copies of this Notice, will, on or before the said 31st day of March, be deposited as respects each such parish with the Clerk of the Parish Council thereof at his Office, if he have an office separate from his residence, or otherwise at his residence.

26. The petition for the Order and printed copies of the Draft Order will be deposited on or before the 17th day of April next, in the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London.

The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it be otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill; and this Notice will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 14th day of March, 1901.
