EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas it pleased Her late Majesty, by Warrant bearing date the eighteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, to appoint Commissioners for the administration of the funds provided for the purpose of assisting Colonisation in Canada from the congested districts in the Western Highlands and Islands of Scotland and in Ireland:

And whereas the Commissioners appointed by Her late Majesty, or such of them as were then acting as Commissioners, were, at the late demise of the Crown, still engaged upon the business entrusted to them:
