TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1901.

At the Court at Saint James', the 15th day of June 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria's reign, intituled "The Militia Act, 1882," it is, amongst other things, enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days, and not more than twenty-eight days, in every year, at such times and at such places in every part of the United Kingdom as His Majesty may appoint, and also that His Majesty may, from time to time, with the advice of His Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise, in any year, of all or any part of the Militia be extended, but so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days.

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the Duke of Edinburgh's Own Edinburgh Artillery, Southern Division, Royal Garrison Artillery, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days for the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of such Officers and Men of the Duke of Edinburgh's Own Edinburgh Artillery, Southern Division, Royal Garrison Artillery, as have expressed a wish to be so trained, shall, for the year one thousand nine hundred and one, be extended, under the provisions of the before-cited Act, from twenty-eight days to forty-one days.

A. W. FITZROY.

At the Court at Saint James', the 15th day of June 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section six hundred and fifty-nine of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" (which is a section in Part XI. of that Act, and which re-enacts similar provisions of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," which were repealed by the said first-mentioned Act), it is (among other things) enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of those establishments, and that an increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade.

And whereas Her late Majesty, by Order in Council dated the sixteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, was pleased to fix the establishment which might be maintained by the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishment out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.
