A. W. FITZROY.

At the Court at Saint James', the 26th day of June 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Duke of Norfolk.
Duke of Portland.
Marquess of Dufferin and Ava.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Suffield.
Mr. Ritchie.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1895, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Convention was concluded on the thirteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the President of the United States of America, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Convention is in the terms following:—

"Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and the President of the United States of America, being desirous of enlarging the list of crimes on account of which extradition may be granted under the Convention concluded between Her Britannic Majesty and the United States on the twelfth July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, with a view to the better administration of justice and the prevention of crime in their respective territories and jurisdictions, have resolved to conclude a Supplementary Convention for this purpose, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries, to wit:

"Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Pauncefote, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, and Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the United States; and

"The President of the United States, the Honourable John Hay, Secretary of State of the United States;

"Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following Articles:—

"ARTICLE I.

"The following crimes are added to the list of crimes numbered one to ten in the first Article of the said Convention of July twelfth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, on account of which extradition may be granted, that is to say—

"11. Obtaining money, valuable securities, or other property by false pretences.

"12. Wilful and unlawful destruction or obstruction of railroads which endangers human life.

"13. Procuring abortion.

"ARTICLE II.

"The present Convention shall be considered as an integral part of the said Extradition Convention of July twelfth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the first Article of the last-mentioned Convention shall be read as if the list of crimes therein contained had originally comprised the additional crimes specified, and numbered eleven to thirteen in the first Article of the present Convention.

"The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged either at London or Washington as soon as possible.

"It shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the High Contracting Parties, and it shall continue and terminate in the same manner as the said Convention of July twelfth one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

"In testimony whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention in duplicate, and have thereunto affixed their seals.

"Done at Washington, this thirteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Convention were exchanged at Washington on the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and one:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and one, the said Acts shall apply in the case of the United States and of the said Convention with the President of the United States of America.

Provided always that the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," shall continue in force there, and no longer.

A. W. FITZROY.

WHITEHALL, July 2, 1901.

The King has been pleased to issue a Commission under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, to—

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor James Patrick Bannerman, Baron Robertson, one of the Lords of Appeal in Ordinary (Chairman);

Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Matthew White, Viscount Ridley;

Our trusty and well-beloved the Most Reverend John Healy, Doctor in Divinity, Senator of the Royal University of Ireland;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Dodgson Hamilton Madden, one of the Justices of Our High Court of Justice in Ireland; and

Our trusty and well-beloved—

Sir Richard Claverhouse Jebb, Doctor in Letters, Honorary Doctor of Civil Law of Our University of Oxford, Regius Professor of Greek in Our University of Cambridge;

Samuel Henry Butcher, Esquire, late Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, Fellow of University College, Oxford, and Professor of Greek in the Edinburgh University;

James Alfred Ewing, Esquire, Professor of Mechanism and Applied Mechanics in Our University of Cambridge;

John Rhys, Esquire, Master of Arts, Professor of Celtic in Our University of Oxford, and Principal of Jesus College, Oxford;

Arthur William Rücker, Esquire, Fellow and late Secretary of the Royal Society, Professor of Physics at the Royal College of Science, London;

James Lorrain Smith, Esquire, Lecturer on Pathology and Bacteriology in the Queen's College, Belfast;

William Joseph Myles Starkie, Esquire, Senator of the Royal University of Ireland, Resident Commissioner of National Education in Ireland; and Wilfred Ward, Esquire, late Examiner in Mental and Moral Science at the Royal University of Ireland.

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into the present condition of the higher, general, and technical education available in Ireland outside Trinity College, Dublin, and to report as to what reforms, if any, are desirable in order to render that education adequate to the needs of the Irish people.

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint, you the said James Patrick Bannerman, Baron Robertson; Matthew White, Viscount Ridley; John Healy; Dodgson Hamilton Madden; Sir Richard Claverhouse Jebb; Samuel Henry Butcher; James Alfred Ewing; John Rhys; Arthur William Rücker; James Lorrain Smith; William Joseph Myles Starkie; and Wilfred Ward to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these presents authorise and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid, and to employ such persons as you may think fit to assist you in conducting any inquiry which you may hold.

And We do by these presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James' the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and one, in the first year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

CHAS. T. RITCHIE.

INDIA OFFICE, June 17, 1901.

The King has been pleased to appoint Mr. James Thomson, of the Civil Service of India, to be an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George, in the room of Mr. Arundel Tagg Arundel, C.S.I., who has been appointed to be an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor-General of India.

ADMIRALTY, July 1, 1901.

CITY AND ROYAL BURGH OF GLASGOW.

THE TOWN COUNCILS (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1900.

WHEREAS an Act was passed on the Eighth day of August, in the year One thousand nine hundred, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the Election and Proceedings of Town Councils in Scotland" [63 and 64 Vict. cap. 49]:

And whereas it is provided that the said Act, the short title of which is the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, shall commence and have effect from and after the thirty-first day of December, in the year One thousand nine hundred:

And whereas by the said Act the enactments specified in the first schedule to the Act are repealed:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided that, "notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, it shall be in the power of the Town Council of any of the burghs mentioned in Schedule II. of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, by a resolution passed at any time within twelve months after the passing of this Act, to declare that any sections or sub-sections of this Act relating to the constitution and government of burghs, the minutes and proceedings of council, the officers of council, and accounts and corporate property, specified in such resolution, shall not be applicable to such burgh, and that in lieu thereof the corresponding sections or sub-sections (if any) of an Act or Acts applying to such burgh repealed by this Act, which sections or sub-sections shall be specified in the resolution, shall, notwithstanding such repeal, remain in force or revive within the burgh. Any resolution passed under this section shall be transmitted to the Secretary for Scotland, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and from and after such publication the resolution shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act:"

And whereas the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow is one of the burghs mentioned in Schedule II. of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892:

Therefore the Town Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow do hereby in exercise and in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, resolve and declare that the sections of the last-mentioned Act relating to the constitution and government of burghs, the minutes and proceedings of council, the officers of council, and accounts and corporate property, specified in Part I. of the Schedule annexed to this resolution, shall not be applicable to the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, and that in lieu thereof the sections of the Acts applying to the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, repealed by the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, which sections are specified in Part II. of the Schedule annexed to this resolution, shall, notwithstanding such repeal, remain in force or revive within the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow.
