A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD, R.I.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable His Most Gracious Majesty to make an Addition to the Royal Style and Titles in recognition of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas," which Act enacts that it shall be lawful for Us, with a view to such recognition as aforesaid of Our Dominions beyond the seas, by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom issued within six months after the passing of the said Act, to make such addition to the Style and Titles at present appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom and its Dependencies as to Us may seem fit: And whereas our present Style and Titles are, in the Latin tongue, "Edwardus VII. Dei Gratia Britanniarum Rex, Fidei Defensor, Indiarum Imperator," and in the English tongue, "Edward VII., by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India." We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to appoint and declare, and We do hereby, by and with the said advice, appoint and declare that henceforth, so far as conveniently may be, on all occasions and in all instruments wherein Our Style and Titles are used, the following addition shall be made to the Style and Titles at present appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom and its Dependencies; that is to say, in the Latin tongue, after the word "Britanniarum," these words, "et terrarum transmarinarum quæ in ditione sunt Britannicæ"; and in the English tongue, after the words "of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," these words: "and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas."

And Our will and pleasure further is, that all gold, silver, and bronze moneys, now current and lawful moneys of the United Kingdom, and all gold, silver, and bronze moneys which shall, on or after this day, be coined by Our Authority with the like impressions, shall, notwithstanding such addition to Our Style and Titles, be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom; and further, that all moneys coined for and issued in any of the Dependencies of the said United Kingdom, and declared by Our Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such Dependencies, respectively bearing Our Style or Titles, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamation, shall, notwithstanding such addition, continue to be lawful and current money of such Dependencies respectively, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon.

Given at Our Court at Saint James', this fourth day of November one thousand nine hundred and one, in the first year of Our Reign.

At the Court at Saint James', the 4th day of November 1901.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of the Volunteer Act, 1863, it is, amongst other things, enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may, from time to time, declare what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the Volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting Officer at the annual inspection of the corps, or otherwise, as by Order in Council is from time to time directed"; and that "the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present or for the like period during any subsequent Session of Parliament, before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council":

And whereas it is deemed expedient that a fresh Order in Council be substituted for the Order in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty, as amended by the Orders in Council bearing date fourteenth April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, fifteenth September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, thirtieth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety, twenty-first October one thousand eight hundred and ninety, twenty-eighth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, thirtieth April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, seventh August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, fourteenth August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, twentieth October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and fourteenth July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, declaring what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer.

And whereas a draft of the said new Order in Council was on the nineteenth day of July last laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed, and, one lunar month having elapsed since that time, the said amendment of the said scheme hath this day been submitted to His Majesty in Council for His approval thereof.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having this day taken the said amendment into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in His Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby direct the substitution of the said draft scheme of amendment forming the schedule to this Order annexed, for the aforesaid Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty, as amended by the Orders in Council bearing date the fourteenth April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, fifteenth September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, twenty-eighth May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, thirtieth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety, twenty-first October one thousand eight hundred and ninety, twenty-eighth June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, thirtieth April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, seventh August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, fourteenth August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, twentieth October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and fourteenth July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and doth declare His Royal approval of the amendment, and of the cancellation of the aforesaid Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and of the amendments thereto, except the conditions of efficiency for submarine miners and electrical engineers, laid down in the Order in Council of twentieth October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

A. W. FITZROY.

-SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Order.

To substitute the accompanying "Scheme relative to and Certificates of Efficiency" for the corresponding Scheme and Certificates now in force:—

1. A Volunteer who is a member of a corps on the 1st November in any year shall be entitled to be deemed an efficient Volunteer during the ensuing twelve months if, subject to the conditions hereinafter prescribed, he has during the preceding year fulfilled the requirements stated in the schedule hereto.

2. In the course of each year ending the thirty-first October, the Adjutant of each corps shall select such Volunteers as in his opinion have fulfilled the requirements and possess the qualifications aforesaid, and submit their names to the Commanding Officer of their corps, with a view to their being returned as efficient.

3. If the Adjutant refuses to return any Volunteer as efficient, and the Volunteer considers himself aggrieved thereby, the Volunteer may appeal to the Commanding Officer of his corps.

4. If the Commanding Officer differs from the opinion of the Adjutant, he shall refer the matter to the Officer appointed by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to act in that behalf, whose decision shall be final.

5. Where the situation and circumstances of an Artillery Volunteer or Rifle Volunteer Corps in any particular year are such, as in the opinion of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to create serious obstacles to the fulfilment by any of the Volunteers belonging to that corps of the requirement of attendance at gun or musketry practice, the Secretary of State shall have power to dispense with the requirement from any of the Volunteers belonging to such corps in such year.

6. Where the situation and circumstances of a Rifle Volunteer Corps are such as, in the opinion of one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to create serious obstacles to the fulfilment by the Volunteers belonging to the corps of the requirement of attendance at battalion parade such number of times within twelve months as may be prescribed, the Secretary of State shall have power to reduce for such corps the number of battalion parades, and to increase proportionately the number of company parades requisite to entitle the Volunteers belonging to the corps to be returned as efficient.

7. Where any corps shall have been precluded by an epidemic from complying with the requirements herein prescribed, or shall in the first year of its service have encountered exceptional difficulties in the completion of its organisation and efficiency of its members, it shall be competent to the Secretary of State to modify, so far as applies to such year of service, the stipulated conditions of efficiency of any members of such corps.

8. No Volunteer who is absent from the annual inspection of his corps, except in case of sickness duly certified, or by leave granted in writing for special cause by the Commanding Officer, shall be entitled to be deemed efficient.

9. Where a corps is by its own default not inspected during the year, or where the officer inspecting a Volunteer Corps at the annual inspection in any year reports that the corps is not efficient in training and instruction to his satisfaction, or that irregularities have occurred in its training and administration, then, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore provided, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall have power to direct that none of the Volunteers belonging to that corps shall be deemed efficient.

10. No corps or individual Volunteer will be exempted from attending a camp for two consecutive years.

11. The Inspecting Officer at the annual inspection in any year shall have power to direct that a Volunteer shall be deemed non-efficient if he considers it proper to do so, on account of the want of efficiency in training or instruction of that Volunteer, or on account of his rifle or other arm being in bad order and condition.

12. In case any alteration in the conditions for efficiency should from time to time appear expedient, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may make the same by regulation, so as no alteration be thereby made in the amount of the requirements and qualifications, and so as none of the provisions of this Order be thereby altered.

13. Terms used in this Order, or in the schedule hereto, have the same meanings as they have when used in the Volunteer Act, 1863.

The term "recruit" used in the schedule means a Volunteer who has never served either for two months in the Royal Navy, Regular Army, Army Reserve, Royal Marines, or Royal Irish Constabulary, nor has attended the preliminary drill, or drill on enlistment, or annual training of a Militia unit, nor has performed one year's efficient service in the Imperial Yeomanry, the Volunteers, or the permanent forces of a colony, nor in the year immediately preceding his enrolment has attended as a member of a cadet corps or cadet battalion, sanctioned by the Secretary of State, the number of drills prescribed for recruits of the arm of the service which he has joined.
