Our Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster
(Chairman);

Our right trusty and well-beloved Nathaniel
Mayer, Baron Rothschild;

Our trusty and well-beloved Alfred Lyttelton, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable Alfred Lyttelton), one of Our Counsel learned in the Law;

Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Kenelm Edward Digby, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, one of the Under Secretaries of State to Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department;

Our trusty and well-beloved William Eden

List of Our Army;

Our trusty and well-beloved Henry Norman,
Esquire; and

Our trusty and well-beloved William Vallance, Esquire, Clerk to the Guardians of Whitechapel.
Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into and report upon

- (1) The character and extent of the evils which are attributed to the unrestricted immigration of Aliens, especially in the Metropolis;
- (2) The measures which have been adopted for the restriction and control of Alien immigration in Foreign Countries and in British Colonies;

and to advise what remedial or precautionary measures it is desirable to adopt in this Country, having regard to the above matters and to the absence of any Statutory power to exclude or expel any individual Alien or class of Aliens from its borders.

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorised and appointed, and do by these presents authorise and appoint, you, the said
Henry, Baron James of Hereford; Nathaniel
Mayer, Baron Rothschild; Alfred Lyttelton; Sir
Kenelm Edward Digby; William Eden Evans-
Gordon; Henry Norman; and William Vallance to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do, by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do, by these presents, authorise and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid, and to employ such persons as you may think fit to assist you in conducting any inquiry which you may hold.

And We do, by these presents, will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James', the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and two, in the second year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

CHAS. T. RITCHIE.

Scottish Office.—April, 1902.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland)
Act, 1899.

PORTPATRICK AND WIGTOWNSHIRE
JOINT RAILWAY.

(Power to Portpatrick and Wigtownshire Joint Committee to Widen and Extend East Pier at Stranraer; Dredging at Pier; Purchase of Lands and Subsidiary Powers; Tolls, Rates, and Charges; Application of Existing Acts to the Widening and Extension; Application of Funds of Committee and of London and North Western, Midland, Caledonian, and Glasgow and South Western Railway Companies; Agreements; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland, in the ensuing month of April, by the Portpatrick and Wigtownshire Joint Committee (hereinafter called "the Committee"), by Petition, for a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, (hereinafter called "the Order"), for all or some of the following, among other, purposes.

To empower the Committee in the Royal Burgh of Stranraer and Parishes of Inch and Stranraer, in the County of Wigtown, or some of them, and in or on the foreshore bed or soil of Loch Ryan, or of the sea, ex adverso the said burgh and parishes, or some of them, to make and maintain, with all necessary and proper roads, landing places, approaches, slips, moorings, railways, sidings and other works and conveniences connected therewith:—

A widening and extension of the East Pier at Stranraer, commencing at a point on the said pier 585 yards or thereabouts north-westward from the centre of the bridge carrying the Cairnryan Road over the Stranraer Harbour Branch Railway, and terminating at a point 303 yards or thereabouts north-westward from the point of commencement.

To authorise the Committee to dredge and deepen the foreshore bed or soil of Loch Ryan, or of the sea, adjoining the said pier, and within such distance therefrom as may be prescribed or provided for by the Order; and to improve the approaches to the said pier.

To empower the Committee to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the works as shown on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, and to cross, alter, stop-up, appropriate and divert, temporarily or permanently, roads, footways, railways, sidings, sewers, drains, telegraphic, telephonic and other wires and apparatus, gas, water and other mains, and pipes and works of every description, for the purpose of effecting the objects of the Order; and to confer on the Committee all other usual or necessary powers in connection with such objects.

To empower the Committee to purchase, or otherwise acquire, by compulsion or by agreement, and to enter upon, take and use, temporarily or permanently, for the purposes of the Order, lands, houses and other property, including foreshore bed and soil of the said Loch, or of the sea in or ex adverso the burgh and parishes herein named, and rights, easements or servitudes in or over the same.

To provide that the widening and extension of the said pier and the works connected therewith shall for all purposes, including the demanding, levying and recovery of tolls, rates, duties and charges thereat by the Committee and the London and North Western Railway Company, the Midland Railway Company, the Caledonian Railway Company and the Glasgow and South Western Railway Company (hereinafter called "the four Companies"), or any of them, and the management, maintenance, use and enjoyment thereof by the Committee and the four Companies, be part of the East Pier at Stranraer referred to in the Portpatrick Railway Act, 1877, and to extend and make applicable thereto, with or without alteration or variation, all or some of the provisions of that Act, the Portpatrick and Wigtownshire Railways (Sale and Transfer) Act, 1885, the London and North Western Railway Act, 1893, and the agreement between the Committee and the four Companies and the Town Council of the said Burgh of Stranraer scheduled thereto, and of any other Act relating to the said pier or to the undertaking of the Committee.

To provide for the construction and maintenance of the widening and extension of the said pier and the works connected therewith, at the cost of the Committee and of the four Companies respectively, or some of them, in such proportions and in such manner as may be agreed upon or be provided for by the Order, and to empower the Committee and the four Companies to apply their capital funds and moneys to all or any of the purposes of the Order.

To empower the Committee and the four Companies, or any of them, to enter into and to carry into effect agreements with any local authority, company or person, with respect to all or any of the objects or purposes of the Order, and to confirm and give effect to any such agreements which may have been or which may be made prior to the making of the Order.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and to confer all rights and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting those objects, or in relation thereto.

To amend or repeal all or some of the provisions of the local Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and of the following Acts (that is to say): 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 204; 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 18; 8 and 9 Vict., cap. 162 and 18 and 19 Vict., cap. 97, and any other Act relating to the four Companies, or any of them; the Portpatrick Railway Act, 1857, and any Acts or agreements recited in, or scheduled to, any of such Acts.

To incorporate with and make applicable to the Order (except so far as may be expressly varied thereby) all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845; the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860; the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845; the Railways Clauses Act, 1863; the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and any Acts amending those Acts.

Plans and sections relating to the objects of the Order, with books of reference to the said plans, and copies of this Notice, as published in the "Edinburgh Gazette," will, before the 31st day of March instant, be deposited for public inspection in the offices, at Wigtown and Stranraer, of the principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Wigtown; and copies of the said plans, sections and books of reference, with copies of this Notice, will, before the said 31st day of March, be also deposited with the town clerk of the said Burgh of Stranraer at his office; and with the clerks of the Parish Councils of the Parishes of Inch and Stranraer respectively at their respective offices if they have offices separate from their places of abode, or otherwise at their places of abode.

The Petition and Draft Order and printed copies thereof will be deposited at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of April next.

The subsequent procedure in respect of the said application will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits in reference to the said application will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 17th day of March, 1902.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made in the month of April next to the Secretary for Scotland by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Govan (hereinafter called "the Corporation" and "the Burgh" respectively) by Petition for a Provisional Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order") under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To modify or to extend the provisions of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892 (hereinafter referred to as "the Police Act") in its application to the Burgh of Govan, or to exempt the Burgh from certain provisions of that Act, and in particular but not exclusively to amend the said Act, and to confer upon the Corporation a right of appeal under section 13 of that Act, and to enlarge the circumstances to be taken into account by the Sheriff in any application for extension of the boundaries of the Burgh, and also to make new provisions with respect to private and public streets, footways, drains, waste or ruinous buildings or buildings unfit for occupation, the powers and duties of the Burgh Surveyor and Sanitary Inspector, fires arising within and without the Burgh; and for the payment of expenses incurred in respect thereof by the owner or occupier of the premises; the execution of works by the Corporation or by the owners and occupiers of premises and the costs thereof; assessments and the recovery thereof; lights on vehicles, bye-laws, and other matters and things, and to declare amongst other provisions that Sections 116, 152, 153, and 170 of that Act shall not apply to the Burgh.

2. To extend the powers of the Corporation with reference to the compulsory acquisition of lands, and to enable them to acquire lands compulsorily for all or any of the purposes of the Order.

3. To make new provisions with respect to the registration of streets and the preparation of a plan thereof, and the alteration or amendment from time to time of such plan, the width and formation of public and private streets and footways and junctions thereof with existing streets, the construction, repair, and use of footways and the maintenance of vaults under same, the vesting of public and private streets and footways in the Corporation, the widening of streets and the alignment of buildings abutting thereon, the fencing of property, the formation, paving, alteration, and cleansing of footpaths in public and private streets and courts, and the payment of the cost thereof, the height and cubical contents of buildings and the area to be attached to dwelling-houses, conditions and provisions to be observed in the construction of all buildings and different kinds of buildings, the size and sleeping accommodation of bedrooms and bed-recesses, and the re-erection of buildings on existing sites.

4. To make provision against overcrowding and dangerous or noxious trades: with respect to the providing of water-closets, and the situation and ventilation thereof; and with respect to the providing of receptacles for rubbish, the ventilation of houses, courts, or hollow squares, for openings and accesses through existing buildings by the owners or by the Corporation and the expenses thereof, the erection of hoardings, platforms, scaffoldings, barricades, and sky-signs, and as to advertising sites, hoardings, and advertisements, and to empower the Burgh Surveyor to inspect buildings, stop infringements, and test strengths and issue and enforce orders.

5. To provide for the constitution of a Dean of Guild Court, and to define its jurisdiction and powers, and for the prosecution of Guild offences; to confer on the Court as reconstituted the powers at present possessed by the Dean of Guild Court, powers with reference to any of the matters mentioned in this notice, and such other powers as may be provided in the Order, and to supersede the existing Dean of Guild Court.

6. To provide for the regulation and licensing of Theatres and places of Public Resort, Billiard, Bagatelle, and Table Tennis Rooms, and Ice-cream Shops, to make special provision with respect to the sale of ice-cream and the supply of milk from diseased cows; to prohibit betting on the streets; and for all or any of these purposes to make and enforce bye-laws.

7. To enable the Corporation by their officers to enter and inspect any byre, cowshed, or dairy-farm, whether within or without the Burgh, if milk be supplied therefrom within the Burgh, and to make provision for regulating such byres, cowsheds, or dairies, and the supply of milk therefrom and the inspection of the cows therein.

8. To prohibit any person or persons from selling or authorising the sale of goods on Sunday, or from opening or keeping open, or authorising to be opened or kept open, any shop or premises for the sale of goods on Sunday without the License of the Corporation, and to regulate the hours of sale, the procedure in applications for such licenses, terms, duration, and forfeiture thereof, and the fee payable in respect of such licenses, with power to the Corporation or a committee of their number to frame regulations for procedure in such applications. To provide that every person selling or authorising the sale of goods on Sunday contrary to the provisions of the Order without holding a license shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalties therein provided for; and to provide for the prosecution of such person or persons and the enforcement and recovery of such penalties.

9. To enable the Corporation to erect pavilions, halls, band-stands, shelters, and other buildings in public parks and in open spaces, to allow the public to use the same, or to charge for such use, and to let such buildings as shops or restaurants, to provide music, and to set apart ground for clubs and charge for use of same; and to provide, lay out, and maintain open spaces, or contribute to such maintenance and support, and to borrow money for such purposes.

10. To enable the Corporation to provide a sinking Fund to provide for the repayment of sums borrowed, and to alter and extend the period of repayment, to authorise the Corporation to raise money by the issue and renewal of Bills or Promissory Notes for temporary purposes to meet current expenses, or for any purposes for which the Corporation are or may be authorised to borrow money, and to provide for the charge and making of such Bills and Promissory Notes and the payment and cancellation thereof. To make special provision for the repayment of the sums borrowed for the purposes of the Govan Burgh Tramways, and to modify Section 20 of the Tramways Act, 1870, in relation thereto.

11. To grant authority to the Corporation to provide or supplement a fund to be called the Common Good Fund of the Burgh, and to apply the same to the like purposes to which the Common Good of Burghs is appropriated, and for the purposes of such fund to impose and levy a special assessment not exceeding 1d. in the £1 on all lands or premises within the Burgh according to the Valuation Roll of such Burgh, payable one-half by the owners and one-half by the occupiers of such lands or premises, and recoverable in like manner as any other assessment within the Burgh levied equally on owners and occupiers.

12. To grant authority to the Corporation to admit to be Honorary Burgesses of the Burgh persons of distinction, and any other persons who have rendered eminent services to the Burgh, and to provide that such admission shall not confer on such persons the right of voting or other rights.

13. To vary the provisions of the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, in its application to the Burgh with respect to the dates specified in Sections 92, 95, and 96 of that Act, or in such other respects as may be expedient or as the Order may provide.

14. To empower the Corporation to make bye-laws or regulations, and to exact penalties for breach or non-observance of any of the provisions of the Order or of the Bye-laws, Rules, and Regulations of the Corporation and the Dean of Guild Court, and the recovery of such penalties, and to enable the Court imposing the same to sentence any person or persons to imprisonment until any pecuniary penalty is paid, and to provide that in the case of Dean of Guild offences the sentence of the Court may contain a warrant for the recovery of any penalty by poinding or arrestment.

15. To provide for the application of existing, or for levying new, rates and assessments for giving effect to the provisions of the Order, or otherwise in paying any expenses of the Corporation in connection therewith.

16. To provide that the Corporation shall have a right of appeal under Section 13 of the Police Act, and the procedure in such appeal.

17. To alter and amend Section 11 of the Police Act, to the effect of providing that the Sheriff shall, in revising and extending the boundaries of the Burgh in any future application therefor, take into consideration further and other circumstances than those therein specified.

18. To empower the Corporation to oppose bills or provisional orders in Parliament.

19. To alter or amend the provisions of the Govan Burgh Tramways Act, 1893, and of any other Act or Acts relating to the Burgh of Govan in connection with any of the matters aforesaid, and to incorporate with the Order the Lands Clauses Acts.

20. The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects and purposes thereof, and will confer other rights and privileges.

The Petition and Draft Order, and printed copies thereof will be deposited at the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of April next, and printed copies of the Order will on or before the same date be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, and in the Private Bill office of the House of Commons.

The subsequent procedure in respect of the said application will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits will, subject to the standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 18th day of March 1902.

A. MACDONALD,
Town Clerk,
Govan.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland in the present Session by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Leith (hereinafter referred to as "The Town Council" and "The Burgh" respectively) for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "The Order") for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

[In this Notice the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892 (hereinafter called "The Act of 1892"), shall have the same respective meanings as are assigned to them by that Act unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.]

1. To define, extend, and vary the rights and powers at present vested in and exercisable by the Dean of Guild Court for the Burgh, and the matters and things, at present subject to their jurisdiction, and to make further provision for the more effectual exercise of those powers, and compliance with their orders and decrees, and for the granting of minor warrants by the said Court.

2. To amend the Act of 1892 in respect to the width of streets, and to prescribe therefor an increased width.

3. To make provision for a register and map of streets in the Burgh, and the particulars to be entered thereon, the inspection thereof by persons interested, and power to such persons to make objection thereto, and appeal to the Town Council, and to provide for the correction of errors or omissions in such register or map.

4. To empower the Town Council to provide accesses to streets by cross streets, continuations of streets, or otherwise, and to require deviations in the line of streets, and for such purposes to acquire lands by agreement, to define the build ing line and a new building, to control the position of new buildings in streets, to prevent the formation of a cul de sac and the erection of buildings beyond the building line, to provide for the fencing of ground fronting or abutting on any street, and for notice to owners of the intended paving of private streets, and to authorise the sale or other disposal of streets no longer required for the public use.

5. To empower the Dean of Guild Court, on the application of the Town Council, to require rounding-off of buildings at the junction of two streets, and to provide for compensation to persons injured thereby.

6. To indemnify the Town Council against flooding of cellars or vaults, and to provide for their non-liability to drain such thereof as are below street level; to make further provision for the connection of private drains and sewers with public sewers at the cost of the owners, and for the construction, maintenance, repair, and reconstruction by the latter of private drains and sewers; to prohibit or restrict the discharge of steam or hot liquids or offensive matters into sewers, and the construction of drains in walls or under floors of buildings, and to alter the existing provisions with respect to the giving of notices of the intention of the Town Council to construct public sewers.

7. To require notice to the Burgh Surveyor being given on completion of soil and waste pipes and drains and to provide for the renewal of drainage of existing buildings in accordance with the provisions of the Order; to prescribe the position, construction, and repair of ash-pits, the method and time of emptying the same and charge (if any) to be made by the Town Council in respect thereof; and to restrict the use of buildings erected in connection with a tenement for other than the purposes for which they were erected.

8. To limit the height of buildings erected, rebuilt, or enlarged after the commencement of the Order and method of measurement thereof, to provide for the publication of the consent of the Town Council to the erection of buildings exceeding such limit, and for a right of appeal in regard thereto to adjoining owners; to make special provision as to the height of dwelling-houses and existing buildings converted into dwelling-houses; to provide for the equipment of buildings of a certain size and character with fire-resisting partitions and doors; to limit the cubical extent of new buildings, and additions to or re-building of existing buildings, with special provisions as regards buildings of the manufacturing and warehouse class; and to prescribe the position and character of party walls in buildings.

9. To provide for the preparation of sites of buildings and the imposition of penalties for building on improper sites; to prescribe the respective strengths of different buildings, the inspection and testing thereof, and restrict the deposit of heavy weights and machinery on upper floors.

10. To prescribe the formation, nature, material, dimensions of, and method of building foundations, walls, and damp courses, the extent of bearing of walls, girders, and piers; the amount of overhang of walls or projection of chimney stalks, the street floor level of dwelling-houses, the construction of walls with incombustible material, the position and proximity of temporary wooden buildings, the material and position of hoists and elevators, and penalties in respect of the infringement of all or any of such provisions.

11. To provide for statement on plans of buildings submitted for approval to the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court of the materials intended to be used for the front of such buildings, to require the consent of the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court before use thereof, to prevent building during frosty weather, and to provide for notice being given to the Town Council or the Burgh Surveyor before the commencement of any building operations.

12. To prescribe the dimensions, material angle, and strength of roofs, the construction thereof as fire-proof, and method of obtaining access thereto and egress therefrom in case of fire.

13. To make provision in regard to the construction, erection, fixing, height, dimensions, position, connection, and materials of chimneys, chimney stalks, flues, steam and hot-water pipes, fireplaces and stoves, the increasing in height of chimney stalks and flues where causing nuisance, and in regard to notice being given to the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court before adding to number of furnaces served by any chimney or chimney stalk, and method of carrying chimneys and flues through or along the walls and floors of buildings, to restrict, under conditions, the use of or provide for the removal of existing chimneys or flues, and to provide for the inspection, periodic or otherwise, of chimneys and flues.

14. To compel fireplace openings to be fire-proof and to require the stopping up of unused fireplaces and chimneys with incombustible material, and to prohibit the erection of a stove, oven or steam boiler on a wooden floor.

15. To provide for the proper support of stairs, and the maintenance thereof free from obstruction, the provision and maintenance of gates, doors and railings by owners on common stairs, back greens, and areas, the position and effectual separation of dwelling-houses or habitable rooms over or from buildings used for noxious or dangerous businesses, and the isolation thereof by fireproof walls and staircases from such buildings.

16. To define public buildings and to further describe the accommodation, dimensions, design, and conditions of erection of theatres and public buildings, the equipment thereof with fireproof walls and roofs, the character, number and width of stairs, accesses, and exits. To further provide for the proper inspection of public buildings, and to empower the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court to restrict the use of public buildings contrary to the provisions of the Order, and impose penalties in respect thereof.

17. To make special provision in regard to the cubic contents of dwelling houses or other buildings, the heights of ceilings, the size, number, position, and nature of rooms and windows, the number of storeys, bed recesses, or enclosed beds, the number of houses in a tenement, common stairs and party walls in tenements, additions to and alterations of buildings, the conditions (if any) under which houses may be built or inhabited over dangerous buildings, or workrooms used above warehouses or on upper floors, means of escape from high buildings, and satisfaction of the requirements of the Factory Acts.

18. To provide for the removal or restoration on notice by the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court of dilapidated and neglected buildings, or of the roof or of any part of a building, the making of orders in regard thereto, and appeal against such orders by persons aggrieved, the removal and disposal of the materials of such buildings and recoupment of expenses incurred in regard thereto by the Town Council or Dean of Guild Court.

19. To authorise the removal of buildings which have become dangerous through fire or are likely to conduce to a spread thereof, and to compel the owners and occupiers of every land or heritage within the Burgh upon or in which a fire breaks out or occurs to jointly or severally pay to the Town Council a portion of the cost of extinguishing such fire, and to prohibit the re-erection of buildings destroyed by fire without warrant of the Dean of Guild Court.

20. To prescribe the dimensions, design, conditions of erection, construction, position and strength of platforms, scaffoldings, balconies, hoardings, barricades, and cranes, shear legs, and lifting tackle used for building purposes; to authorise the removal and taking down of any such structures or things erected or set up contrary to the provisions of the Order, to invest the Dean of Guild Court and the Town Council with increased powers in regard thereto, and to further provide for the reimbursement to the Town Council of any expenses incurred in respect thereof.

21. To authorise the Town Council or any Committee thereof, by order affixed to the building, to declare the same or any part thereof unfit for human habitation, to revoke or vary any such order, to prescribe penalties in respect of any letting or occupation of such building or part thereof after the affixing of such order, and to provide for and require the removal of persons from any such building or part thereof. To make provisions for the demolition of any such building, and for the application thereto of Part II. of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890.

22. To empower the Town Council to further regulate the provision, maintenance, and repair of water and earth closets, urinals, lavatories, receptacles for rubbish, and other similar conveniences in houses or parts thereof, and the efficient ventilation thereof, and of all fittings and apparatus used for or in connection therewith, and in particular to require the owners, within a time limited by the Order, to provide and keep in repair any such water or earth closet, receptacle for rubbish or convenience, or remove any in existence which may be of defective construction, or injurious to health, and substitute therefor such thing or things of like character as may be prescribed by the Town Council.

23. To prohibit under penalty the throwing of water, dirt, or offensive matters or things from windows or openings in houses into or upon any street, court, or place, and to empower the Town Council on failure to discover an offender to proceed against all the occupiers of the houses of which the windows and openings overlook such street, court, or place.

24. To compel owners of private courts, common passages, or areas to pave, drain, and keep in repair the same, and to whitewash the walls and ceilings of courts and closes, on requisition by the Town Council; to make provisions on the neglect or default of owners so to do for the repair, flagging, sewerage, and white-washing thereof by the Town Council at the expense of such owners, and to prohibit the erection of other than an open iron railing in or between back courts.

25. To regulate the form, erection, dimensions, and maintenance in a wholesome condition of cisterns for the storage of water for domestic use, and of overflow pipes attached to such cisterns and their point of discharge.

26. To require the Dean of Guild Court in the case of applications thereto in respect of premises, for the establishing, carrying on, and enlarging of any trade for which the consent of the Town Council is requisite, to require a roof of such consent before granting a warrant in the said behalf.

27. To make provisions for the efficient ventilation of single apartments used or let as dwelling-houses, of rows of tenements or houses, and of hollow squares to the satisfaction of the Town Council or the Dean of Guild Court; to require the provision and maintenance of such a free space as the Order may provide in the rear of houses and of other buildings and before the windows of sleeping apartments in new and existing buildings and method of measuring such space; to prescribe the internal cubic space in dwelling-rooms or houses to be constructed or altered, and amount of open space before any bed-recess and the number of such recesses in any dwelling-house or part thereof.

28. To prescribe the number and age of persons who may sleep in any dwelling-house, according to the amount of internal cubic space thereof, the method of measuring such space and penalties in respect of overcrowding, to authorise officials of the Town Council to enter and measure certain dwelling-houses and to affix thereon and therein a ticket, stating the amount of space and number of persons who may sleep in any such house, and to provide penalties in respect of any defacement, alteration or removal of such ticket.

29. To empower the Town Council to erect and maintain on or under any street or pavement within the Burgh waiting rooms, lavatories, water-closets, and urinals for the use and accommodation of the public, to charge for the use thereof, to employ persons to manage such waiting rooms and other conveniences, to make regulations with respect thereto, to acquire, so far as may be necessary for such purposes, by agreement, the solum of any such street or pavement, and to provide for the application to those purposes of the funds, assessments, and revenues of the Town Council.

30. To prohibit or control offensive noises and the crying and offering of coal, newspapers, and other wares and articles by call for sale in streets or other public place, common passages, and stairs within the Burgh, to authorise the Town Council to make regulations in regard thereto, and to provide for their enforcement, to amend the provisions of section 275 of the Act of 1892, and require the persons therein mentioned and persons following the businesses therein specified, to obtain licences from the Magistrates of the Burgh, and to provide for the imposition and recovery of penalties on and from any such persons in respect of failure to apply for such licence.

31. To make provision with reference to the separation of persons of opposite sex (other than husband and wife) in houses let in lodgings or in farmed-out houses, as such farmed-out houses are defined in section 72 of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and to make bye-laws in connection therewith.

32. To enact that the provisions of section 394 of the Act of 1892 relative to the carrying of lights on certain vehicles shall extend to all vehicles included in the definition of the term "carriage" in section 4 (5) of that Act, and to extend the provisions of section 381 of the Act of 1892 so as to include and apply to motor cars, motors, bicycles, tricycles, and other similar vehicles, and to authorise the Town Council to regulate and limit the speed at which such vehicles may be driven or ridden within the Burgh, and impose penalties in respect of any breach of such regulation.

33. To authorise the Town Council or the Dean of Guild Court, with the consent of the former, to relax or modify some or all of the provisions of the Order, or enactments in force in the Burgh with regard to buildings, structures, streets, sewers, drains, cesspools, water-closets, soil pipes, ashpits, and other similar matters, or bye-laws made or to be made in regard thereto.

34. To prohibit the formation or laying out of new cemeteries or the enlargement of existing cemeteries within the Burgh without the consent of the Town Council, to empower the latter to make bye-laws and regulations with respect to the regulation and preservation of cemeteries in the Burgh, to facilitate the acquisition by the Town Council of lands for burial grounds, and, so far as may be necessary for such purpose, to amend and extend the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Acts, 1855 to 1886, and to apply the assessment under those Acts, or any other assessment leviable by the Town Council towards all or any of the aforesaid purposes, to provide for the keeping of burial registers, and to prohibit interments, except in public burial grounds or cemeteries, and to alter the method of imposing and levying rates or assessments under the aforesaid Acts.

35. To authorise the Town Council and the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the City of Edinburgh (hereinafter called "the Corporation of Edinburgh") to enter into mutual agreements for the lighting, cleansing, draining, and paving by one or other of such bodies of roads and streets partly within the Burgh and partly within the City of Edinburgh, and otherwise in relation thereto, and to make contributions to each other for such purposes.

36. To authorise the Town Council to make and maintain in the Burgh and Parish of Leith a bridge for foot passengers, over the railway of the North British Railway Company, where that railway crosses West Bowling Green Street on the level commencing in the said street at a point sixteen yards or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction along that street from the centre of the level crossing and terminating at a point in the said street fifteen yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction, along that street from the centre of the said level crossing, and to acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold for the purposes of the said foot-bridge lands or easements on or over lands and to cross or otherwise interfere with the said railway, and to require and compel the North British Railway Company to repay to the Town Council the costs incurred by them in providing and constructing the said foot-bridge, or if deemed expedient to require the said Company to provide, construct, and maintain the same, or otherwise to confer power upon the Town Council to pay such costs or part thereof out of the assessments leviable within the Burgh.

37. To confer further powers on the Magistrates, the Town Council, and constables for the regulation of vehicular and other traffic within the Burgh, and to provide for the observance and enforcement of their directions in that behalf.

38. To make further provision for the lighting of common stairs, passages, and private courts within the Burgh, to authorise the Town Council, if need be, to light any such stairs, passages, and courts, and charge the expense thereof on the owners or occupiers or on the Burgh General or other assessment.

39. To prohibit, restrict, or control the exercise of rights of ownership by private persons over land fronting on or forming part of any street which, although not formally dedicated to public use, forms part de facto of a street.

40. To make further and better provision with respect to the emission of smoke or effluvia offensive or injurious to health, or vegetation, from buildings used as manufactories or for trade or other purposes, and to enable the Town Council to prohibit or restrict the same, and to require the use of smoke consuming furnaces.

41. To prohibit or regulate stone dressing or similar work in enclosed or barricaded portions of streets, and carts, &c., standing within or near hoardings or barricades.

42. To make provision as to evidence of resolutions of the Town Council, and as to petitions for Dean of Guild Court warrant, being depending processes, and to provide for the continuance of obligations attaching under orders of the Dean of Guild Court.

43. To make further provision as to expenses of the Town Council incurred under the Order and the recovery thereof, and to constitute the cost of works done by the Town Council on the failure of a person liable to do such works, and of penalties and expenses, a real and preferable lien and burden on lands and heritages in connection with which such costs, penalties, and expenses are incurred.

44. To enable the Town Council or Burgh Surveyor to prevent and stop infringements of the provisions of the Order and the Town Council to make and enforce bye-laws, rules, and regulations in connection with all or any of the provisions of the Order, and to provide for the confirmation thereof; to further provide for the imposition and recovery of penalties in respect of any infringement of any such bye-law, rule, or regulation, or any of the provisions of the Order, or of the Act of 1892, and of any other public or local Act or Order in force within the Burgh, or of such offences at common law as are subject to the jurisdiction of the Magistrates.

45. To confer further powers upon the Town Council in regard to the more effectual suppression of betting and gaming in the streets, common stairs, passages, back courts, parks and open spaces, in licensed premises, and other places of public resort in the Burgh, and the apprehension of and infliction and recovery of penalties on and from persons so offending.

46. To make provision for the apprehension, trial, and punishment of drunk and disorderly persons in streets or public places in the Burgh.

47. To make provision for the licensing and control of manufacturers or dealers in ice-cream or similar commodities within the Burgh, and of all shops, premises, and utensils, or other articles used for the manufacture or sale thereof, to prescribe penalties in respect of sale without or breach of the license, and to provide that in their application within the Burgh the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and the Dairies, Cowsheds, and Milkshops Order, 1885, and any amendment or supplement of that Act or Order, or relative statutory or other provision, including the regulations of the Town Council thereunder, shall be applicable to and include such manufacturers or dealers and such premises as if these were respectively included in the terms "purveyor of milk" and "milk store" or "milkshop," as used therein, and to make other provisions relating thereto.

48. To empower the Town Council to regulate and control shops for the sale of and the sale therein of fried or otherwise cooked and prepared fish, and other like commodities.

49. To empower the Town Council to license an l otherwise control houses or buildings (other than premises duly licensed as an hotel) used for the purpose of playing billiards, bagatelle, and other like games and ping pong, to require the licensee to exhibit on his premises a notice of his having obtained such license, to provide penalties in respect of his failure so to do, and of the use of houses or buildings for the purposes aforesaid without a license.

50. To provide for the registration and licensing of servants' registries, and to empower the Town Council to make regulations in regard to such registries, the keepers thereof, the fees to be exacted in connection therewith, and the premises in which such registries are kept.

51. To extend and define the limits within which the Town Council are authorised to supply electricity, and to authorise the Town Council to exercise within such extended area all or any of the powers at present vested in the Town Council for the supply of electricity within their present area of supply.

52. To empower the Town Council, with the consent of the local authority of any district outside the Burgh, to supply within that district electric power or energy for public and private purposes under and according to the provisions of the Leith Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1897, and for those purposes to construct, erect, and maintain and attach to any house or building posts, conductors, wires, tubes, and apparatus, and to authorise the Town Council to enter into contracts, agreements, and arrangements with the owner, lessee, or occupier of any house or premises within the Burgh, or with the like consent as aforesaid beyond the Burgh, with respect to the supply and installation of electric light and fittings, and the terms and conditions of such supply and installation and the payments to be made therefor, and the inclusion of such payments in the rate leviable under the said Order and the Acts incorporated therewith, and to confer all necessary powers upon the Town Council in that behalf.

53. To provide that all wires, apparatus, and fittings in any building or premises supplied with electric energy by the Town Council shall be subject to such regulations and conditions for securing the safety of the inhabitants and for the prevention of fire as the Town Council may prescribe.

54. To empower the Town Council to purchase, sell, and hire any apparatus, fittings, or machines for the conversion of electrical energy into heat, light, or motive power, and to fix, set up, alter and remove the same. To authorise the Town Council to fix and define, collect and recover charges and rents in respect of such apparatus, fittings and machines, and to exempt the same from liability to be taken by creditors or otherwise.

55. To enable the Town Council to require as a condition of their supplying or continuing to supply with electrical energy any person intending to use, or using such energy as an auxiliary supply, the guarantee by such person of such minimum annual revenue in respect of the energy supplied or to be supplied to him by the Town Council as will afford the Town Council a reasonable return upon the capital expenditure incurred by the Town Council necessary to afford such supply.

56. To prohibit absolutely, or to restrict or otherwise regulate, as the Town Council think fit, the playing of golf, and all or any other games or game over or on the Leith Links or any portion thereof. To authorise the Town Council to make bye-laws and regulations by which they may in their discretion, and as and when they deem it expedient, prohibit the playing of golf or any other game on the said links, or may restrict and regulate the said game of golf or any other games in such way and manner as the Town Council think fit, and to impose penalties for breach of such prohibition and of such bye-laws and regulations, and to provide for the enforcement thereof and for the summary trial and punishment of offences against the same, and to give effect to the purposes aforesaid, to amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary, section 33 and other sections of the Act 1 & 2 Vict. cap. LV., or any schedule annexed thereto, and all or some of the provisions of the Order confirmed by the Secretary for Scotland's Leith Provisional Order Confirmation Act, 1886.

57. To empower the Town Council to set apart portions of the said links, and of parks, gardens, and open spaces and other places, including ponds and ornamental waters, under their control for the purposes of games, including golf, bowling, curling, skating, cricket, football, model yachting, and other recreations and amusements, for pleasure walks, and for the driving, riding, or exercise of horses thereon, and for cycling, to acquire or take over any existing course or ground laid out or suitable for, and other lands for, any such purpose, and to lay out and adapt such lands and the said links for any such purpose, and to provide and maintain apparatus and appliances and equipment for playing such games, and to erect pavilions, refreshment-rooms, shelters, baths, lavatories, and other buildings for the convenience of players and the public, to provide music and entertainments, and to appoint officers and attendants; to let portions of the links and parks for special and temporary purposes, to levy rents and charges for the use of pavilions, refreshment rooms, apparatus, and other conveniences, and make charges for admission to museums, parks, conservatories, gardens, and other similar places and buildings under their control, and to authorise the Town Council to defray any cost incurred in respect of the matters aforesaid out of the common good or any assessment applicable to public parks.

58. To make further and better provision for prevention of the sale within the Burgh of the milk of diseased cows, to inflict penalties on persons trading within the Burgh who shall sell such milk, or fail to isolate diseased cows or to notify cases of bovine tuberculosis to the medical officer of the district in which the dairy of such persons is situated, or to render assistance for the examination of cows supposed diseased as after-mentioned. To empower the Town Council or their medical officer or his deputy to enter and take samples of milk from cows in dairies within the Burgh, and to make, revoke, or vary any Order prohibiting the sale of milk from cows found to be diseased, or in such terms as may be provided by the Order. To authorise and require the local authorities of any district from any dairy in which milk is being supplied within the Burgh, their medical officer, or his deputy, on requisition by the Town Council, or their medical officer, to enter and take samples of milk from any cow in such dairy, to examine the same, and notify the time of, and permit the presence of the Town Council, or their medical officer, or his deputy at such examination, and in the event of such cow being found diseased, to notify the fact thereof to any local authority within whose district such milk is being supplied, and to make, revoke and vary an Order prohibiting the sale of milk from such dairy, or in such other terms as the Order may prescribe. To provide for expenses incurred by any local authority in respect of the matters aforesaid being charged on the public health or other assessment of the district.

59. To make further provision with regard to the materials to be used in the construction and sanitary equipment of byres, piggeries, and stables, and for the amount of cubic air space to be allowed for each animal therein.

60. To empower the Town Council by public and newspaper notices to require the notification by any householder at the office of the medical officer of health for the Burgh of all cases of measles or whooping-cough within 24 hours of the occurrence thereof in the house of such householder when either one or both diseases have been certified by the said medical officer to be epidemic in the Burgh or any part thereof.

61. To make provision and confer the necessary powers for the making of a supplementary valuation roll pursuant to the provisions of the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act, 1854, and the making of assessments over the properties in such roll for any portion of a year between Whitsunday and Whitsunday.

62. To authorise the Town Council to include in the assessment roll provided to be kept under Section 348 of the Act of 1892 all or any of the assessments leviable within the Burgh.

63. To provide for the expenses incurred by the Town Council in respect of private streets being allocated upon the proprietors of lands and heritages fronting or abutting on the same or part thereof according to their frontage towards such street or part thereof as the case may be, and further to provide for the apportionment of private improvement expenses incurred by the Town Council under the Act of 1892 upon the joint proprietors or occupiers of lands and heritages and to authorise the charge of such last-mentioned expenses upon such joint proprietors or occupiers, in proportion to the extent of their respective interests as set forth in the valuation roll then current.

64. To amend and extend the provisions of Section 365 of the Act of 1892, and provide for the inclusion in private improvement expenses as defined by that Act of the interest accrued on temporary loans raised for the purpose of private improvements before such expenses have been declared payable in terms of that Act, together with a reasonable allowance in respect of administration and superintendence.

65. To provide that in any case in which an appeal lies from the Town Council to the Sheriff or other Court in respect of any order, resolution, or deliverance, or act of the Town Council made under or in pursuance of any general or local Act in force within the Burgh, an appeal shall in the first instance be taken to the Town Council.

66. To amend and extend the provisions of Section 339 of the Act of 1892 and provide, in the event of an appeal against any order, resolution, or deliverance, or act of the Town Council being taken to the Sheriff, for the same on the application of the Town Council, being transferred to and dealt with by the Court of Session.

67. To extend and apply the provisions of Sections 133 to 140 of the Act of 1892 to all streets within the Burgh not maintained or liable to be maintained by the Town Council, whether houses or permanent buildings have been erected on one-fourth of the ground fronting the same or not, and to provide for the forming, making, and maintaining of such streets either under the provisions of those sections or under similar provisions in the Order and in connection therewith to repeal the necessity of obtaining the consent (to macadamising) of the owners of two-thirds of the frontage under Section 136 of the Act of 1892.

68. To amend and provide for the application and extension to the footways of private streets of the provisions of Section 141 of the Act of 1892, and to provide for the cost of maintenance of footways upheld by the Town Council being borne and paid in like manner as the cost of maintenance of carriageways.

69. To extend and apply the provisions of Section 344 of the Act of 1892 to all assessments levied or leviable by the Town Council, and to provide for the priority of burden of assessments, and computation for purposes of assessment of a fraction of a pound of rental as equivalent to the nearest integral pound.

70. To provide that Section 374 of the Act of 1892 shall be read and construed in respect of the Burgh as if the words "not less than three per centum per annum" were substituted for the words "equal to three per centum per annum" therein.

71. To revive or re-enact the provisions, or some of them, of Section 92 of the General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862, in respect of the addition of one penny per pound to unpaid assessments, and to make the said one penny per pound payable on the 1st of March, each year, and to provide that the same shall apply to the Burgh in lieu of the addition under Section 353 of the Act of 1892 of ten per centum on arrears of assessment, and to make provision for the recovery by the Town Council of the expense of proceedings in relation to such arrears.

72. To make further and better provision in regard to advertisements and sky-signs within the Burgh, and to empower the Town Council to license sites and hoardings and other structures for advertisement purposes, and to prohibit (except in cases to be specified in the Order) advertisements except on such licensed sites, hoardings, and structures, and to remove unauthorised advertisements and notices the display of which leads or is likely to lead to obstruction of traffic or to danger to the public in any road, street, or place within the Burgh.

73. To enable the Town Council to prosecute before the Magistrates of the Burgh, owners of property and others who have been served with notice by the Burgh Surveyor under the provisions of any Act in force in the Burgh or of the Order and who have failed to duly implement such notice, and to provide for the infliction and recovery of penalties in respect of such default.

74. To provide for the owners or occupiers of common stairs, passages, and private courts in, or entering, or having a right of access by or using the same, cleaning, painting, and keeping in order such stairs, passages, and courts, and paying the expense thereof, or otherwise, to empower the Town Council to do such cleaning, painting, and putting in order, and recover the expense thereof from such owners or occupiers, and to enforce penalties for failure on the part of such owners and occupiers.

75. To amend the provisions of Section 36 of the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, and make provision for the filling of casual vacancies in the Town Council arising from any cause by (at the discretion of the Town Council) special election by the electors.

76. To extend and increase the present borrowing powers of the Town Council and to authorise them for all or any of the purposes of the Order (including the costs thereof), and of the Town Council in their several capacities, and for the general purposes of their electrical or other undertaking, to issue Bills and promissory notes and apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are at present authorised to borrow, and to borrow and re-borrow further moneys on mortgage, bond, debenture, debenture stock, and annuities, or by cash credit, or by deposit or otherwise, or by any of those methods on the security of the whole or any part of the electrical or other undertaking, and of all rents and revenues arising therefrom, and also on the security of all other rates, revenues, and assessments levied or leviable within the Burgh, and all other the estates and property of the Town Council, and to make provision for establishing a sinking fund or sinking funds for the repayment of moneys so to be borrowed by the Town Council under such conditions as the Order may provide.

77. To remove doubts as to the true intent and meaning of Section 4 of the Agricultural Rates Congested Districts, and Burgh Land Tax Relief (Scotland) Act, 1896, and to enable and require the Secretary for Scotland from any payments to be made to the Corporation of Edinburgh under that Act, to deduct and pay to the Town Council such sum or sums of money as shall, in the opinion of the Secretary for Scotland, be equal to the annual amount (calculated (a) from the 31st day of March 1896, and (b) in each succeeding year) of the land tax redeemed by money raised within the Burgh in the districts of South Leith, North Leith, Coalhill and Citadel, or to require and compel the Corporation of Edinburgh out of the payments made and to be made as aforesaid to pay the sum or sums of money aforesaid to the Town Council or otherwise as the Order may prescribe.

78. To remove doubts and authorise the application by the Town Council of the funds and rates under their control as a Municipal Corporation, Police, Public Health, Sanitary, or other Authority to the payment of the costs and expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in promoting or opposing Bills in Parliament, Provisional Orders, licences or other proceedings in the Board of Trade, the Department of the Secretary for Scotland, the Light Railway Commission or other public Departments, or in prosecuting or defending any legal proceedings for the promotion or protection of the interests of the Burgh and its inhabitants, and to enable and authorise the Town Council to determine out of which fund or funds, rate or rates, such costs and expenses shall be payable, and in what proportions, and to meet any deficiency in the common good fund of the Burgh out of the assessments thereof.

79. To authorise the Town Council to borrow and re-borrow any moneys required for the payment of the costs and expenses incurred by them in respect of their opposition to the Edinburgh Extension Bill in the Session of Parliament 1896, and the legal proceedings following thereon, upon the credit of their estates and property, and of the rates and assessments, or any one or more of the rates and assessments which they as a Municipal, Police, Public Health, Sanitary or other Authority, are or may be authorised to make and levy on and from the owners and occupiers of lands, buildings, heritages or other property within the Burgh, and in such proportions as they may see fit, and if deemed expedient to authorise and empower the Town Council for such purposes to make, levy and recover rates and assessments on and from such owners and occupiers or owners or occupiers, and to increase existing and authorised rates and assessments, and to grant exemptions from the payment of rates and assessments, and to make such other provisions with respect to the objects aforesaid as the intended Order will define or Parliament may sanction. To provide for the repayment of moneys to be so borrowed by the Town Council, and also of moneys already borrowed by them for the payment of any such costs and expenses.

80. To provide for the payment of superannuation or retiring allowances, and to authorise the Town Council to grant gratuities to officers and servants in the employ of the Town Council, and to make allowances and gratuities to the relatives or representatives of any such officer or servant deceased, and to provide that such allowances shall not be assignable or chargeable with the debts or liabilities of the grantee.

81. To provide for the establishing of a superannuation fund for officers and servants, the payment of contributions thereto by such officers and servants, and the making such contributions or some part thereof compulsory, and to empower the Town Council to deduct such compulsory portion from the salary or wages of the contributors.

82. To provide for the making and altering of a scheme or schemes for establishing and administering the fund and appointing committees for that purpose, and to empower the Town Council to contribute to such fund and to charge the rates and other funds under their control with, and to pay thereout, all moneys payable by the Town Council under the provisions of the Order, and to levy rates accordingly.

83. To authorise the Town Council to insure by the establishment of an insurance fund or otherwise against loss by fire or otherwise, and other casualties, properties belonging to them, or other public representative bodies in the Burgh, and against accident to any officer or servant in their employment, and to provide for contributions for those purposes being made from the funds of the several departments of the Town Council, and to make such further provisions with reference thereto as the Order may prescribe.

84. To amend section 9 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1882, and provide that the accounts required to be kept by the Town Council as undertakers under the Leith Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1897, shall be made up and balanced at the 15th day of May annually, or at such other date as the intended Order may prescribe.

85. The Order will alter, vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with, or which would or might in any way impede or interfere with, the objects or purposes of the Order, and will confer other rights and privileges.

86. To alter, vary, amend, and extend or repeal, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of the Order, the whole or some of the provisions of the Act 1 and 2 Vict. c. LV., the Leith Municipal and Police Act, 1848, the Water of Leith Purification and Sewerage Act, 1889, the General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862, Order Confirmation (Leith) Act, 1877, the Leith Improvement Scheme Confirmation Act, 1880, the Secretary for Scotland's Leith Provisional Order Confirmation Act, 1886, the Leith Burgh Order Confirmation Act, 1898, Leith Burgh Order Confirmation Act, 1900, the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1890, the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, and Schedule, the Leith Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1897, the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act, 1854, and any Act or Acts amending the same, the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1896, the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, Amendment Act, 1888, and any other Act or Acts relating to or affecting the Town Council or the Burgh, or which would interfere with or prevent the objects of the Order being carried into effect.

87. To incorporate or make applicable to the Order all or some of the provisions of the Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act, 1854, the Lands Clauses Acts, and any Act or Acts amending any of the said Acts, with such alterations or modifications of any of those Acts as may be expedient, or as may be prescribed by the Order.

88. Plans and sections of the works proposed to be authorised by the Order and plans of the lands, which may be taken under the powers thereof, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 31st day of March 1902, be deposited for public inspection in the office of the Principal Sheriff-

Clerk of the County of Mid-Lothian, in Edinburgh, and with the Town-Clerk of the Burgh, at his office in Leith.

89. Printed Copies of the Order will be deposited in the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of April 1902.

90. The procedure subsequent to the deposit of the Petition for the draft Order and the draft Order in the Office of the Secretary for Scotland will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and the deposits of plans, sections, books of reference, and copies of and this notice will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this 18th day of March 1902.

T. B. LAING,
Town-Clerk, Leith,
Solicitor for the Order.
