ACT OF ADJOURNAL

to Regulate Procedure under the Youthful Offenders Act, 1901.—[1 Edward VII. cap. 20.]

At Edinburgh the 31st day of May 1902.

PRESENT,

The Right Honourable the Lord Justice-General.
The Right Honourable the Lord Justice-Clerk.
The Right Honourable Lord Young.
The Honourable Lord Adam.
The Honourable Lord M'Laren.
The Right Honourable the Lord Kinneir.
The Honourable Lord Trayner.
The Honourable Lord Kyllachy.
The Honourable Lord Stormonth-Darling.
The Honourable Lord Low.
The Right Honourable Lord Pearson.

THE Lord Justice-General, Lord Justice-Clerk, and Lords Commissioners of Justiciary, considering that by the Youthful Offenders Act, 1901, they are empowered to make rules for regulating the procedure under said Act, and for prescribing the manner in which an Order pronounced under said Act shall be served on a parent or other person liable to maintain a child or young person, and the time within which such parent or other person may make an application against the said Order, enact and declare as follows:—

I. Proceedings against a child or young person charged with an offence, or against his parent or guardian, shall commence by complaint in ordinary form at the instance of the Procurator-Fiscal, and shall thereafter proceed, as regards citation, service, finding of security, and other steps of procedure, as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Acts, or of any general or local Act of Parliament, or of any Act of Adjournal, regulating procedure in the Summary Criminal Court before which the complaint is brought, save as hereinafter provided.

II. On a Court of Summary Jurisdiction remitting the further proceedings in a case to the Sheriff, the Procurator-Fiscal of the Sheriff may present a complaint, and thereafter proceed in the case as if it had originated with him in the first instance.

III. An Order to maintain a child or young person may be served on the person on whom it is made either by service in common form, or by any constable or school board officer, or the agent or representative of His Majesty's Inspector of Reformatory or of Industrial Schools.

IV. Application against such Order may be made to the Court, either orally or in writing, within seven days after the date of the service or intimation of the Order; and the Court may thereon assign a diet for hearing parties, and shall proceed as may be just.

V. This Act of Adjournal shall come into operation on first July nineteen hundred and two, and in order that due notice thereof may be given to the lieges, shall be forthwith published in His Majesty's Edinburgh Gazette, and printed and circulated among all concerned.

CERTIFIED AND STATE INEBRIATE
REFORMATORIES.

I, the Right Honourable Charles Thomson Ritchie, one of His Majesties Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, by virtue of section 6 of the Inebriates Act, 1898, make the following regulations respecting the transfer of inebriates from a Certified Inebriate Reformatory to a State Inebriate Reformatory, from a State Inebriate Reformatory to a Certified Inebriate Reformatory, and from one Certified Inebriate Reformatory to another:—

I. Transfer from a Certified Inebriate Reformatory to a State Inebriate Reformatory.

In any case in which the Secretary of State thinks fit to order the transfer of a person from a Certified Inebriate Reformatory to a State Inebriate Reformatory, the direction shall be given by Warrant under his hand or under the hand of an Under Secretary or Assistant Under Secretary of State.

Such transfer shall be effected by the Managers of the Certified Inebriate Reformatory within such period as the Warrant may direct, and the person so transferred shall be detained in the State Reformatory for such time as may be specified in the Warrant, or as may be fixed by the Secretary of State by subsequent Order under his hand or in other manner aforesaid.

Applications for the transfer of any person from a Certified Reformatory to a State Reformatory must be made by the Managers of the Institution in which such person is confined. Such application must be directed to the Secretary of State and be accompanied by Any details which may be in the possession of the Managers concerning the history of the inmate previous to committal to the certified Reformatory.

A full statement concerning such inmate's conduct during detention in the Certified Reformatory, with a complete list of all offences he may have committed, together with details concerning any punishments which may have been awarded for such offences, and his medical history.

A full statement of the reasons on which the managers base their application.

II. Transfer from a State Inebriate Reformatory to a Certified Inebriate Reformatory.

In any case in which the Secretary of State thinks fit to order the transfer of a person from a State Reformatory to which he has been committed in pursuance of section 1 of the Inebriates Act, 1898, to a Certified Reformatory the Managers of which are willing to receive him, the direction shall be given by Warrant under his hand or under the hand of an Under Secretary or Assistant Under Secretary of State.

A person transferred from a Certified to a State Inebriate Reformatory by Warrant in which such person is ordered to be detained in the latter institution for a fixed period shall upon the expiration of such period be re-conveyed to the Certified Reformatory from which he was transferred, unless the Secretary of State shall otherwise direct.

In other cases when any inmate shall have been transferred from a Certified to a State Inebriate Reformatory in accordance with these Regulations, and the Secretary of State shall determine that it is desirable to return such inmate to the Certified Inebriate Reformatory from whence he was transferred, the Managers of such Certified Inebriate Reformatory shall thereupon receive such inmate.

When the Secretary of State shall be of opinion that, for any reason, it is undesirable to return any inmate from a State Inebriate Reformatory back to the particular Certified Reformatory from which such inmate was originally transferred, he will order the transfer of such inmate to any other Certified Reformatory the Managers of which signify to him their consent to receive.

The removal of any person from a State to a Certified Inebriate Reformatory shall be effected by the officers of the State Reformatory.

III. Transfer from one Certified Inebriate Reformatory to another.

On application from the Managers of a Certified Inebriate Reformatory, the Secretary of State will, if he thinks fit, by Warrant under his hand or under the hand of an Under Secretary or Assistant Under Secretary of State, order the transfer of an inmate from such Reformatory to any other the Managers of which are willing to receive him; and such person shall be detained in the latter Institution as if he had been committed thereto in the first instance.

CHAS. T. RITCHIE.
