At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 6th of June 1804,

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Hon. Henry Lord Mulgrave was, by his Majesty's command, sworn of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased, on the 14th day of May last, to appoint the Right Hon. George Earl of Dartmouth Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, his Lordship this day, by his Majesty's command, took the oaths as Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household.

His Majesty having been pleased, on the 10th day of May last, to appoint the Right Hon. George Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham Groom of the Stole to his Majesty, his Lordship this day, by his Majesty's command, took the oaths as Groom of the Stole to his Majesty.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Hon. Henry Lord Mulgrave, the oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was this day, by his Majesty's command, administered to his Lordship.

His Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint his Grace James Duke of Montrose, and, in his Grace's absence, the Right Hon. George Rose, President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. Edward Earl of Powis to be Lord Lieutenant of the counties of Salop and Montgomery, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Hon. George Talbot Lord Dynevor to be Lord Lieutenant of the county of Carmarthen, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.
