STATUTES OF THE IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

EDWARD, R. and I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these presents shall come. Greeting:

Whereas, we are desirous of recognising more fully than has hitherto been possible the faithful and meritorious services rendered to Us by Members of the Civil Services of the various parts of Our Empire, We do by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create a new Civil Order of Distinction,—to be designated as hereinafter described,—and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the Government of the same:—

Firstly.—It is ordained that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated “The Imperial Service Order.”

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and such Companions as We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly.—It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that only the members of the administrative or clerical branches of Our Civil Services shall be eligible for the distinction of Companions of this Order.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the number of Companions of the Order shall not exceed four hundred and twenty-five, of whom two hundred and fifty shall belong to Our Home Civil Service, and one hundred and seventy-five to the Civil Services of Our Colonies and Protectorates.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that no person shall be eligible to be a Companion of the Order whose name has not been laid before us, Our Heirs and Successors, by one of Our or Their Principal Secretaries of State, and who has not at the time of his nomination rendered at least twenty-five years’ meritorious service in the United Kingdom. Provided that in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, the minimum period of service shall be sixteen years: Provided also that it shall at any time be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to appoint specially to the Order persons who, not having completed the aforesaid periods of service, have rendered such eminently meritorious service as to qualify them in Our opinion to become recipients of this distinction.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Companion of the Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under Our Sign Manual and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Eighthly.—It is ordained that the decoration to be worn by Companions of the Order shall be a Badge or Medallion of gold and enamel, bearing on one side Our Imperial and Royal Cypher, and on the reverse "For Faithful Service," both to be executed in dark blue enamel on a plaque or shield of gold, surrounded by a wreath of laurel, surmounted by the Imperial Crown.

Ninthly.—It is ordained that the decoration shall be worn on the left breast suspended by a ribbon of one inch in width.

Tenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom we are pleased to confer the decoration shall be published in the London Gazette.

Eleventhly.—It is ordained that companions of the Order shall have the privilege of adding the letters "I.S.O." after their names.

Twelfthly.—It is ordained that members of any Order of Knighthood shall, if otherwise qualified, be eligible to become Companions of this Order, and that Companions of this Order shall in no way be debarred from becoming thereafter Members of any Order of Knighthood for which their services may qualify them.

Thirteenthly.—It is ordained that an officer shall be appointed to the Order who shall be styled "Secretary and Registrar," and who shall be ex officio a Companion of the Order.

Fourteenthly.—It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the Archives of the Order, which shall be kept in the Office of Our Secretary of State for the Home Department. He shall attend to the service of the Order and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Fifteenthly.—It is ordained that those Members of Our Civil Services who are not eligible for appointment as Companions of this Order may, on retirement from Our said Services after not less than twenty-five years of meritorious service in the United Kingdom, or not less than sixteen years of such service in a Colony or Protectorate which, under the Pension Acts or Regulations applying to that Colony or Protectorate, is recognised as unhealthy, be awarded a medal to be designated "The Imperial Service Medal," provided that no such medal shall be granted except on the recommendation of one of Our Principal Secretaries of State. Provided also that it shall be competent to Us, Our Heirs and Successors, to confer the Medal upon not more than five Civil servants in each year, who have retired after less than twenty-five years' service, should special circumstances in Our or their opinion justify the grant.

Sixteenthly.—It is ordained that the Imperial Service Medal shall be of silver and of a design similar to that of the Badge of the Companions of the aforesaid Imperial Service Order, and shall be similarly worn.

Seventeenthly.—It is ordained that the names of those persons to whom the Imperial Service Medal shall be granted shall be duly published in the London Gazette.

Lastly.—We reserve to Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors, full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispersing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under the Sign Manual of the Sovereign of the Order.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of August 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire at Hamilton, finding that the Burial Ground known as Windmillhill Old Burial Ground, situated in or near Windmillhill Street, Motherwell, in the Parish of Dalziel and County of Lanark, is overcrowded and in a condition dangerous to health, and offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed:—

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 20th day of September 1902:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before such Representation is so considered.

A. W. FITZROY.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE, August 11, 1902.

Notice is hereby given that a Petition has been presented to His Majesty in Council by James Bland Sutherland and others, Directors of the Edinburgh Institution for the Relief of Incurables at their own Homes, praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION to the said Institution. And His Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the Council, Notice is further given that all Petitions for or against such grant should be sent to the Privy Council Office on or before the twentieth day of September next.

WHITEHALL, August 7, 1902.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the under-mentioned Gentlemen His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to accept and wear Decorations (as stated against their respective names) which have been conferred upon them by His Highness the Khedive of Egypt, authorised by His Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey, in recognition of services rendered by them to His Highness while employed in the Egyptian Army:—

Medjidieh, Third Class.

Major and Brevet Colonel William Spottiswoode Sparkes, C.M.G.

Major William Arthur Boulnois, Royal Artillery.

Osmanieh, Fourth Class.

Captain Frederick Manoli Baltazzi Hobbs, Royal Marine Light Infantry.

Herbert Lefroy Hunter Fell, Esq., late Lieutenant Royal Navy.

Medjidieh, Fourth Class.

Captain Arthur Murray Pirie, D.S.O., 21st Lancers.

Captain Henry Evered Haymes, Royal Army Medical Corps.

WAR OFFICE, August 8, 1902.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of the Decoration of the Victoria Cross being delivered to the representatives of the under-mentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Men who fell during the recent operations in South Africa in the performance of acts of valour which would, in the opinion of the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in the Field, have entitled them to be recommended for that distinction had they survived:—

Captain D. R. Younger, Gordon Highlanders.

This Officer, during the action near Krugersdorp, on the 11th July 1900, volunteered for and took out the party which successfully dragged a Royal Artillery waggon under cover of a small kopje, though exposed to a very heavy and accurate fire at only 850 yards range. He also accompanied the second party of volunteers who went out to try and bring in one of the guns. During the attempt he was mortally wounded, dying shortly afterwards. His cool and gallant conduct was the admiration of all who witnessed it, and, had Captain Younger lived, the Field-Marshal Commanding-in-Chief in South Africa, would have recommended him for the high award of the Victoria Cross at the same time as Captain W. E. Gordon, of the same Regiment.

Lieutenant R. J. T. Digby Jones, Royal Engineers, and No. 459 Trooper H. Albrecht, Imperial Light Horse,

Would have been recommended for the Victoria Cross had they survived, on account of their having, during the attack on Waggon Hill (Lady-smith) of 6th January 1900, displayed conspicuous bravery and gallant conduct in leading the force which re-occupied the top of the hill at a critical moment just as the three foremost attacking Boers reached it, the leader being shot by Lieutenant Jones, and the two others by Trooper Albrecht.

Lieutenant and Adjutant G. H. B. Coulson, King's Own Scottish Borderers, 7th Mounted Infantry.

This Officer, during a rear guard action, near Lambrecht Fontein, on the 18th of May 1901, seeing Corporal Cranmer, 7th Mounted Infantry, dismounted, his horse having been shot, remained behind and took him up on his own horse. He rode a short distance, when the horse was shot, and both Lieutenant Coulson and the Corporal were brought to the ground. Lieutenant Coulson told Corporal Cranmer to get along with the wounded horse as best he could, and he would look after himself. Corporal Cranmer got on the horse and rode away to the column. No. 4792 Corporal Shaw (Lincolns), 7th Mounted Infantry, seeing Lieutenant Coulson's position of danger, rode back through the rear guard, and took him up on his horse. A few minutes later Corporal Shaw was shot through the body, and there is reason to believe that Lieutenant Coulson was wounded also, as he fell off his horse. Corporal Shaw fell off a few minutes later.

This Officer on many occasions throughout the Campaign displayed great coolness and gallantry under fire.

No. 3264 Sergeant A. Atkinson, Yorkshire Regiment.

During the battle of Paardeburg, 18th February 1900, Sergeant A. Atkinson, 1st Battalion Yorkshire Regiment, went out seven times, under heavy and close fire, to obtain water for the wounded. At the seventh attempt he was wounded in the head, and died a few days afterwards.

No. 3733 Private J. Barry, 1st Battalion Royal Irish Regiment.

During the night attack on the 7th and 8th January 1901, on Monument Hill, Private Barry, although surrounded and threatened by the Boers at the time, smashed the breach of the Maxim gun, thus rendering it useless to its captors, and it was in doing this splendid act for his country that he met his death.
