By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION

For appointing Saturday, 25th October, a Bank Holiday in the County of London.

EDWARD R. & I.

WE, considering that it is desirable that Saturday the twenty-fifth day of this instant October, being the occasion of Our Royal Progress through London, should be observed as a Close Holiday in all Banks throughout the County of London, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bank Holidays Act, 1871," Do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, and in exercise of the powers conferred by the Act aforesaid, appoint Saturday the twenty-fifth day of this instant October, being the occasion of the said Royal Progress, as a special day to be observed as a Close Holiday in all Banks throughout the County of London, under and in accordance with the said Act, and We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, command the said day to be so observed, and all Our loving subjects concerned to order themselves accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, and in the second year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

AYR CORPORATION TRAMWAYS.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS

For the Regulation of same on the Ayr District Roads of the County of Ayr.

THE Ayr District Committee of the County Council of Ayrshire, being the Local Authority for the Parishes of Ayr and Monkton and Prestwick, which lie around the Ayr Burgh Boundary, do hereby, in virtue of the powers conferred by Section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, make and enact the following Bye-Laws and Regulations as to the following matters:—

The rate of speed to be observed in travelling upon the Tramway;

The distance at which carriages using the Tramway shall be allowed to follow one after the other;

The stopping of carriages using the Tramway; and

The traffic on the road in which the Tramway is laid.

1.—No Tramway Car or Tramway Carriage (afterwards in these Bye-Laws called "Car") shall travel at a greater or higher rate of speed than ten miles an hour along any of the Roads under the jurisdiction of the said District Committee.

2.—No Car shall follow any other Car on the same line of rails at a nearer distance than 50 yards.

3.—Every driver and conductor of any Car shall stop for the purpose of taking up or setting down passengers in the course of its journey, but only at the stances allotted to it by the Magistrates of the Burgh of Ayr. No Car shall stop at or within 10 yards on either side of any crossing from one line of Tramway to another line of Tramway, or at or within 10 yards of any crossing over any street or road.

4.—All carts, carriages, or other vehicles travelling or being driven on or over or standing on any part of any road in which the Tramways or any of them are laid, shall, on any Car approaching, draw to the side of the road or Tramway other than that upon which such Car is approaching, so as to keep clear of the same when passing. Provided always that should such cart, carriage, or other vehicle be standing, travelling, or passing on any part of any road with an ample free space between and the nearest line of rail, so as to allow of the safe passing of the Car, this rule shall not apply.

5.—All persons in charge of any animal or animals shall take or drive them out of the way, and all foot passengers shall also get out of the way of any passing Car. Whenever it is necessary to avoid impending danger, the carriages shall be brought to a standstill.

6.—When any Car is following any vehicle, ample space between the Car and such vehicle shall be allowed, so that in the event of the vehicle pulling up suddenly no collision may result therefrom, but every vehicle shall go out of the way of the Car with all despatch, so as to keep the Tramway clear for the use of the Car.

7.—No car shall be stopped abreast, or within 12 yards, of another Car on an adjoining line of rails.

8.—In the event of any street or road being blocked, the driver of any Car shall stop the same before arriving at the place where the block occurs, so as to keep an open space between for carriages to pass. In case a Car is stopped by any block so long as to bring two Cars together, the foremost Car must, after the way is clear, be driven along so that the time lost by the delay may be gradually made up as soon as possible, but notwithstanding no car shall be driven faster than the speeds respectively specified in Bye-Law No 1 hereof.

9.—When Cars are going in opposite directions, and likely to meet near a facing point (whether such facing point leads to a junction, siding, or cross-over), drivers shall not pass each other until they are certain that the Car first approaching such facing point has taken it safely. The Car about to take a point shall have the precedence of the other.

10.—All drivers of Cars, on coming in sight of any cart, carriage, or other vehicle standing on the line of Tramway on which he is plying, or by the side thereof, without there being free space to pass, shall use his bell as a signal to the drivers or persons in charge of any such cart, carriage, or other vehicle, and that for a distance of 30 yards at least before coming up to such cart, carriage, or other vehicle.

11.—The above Bye-Laws and Regulations shall be strictly and faithfully observed and performed in all points. Any proprietor, conductor, or driver, and any person whomscever, who shall be convicted of a breach of or contravention of these Bye-Laws and Regulations, or any of them, shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, and a further penalty for continuing offence not exceeding ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues.
