PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles, finding that certain Burial Grounds in the Parish of Prestonpans are so crowded with human remains as to be offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Grounds (viz., the East and West Graveyards, Prestonpans) should be closed, subject to a reservation of the rights of existing lair-holders to make future interments with the consent of the Local Authority; provided always as regards all future interments that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to the public health, that no graves be less than five feet deep, that no grave be buried in unless it can be opened to that depth without exposure of coffins, and that notice be given to the Sanitary Inspector of the Burgh of Prestonpans on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 28th day of March 1903:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before such Representation is so considered.

A. W. FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of February 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it was enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland under certain provisions of the said first-named Act had been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial ground should be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland (or as the case might require) that after a time mentioned in such Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial should be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council should thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always that notice of such Representation, and of the time it should please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same should be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation was so considered:

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland made a Representation stating that he had received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Lanarkshire at Hamilton, finding that the Old Strathaven Graveyard, situated in Castle Street, Strathaven, in the Parish of Avondale, is in a condition which is offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it was recommended that the said Graveyard should be closed, subject to certain regulations:

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order as follows, viz.:

That burials be forthwith discontinued in the Old Strathaven Graveyard, situate in Castle Street, Strathaven, in the Parish of Avondale, provided that the right of interment shall be reserved to the following parties:—

(1) All Heritors and Householdors of the Parish of Avondale as per Valuation

Roll, 1901-2, with their wives and widows and single members of their families :

- (2) Where a husband or wife has been interred, the remaining spouse to be admitted :
- (3) These parties to have right of interment only so far as there is room in the lairs presently used by them.

A. W. FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of February 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it was enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland, that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland under certain provisions of the said first-named Act had been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new burial ground should be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland (or as the case might require) that after a time mentioned in such Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial should be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council should thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always that notice of such Representation, and of the time it should please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same should be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation was so considered:

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland made a Representation stating that he had received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fife and Kinross at Cupar, finding that the Old Burial Ground at Milton of Balgonie, in the Parish of Markinch, is so crowded with bodies as to be dangerous to health and offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it was recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed, subject to certain exceptions:

And whereas notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order as follows, viz. :—

That burials be forthwith discontinued in the Old Burial Ground at Milton of Balgonie, in the Parish of Markinch, except for the burial of—

- (1) Any widow or widower whose husband or wife has been buried in the said burial ground.
- (2) The cremated ashes of any person having right of burial within the aforesaid burial ground.
- (3) The following persons, being old residents within the Parish of Markinch, who have relatives buried in the said burial ground, provided that there shall be ground therein, available for their interment under the conditions hereinafter set forth, videlicet :—

Barbara Wilkie,
Alison Skinner,
Margaret D. Blyth,
Ann Bonella,
Margaret M'Lellan, and Ann M'Lellan.

Provided, as regards all interments after the date of this Order:

That the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to public health: That no interment shall be made in any part of the Burial Ground unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin: That such burials be made at sight of the sanitary inspector of the district in which the said burial ground is situated: and that notice be given to the sanitary inspector on the day proceeding that on which a grave is to be opened.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Made by the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Dundee, hereinafter called the Corporation, coming in place and stead of the Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of Dundee, under and by virtue of "The Dundee Corporation Act, 1894," and as such the Local Authority of the District, and also as the Promoters and Users of the Tramways within the Burgh of Dundee, under "The Dundee Tramways Act, 1872," "The Dundee Street Tramways, Turnpike Roads, and Police Act, 1878," "The Dundee Street Tramways, Recreation Grounds, Police and Improvement Act, 1887," "The Dundee Extension and Improvement Act, 1892," "The Dundee Corporation Act, 1894," "The Dundee Corporation Act, 1897," "The Dundee Corporation (Tramways) Act, 1898," "The Dundee Gas, Street Improvements and Tramways Act, 1899," and "The Dundee Corporation Order Confirmation Act, 1901," and Acts thereby incorporated, for preventing the commission of any nuisance in or upon any Carriage, or in or against any premises belonging to them, and for regulating the travelling in or upon any Carriage belonging to them; the distances at which Carriages using the Tramways shall be allowed to follow one after the other; the stopping of Carriages using the Tramways; and the traffic on the Roads in which the Tramways are laid; and for other purposes.

1. No Tramway Car or Tramway Carriage (hereinafter in these Bye-Laws and Regulations called "Car") shall follow any other Car on the same line of rails at a nearer distance than 50 yards, except in case of accident or mishap, when a derelict Car may be drawn or propelled by another Car.

2. Every Driver and Conductor of any Car shall stop the Car for the purpose of taking up passengers in the course of its journey, whenever required by any person desiring to enter any Car, as well as at the Stances allotted to it by the Magistrates, but no Car shall stop at or within ten yards on either side of any crossing from one line of Tramway to another line of Tramway, or at or within ten yards of any crossing over any Street, or on any curve or gradient where difficulty would be experienced in starting the Car.

3. All carts, carriages, or other vehicles travelling or being driven on or over or standing on any part of any road in which the Tramways or any of them are laid shall, on any Car approaching, take the side of the road or Tramway other than that upon which such Car is approaching, so as to steer clear of the same when passing: Provided always that should such cart, carriage, or other vehicle be standing, travelling, or passing on any part of any road with an ample free space between and the nearest line of rail, so as to allow of the safe passing of the Car, this rule shall not apply.

4. All persons in charge of any animal or animals shall take or drive them out of the way, and all foot passengers shall also get out of the way of any passing Car; but the Drivers and Conductors of all Cars shall have their brakes always under control, and use their utmost endeavours to avoid any collision with or injury to any animals or foot passengers, and shall keep a good look-out for children incautiously straying or walking in the Streets or attempting to cross over in the face of an approaching Car, and the Driver shall, by sounding his bell, give warning of the approaching Car.

5. When any Car is following any vehicle ample space between the Car and such vehicle shall be allowed, so that in the event of the vehicle pulling up suddenly no collision may result thereby; but every vehicle shall go out of the way of the Car with all despatch, so as to keep the Tramway clear for the use of the Car.

6. No Car shall be stopped abreast, or within twelve yards, of another Car on an adjoining line of rails except on necessary occasions; and when Cars on different lines are passing each other the Drivers shall reduce the speed of the Cars, and gently put on the brakes, to guard against running over persons that may be crossing in the rear of either Car.

7. In the event of any Street being blocked, the Driver of any Car shall stop the same before arriving at the place where the block occurs, so as to keep an open space between for carriages to pass. In case a Car is stopped by any block so long as to bring two Cars together, the foremost Car must, after the way is clear, be driven along so that the time lost by the delay may be gradually made up as soon as possible; but notwithstanding no Car shall be driven faster than the rate prescribed by the Board of Trade.

8. When Cars are going in opposite directions, and likely to meet near a facing point (whether such facing point leads to a Junction, Siding, or Cross-Over), Drivers shall not pass each other until they are certain that the Car first approaching such facing point has taken it safely. The Car about to take a point shall have the precedence of the other.

9. No person shall act as a Conductor of any Tramway Car, unless and until he be Licensed by the Magistrates, and such License may be granted annually, and may be withdrawn on one conviction, and shall be withdrawn on two convictions by any Magistrate of any breach of any Bye-Law: Provided always that the Chief Constable shall be entitled to grant temporary Licenses till the first meeting of the Magistrates after application for any such License.

10. All Drivers of Cars, on coming in sight of any cart, carriage, or other vehicle standing on the line of Tramway on which he is plying, or by the side thereof, without there being free space to pass, shall sound his bell as a signal to the Drivers or persons in charge of any such cart, carriage, or other vehicle, and that for a distance of 30 yards at least before coming up to such cart, carriage, or other vehicle.

11. All Drivers and Conductors of Cars shall obey all orders by any Police Officer on duty on the road or in the route travelled over, who is hereby authorised to give such directions as may be necessary for the safety of vehicles and passengers, and for securing the observance of the foregoing Bye-Laws and Regulations in all other respects.

12. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave any Car whilst in motion, but should any person do so, he shall be responsible for any mishap or injury to himself or others by having done so.

13. All persons desiring to alight from any Car shall do so before any person boards such Car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desirous of boarding the Car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

14. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, or a servant of the Tramways Department of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, shall enter mount any Car.

15. No person in a state of intoxication, or affected with any dangerous infectious or contagious disease, shall enter or mount upon any Car, and, if found in or upon any Car, shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the Conductor.

16. When any Car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers which it is licensed to carry in the inside, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in the interior of any such Car, except by the express permission of the Conductor first obtained. When any Car contains in the outside thereof the full number of passengers which it is licensed to carry on the outside, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on the outside of any such Car.

17. No passenger, or other person, not being a servant of the Tramways Department of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, shall be permitted to travel on the steps, platforms, buffers, or guards of any Car, or stand on the roof, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any Car, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the Conductor.

18. No person shall bring into or upon, or convey, or cause or permit to be brought into or upon or conveyed in or on any Car, any bundle of clothing or any article or thing tending to communicate any dangerous infectious or contagious disease, or any article of an offensive or dangerous character, or of a bulk or description which may interfere with the comfort of any passenger, and such article or thing, if introduced, may be removed summarily from such Car by the Conductor.

19. No person shall take a dog or other animal into or on any Car, except by permission of the Conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any Car after having been requested not to do so by the Conductor. Any dog or other animal found on any Car shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the Car immediately upon request by the Conductor. In default of compliance with such request, and without prejudice to the prosecution of the person offending hereunder, such dog or other animal may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor.

20. No person shall travel in or on any Car with loaded firearms, or any article, instrument or implement, or any material or substance, which may be dangerous or offensive to the passengers.

21. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats or the furnishings or fittings, or remove or deface any number plate, advertisement, printed or other notice, of or on any Car, or break or scratch any window, paint, or wood or ironwork of, or otherwise wilfully damage any Car. 23. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any Car, play or perform upon any musical or other instrument.

24. No person shall swear or use obscene, indecent, or offensive language whilst in or upon any Car, or spit, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any Car, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

25. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the Conductor of a Car, soil or injure the furnishings or fittings of the Car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger; or a person who, in the opinion of the Conductor, might for any other reason be offensive or objectionable to passengers, shall not be entitled to mount or enter or travel in or on any Car, and may be prevented from mounting or entering any Car, and shall not mount or enter any Car after having been requested not to do so by the Conductor, and if found in or on any Car, shall, on the request of the Conductor, leave the Car, upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.
