

The Edinburgh Gazette

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1903.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute at Kilmarnock, finding that St. Andrew's Burying Ground, situate in the Burgh of Kilmarnock (St. Andrew's quoad sacra Parish), is in an overcrowded and insanitary condition, and is dangerous to health, and that the said Burying Ground should be closed as a place of sepulture, except for the burial of any widow or widower of over sixty years of age at the date of the Order, whose husband or wife has been buried therein: provided always, as regards all interments after the date of the Order, that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to public health; that no interment shall be made in any part of the Burying Ground unless the coffin can be laid, without displacement of remains, at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and with an interval of at least one foot between adjacent coffins; that such burials be made at sight of the Sanitary Inspector of the District in which the said Burying Ground is situated; and that notice be given to the Sanitary Inspector on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burying Ground should be closed subject to the exceptions named:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 1st day of August 1903.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before such Representation is so considered.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 23RD JUNE 1903.)

MARKETS AND SALES ORDER OF 1903.

The Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Regulation of Markets and Sales.

1.—(1) A market or sale of animals shall not be held in or upon any market-place, highway, saleyard, or other premises until after the expiration of eight days from the date on which the premises were previously so used, unless the premises, or a part thereof sufficient to accommodate the number of animals usually exposed at such market or sale, are so paved with cement, concrete, asphalt, or other hard material impervious to water, as to permit of the same being effectually cleansed by washing.

(2) This Article shall not be deemed to prohibit the holding of any lawful fair on two or more consecutive days.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Markets and Sales.

2.—(1) Any market-place, highway, saleyard, or other premises, in or upon which markets or sales are habitually held, shall, as soon as practicable after being used for the purposes of a market or sale, and before being again so used, be cleansed and disinfected as follows:—

(i.) The premises shall be thoroughly scraped or swept, and such parts thereof as permit of the same being effectually cleansed by washing shall be so cleansed;

(ii.) After such cleansing the premises shall be thoroughly sprinkled with a solution of carbolic acid and limewash containing not less than five per cent. of actual carbolic or cresylic acid;

(iii.) All pens, hurdles, and fittings used in connection with the market or sale shall, as soon as practicable after being used for such purpose, and before being again so used, be cleansed by scraping and washing, and after such cleansing shall be thoroughly sprinkled with a solution of carbolic acid and limewash as prescribed above; and

(iv.) The scrapings and sweepings shall forthwith be well mixed with quicklime and be effectually removed from contact with animals.

(2) The cleansing and disinfection required by this Article shall, in the case of a market-place, saleyard, or other premises in the occupation of any person, be carried out by that person, and in any other case be carried out by the Local Authority of the District.

Local Authority to Enforce Order.

3. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

4.—(1) If a market or sale of animals is held in contravention of this Order, the person holding the same, and the owner or consignee of each animal exposed thereat, and the person exposing the same thereat, and the purchaser thereof of any animal, such last-mentioned person or such purchaser, knowing the market or sale to be held in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If anything is omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of this Order, the owner and the lessee and the occupier of any place in or in respect of which the same is omitted shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Revocation of Regulations of Local Authorities.

5. All regulations made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board requiring the cleansing and disinfection of any premises are as from the commencement of this Order hereby revoked so far as they extend to the cleansing and disinfection of any market-place, highway, saleyard, or other premises which by this Order are required to be cleansed and disinfected: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under any regulation hereby revoked before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceedings in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, any regulation hereby revoked before the date of this revocation.

Interpretation.

6. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Animals” means cattle, sheep, and goats, and all other ruminating animals, and swine:

“Person” includes any body of persons corporate or unincorporate:

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894:

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Extent.

7. This Order extends to England, Wales, and Scotland.

Commencement.

8. This Order shall come into operation at the expiration of one year from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and three.

L. S.

T. H. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture, 4 Whitehall Place, London, S. W.

BURGH OF FRASERBURGH.

EXTENSION OF BURGH BOUNDARIES.

NOTICE is hereby given:—

(1) That the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Fraserburgh have presented to the Sheriff of Aberdeen, Kincardine, and Banff at Peterhead, a Petition praying the Court—

To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the said Burgh, for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Burgh, in manner following, viz.:—Commencing at a point at low-water mark on the west shore north of the west boundary line of the quarry feued off to the Burgh Commissioners of Fraserburgh, now the Town Council of Fraserburgh (being the point marked A on the copy of the Ordinance Plan produced in process, and hereby referred to); and from thence running southwards along the boundary of said quarry in a straight line till it reaches the Banff Turnpike Road at a point immediately west of the buildings at Broadsea Farm (being the point marked B on said Ordinance Plan); thence in a straight line southwards or thereby to the north-east corner of the dwelling-house on the Farm of Fatson's Loch (being the point marked C on said Plan); thence in a straight line running southward or thereby to a point on the south-east side of the Strichen Turnpike Road opposite the division of the fields numbered 270 and 292 on said Plan, being the point marked D thereon; thence eastward along the line dividing the said two fields, and continuing in the same straight line for a distance of one hundred and thirty feet or thereby eastward beyond the Kessoek Burn to the point marked E on said Plan; thence southwards or thereby for a distance of six hundred and thirty feet or thereby to the point marked F on said Plan; thence at right angles from said last line eastward to the east side of the Aberdeen Turnpike Road to the point marked G on said Plan; thence northwards to the point marked H on said Plan, being the south side of the cross road leading from the Aberdeen Turnpike to the Cairnbulg Road; thence eastwards or thereby along the south side of said cross road in a straight line to the point marked J on said Plan; thence in a north-easterly direction in a straight line across the Great North of Scotland Railway line immediately to the south of the present level-crossing, and continuing in the same straight line across the bents and the sand beach to the sea at low-water mark (being the point marked K on said Plan); thence northwards or thereby by low-water mark along the coast to Kinnaird's Head; and thence westwards by low-water mark along the coast to the point A on said Ordinance Plan, where the boundaries commence as aforesaid, all as marked out and laid down on the said Plan; and, further, to determine in a summary manner all questions that may arise in reference to the matter embraced in this Petition; and to appoint the Deliverance of the Court (along with the said application) to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, and in the Minute-Book of the Town Council of the said Burgh.

(2) That in said Petition the Sheriff has pronounced the following Deliverance, viz.:—
“Edinburgh, 22nd June 1903.—Appoints intimation
“ of the foregoing Petition of the boundaries proposed

"for the revised and extended boundaries of the said Burgh as set forth therein, and of this Deliverance, to be given by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Fraserburgh Herald newspapers, and also by handbills to be posted within the Burgh, and also within the area proposed to be included within the said revised and extended boundaries; and directs all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the Petition, or to be heard in relation thereto, to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Peterhead within seven days from the latest date of intimation; and appoints the Plan referred to in the Petition to remain in the hands of the Clerk of Court for inspection until further orders.

(Signed) "D. CRAWFORD."

Notice is also hereby given that the latest date of intimation to be made in terms of said Deliverance will be the 30th day of June current, and that all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of said Petition, or to be heard in relation thereto, are required to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Peterhead within seven days from that date.
