At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute at Kilmarnock, finding that St. Andrew's Burying Ground, situate in the Burgh of Kilmarnock (St. Andrew's quoad sacra Parish), is in an overcrowded and insanitary condition, and is dangerous to health, and that the said Burying Ground should be closed as a place of sepulture, except for the burial of any widow or widower of over sixty years of age at the date of the Order, whose husband or wife has been buried therein: provided always, as regards all interments after the date of the Order, that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to public health; that no interment shall be made in any part of the Burying Ground unless the coffin can be laid, without displacement of remains, at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and with an interval of at least one foot between adjacent coffins; that such burials be made at sight of the Sanitary Inspector of the District in which the said Burying Ground is situated; and that notice be given to the Sanitary Inspector on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burying Ground should be closed subject to the exceptions named:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the 1st day of August 1903.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or notice thereof, be affixed, as required by the above-mentioned Act, on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before such Representation is so considered.
