BURGH OF FRASERBURGH.

EXTENSION OF BURGH BOUNDARIES.

NOTICE is hereby given:—

(1) That the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Fraserburgh have presented to the Sheriff of Aberdeen, Kincardine, and Banff at Peterhead, a Petition praying the Court—

To revise, alter, and extend the boundaries of the said Burgh, for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and the Town Councils (Scotland) Act, 1900, and to define in a written Deliverance the new boundaries of the said Burgh, in manner following, viz.:—Commencing at a point at low-water mark on the west shore north of the west boundary line of the quarry feued off to the Burgh Commissioners of Fraserburgh, now the Town Council of Fraserburgh (being the point marked A on the copy of the Ordinance Plan produced in process, and hereby referred to); and from thence running southwards along the boundary of said quarry in a straight line till it reaches the Banff Turnpike Road at a point immediately west of the buildings at Broadsea Farm (being the point marked B on said Ordinance Plan); thence in a straight line southwards or thereby to the north-east corner of the dwelling-house on the Farm of Fatson's Loch (being the point marked C on said Plan); thence in a straight line running southward or thereby to a point on the south-east side of the Strichen Turnpike Road opposite the division of the fields numbered 270 and 292 on said Plan, being the point marked D thereon; thence eastward along the line dividing the said two fields, and continuing in the same straight line for a distance of one hundred and thirty feet or thereby eastward beyond the Kessoek Burn to the point marked E on said Plan; thence southwards or thereby for a distance of six hundred and thirty feet or thereby to the point marked F on said Plan; thence at right angles from said last line eastward to the east side of the Aberdeen Turnpike Road to the point marked G on said Plan; thence northwards to the point marked H on said Plan, being the south side of the cross road leading from the Aberdeen Turnpike to the Cairnbulg Road; thence eastwards or thereby along the south side of said cross road in a straight line to the point marked J on said Plan; thence in a north-easterly direction in a straight line across the Great North of Scotland Railway line immediately to the south of the present level-crossing, and continuing in the same straight line across the bents and the sand beach to the sea at low-water mark (being the point marked K on said Plan); thence northwards or thereby by low-water mark along the coast to Kinnaird's Head; and thence westwards by low-water mark along the coast to the point A on said Ordinance Plan, where the boundaries commence as aforesaid, all as marked out and laid down on the said Plan; and, further, to determine in a summary manner all questions that may arise in reference to the matter embraced in this Petition; and to appoint the Deliverance of the Court (along with the said application) to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, and in the Minute-Book of the Town Council of the said Burgh.

(2) That in said Petition the Sheriff has pronounced the following Deliverance, viz.:—
“Edinburgh, 22nd June 1903.—Appoints intimation
“ of the foregoing Petition of the boundaries proposed
