LIGHT RAILWAYS ACT, 1896.

ADDITIONAL RULE, dated May 1904, made by the Board of Trade with respect to the Notices to be given and Deposits made in cases where alterations of work are proposed during progress of application.

WHERE an application for an Order authorising a Light Railway has been made to the Light Railway Commissioners, and the Promoters communicate to the said Commissioners their desire to make any additions to or alterations in the line of the railway, or the works thereof, or the lands to be taken as respectively proposed under such application, and such desired additions or alterations are not of such extent or character as to make it inconvenient or inadvisable, in the opinion of the Commissioners, that the same should be dealt with under the said application, the Promoters shall, with the consent of the Commissioners, given at any time before the said application has been decided on by them, publish such advertisements, and give such notices, and make such deposits (including any lists and statements required under Rules 32 and 33 of the Board of Trade Rules, 1898), as would have been requisite under the said Rules if such additions or alterations had formed the subject of a separate application for an amending Order, in accordance with Rule 38 of the said Rules, except that notwithstanding anything contained in the said Rules such advertisements shall be published, such notices given, and such deposits made at such times as shall be directed by the Commissioners.
