FROM TUESDAY, AUGUST 21. TO FRIDAY, AUGUST 24. 1804.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of August 1804,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council. It is this day ordered by his Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday, the fourth day of September next, be further prorogued to Thursday the fourth day of October next.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—August 21, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. Vice-Admiral of the White, to William Marsden, Esq. dated on board the San Josef, off Ushant, the 16th instant.

SIR—Herewith I transmit for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a letter from Captain Innes, of his Majesty's sloop Rambler, giving an account of the capture of two sloops of the enemy, and of having driven on shore the rest of a coasting convoy at St Gillies.—I am, &c.

CHAS. COTTON.

His Majesty's Sloop Rambler, at Sea, August 16. 1804.

SIR—I have the honour to acquaint you, that, being between the Isle Dieu and the main on the morning of the 7th instant, I observed nine sail of sloops and chaffe mares close in shore, steering to the southward and eastward. About nine it fell calm; I then sent the boats, under the command of Lieutenant Forrean and Mr Cox, master's mate, to take possession of them; but, favoured by a light air, they came to an anchor under the battery of St Gillies, and within musket-shot of the shore; notwithstanding which, two of the sloops were brought off with great gallantry under a smart fire from field pieces and musketry: The others cut their cables, and ran aground so near to the pier head it was impossible to get them off.—I have the honour to be &c.

THOMAS INNES.
