MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

Regulation under Section 9.

THE MOTOR CARS (RESTRICTION OF SPEED)
(BURGH OF TOBERMORY) ORDER, 1904.

WHEREAS by section 9, as read with section 18, of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is provided that within any limits or place referred to in Regulations made by the Secretary for Scotland, with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the Local Authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles an hour :

And whereas the Town Council of the Burgh of Tobermory have applied to me to make a Regulation under the said section for the safety of the public within the said area, and I am of opinion that it is desirable to grant the said application :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me in that behalf, I, the undersigned, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby make the following Regulation :—

1. No person shall drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles an hour on the roads or portions of roads within the Burgh of Tobermory, specified in the Schedule to this Regulation.

2. This Order may be cited as "The Motor Cars (Restriction of Speed) (Burgh of Tobermory) Order, 1904."

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall this 16th day of September 1904.
