TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDREW BARTHOLOMEW, Merchant in Linlithgow.

UPON the application of the trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Andrew Bartholomew, the Sheriff of Stirling, in virtue of a remit from Lord Meadowbank, Ordinary officiating on the bills, has fixed Tuesday the 18th day of September current, at ten o'clock forenoon, within the Sheriff Court-hall in Stirling, for the public examination of certain persons connected with the said estate.—Of all which notice is hereby given; in terms of the statute.

Edinburgh, Sept. 3. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

EWEN LIVINGSTON, Merchant in Greenock.

DONALD MARTIN, merchant in Greenock, trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said Ewen Livingston, does hereby intimate to the creditors, that he has made up a second scheme of division of the sums recovered, and a new state of the bankrupt's outstanding funds, which lie open in the trustee's hands, in his office in Greenock, for the inspection of all concerned, until Monday the 1st day of October next, upon which day the trustee is to make a second dividend of the bankrupt's funds, in terms of the statute.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

DAVID REID, Merchant in Greenock.

ON the application of Septimus Ellis, merchant in Glasgow, trustee on his sequestrated estate, Lord Meadowbank Ordinary authorized him to make the first dividend of said estate on the 2d October next; the second dividend within three months thereafter; and every succeeding dividend at the distance of not more than four months from the period of the former; of which intimation is hereby given to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES REID & CO. Merchants in Glasgow.

THE Lord Ordinary on the bills has, of this date, authorized the trustee to make the first dividend upon the 1st day of October next; and such creditors as have proved their debts under statute, will then receive a dividend of eight shillings in the pound; and, in the mean time, a state of the debts and funds, and a scheme of division, lies at the office of Septimus Ellis, merchant in Glasgow, the trustee, for the inspection of all concerned.

August 30. 1804.

TO CREDITORS.

THE Lord Ordinary this day sequestrated the whole estate, real and personal, of GILBERT MUIR, Manufacturer in Glasgow, and appointed his creditors to meet on Friday, the 7th of September next, within the house of Mrs Claud Currie, vintner in Glasgow, betwixt the hours of one and two o'clock afternoon, to cause an interim factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, upon Friday the 5th day of October thereafter, to appoint a trustee upon the said sequestrated estate.—Of which this notice is given; in terms of the statute.

August 31. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN SILVER, Merchant in Stonehaven.

THE estates of the said John Silver were this day sequestrated by the Lord Ordinary on the bills, and his creditors are appointed to meet at Stonehaven, within the house of James Smith, vintner there, on Saturday next, the 8th September current, at twelve o'clock noon, to chuse an interim factor; and at same place and hour, on the 6th of October next, to chuse a trustee.—Of all which this public notice is given, in terms of the statute.

Edinburgh, Sept. 1. 1804.
